DEER HUNTERS...

hunting in the Twining and Turner area of northeastern Arenac County, were warned not to shoot 'Duke', a two-year-old pat buck deer wearing a 'strip of red fabric on his five-point cack of horns. Since the young buck was a fawn two or three months de, it has been a pet around the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Charles, Hollister, on mile northeast of Twining. It has never been a captive but the deer comes at frequent intervals to the Hollister farmyard to feed on vegotables, milk, grain and other food put out for it. Last whiter it was a regular visitor at the farm and during the past summer, Duke acame so tame he followed the Hollisters to town on shopping trips, and eren entered stores when he was permitted to do so. Summer visitors to Twining took scores of sampshots of Duke on his visits to form. Mrs. Hollister has placed a red bett on Duke's horns to let deer hunters know he's a pet. Charles Hollister is a brother of Mrs. H. A. McIntyre of our community, and this item of interest appeared recently in the Bay City Times.

A SPECIAL MATINEE.

for Thankspring Day will be presented at Farmington Civic Theatre on Thursday. Continuous shows will be run from 12:30 on. The double bill will be "Gunrighter" and "The Qhost and Mrs. Muir", the latter film, incidentally, is scheduled to be broadcast on the Film Guld program next week. It's top-flight entertainment, so if you feel like relaxing and taking it easy, following a much too hearty Thanksgiving dinner—just get yourself down to the Civic Theatre.

FARMINGTONITES . along with the rest of the Michiganders, awoke the white world on Monday morning. It was certainly not very pleasant under foot, nor for those folks who had to do any driving — but it was very pretty to look out of doors. The Farmington Town Hall yard was a veritable fairlyland. One would go a long, long ways to find anything to equal this country on a crisp, winter morning when a new fall of snow has just descended upon the earth. And incidentally, how about that moon this week?

this week?

ANYONE WOULD THINK...

that the Farmington Dairy was a Chinese Theatre, judging from the sidewalk in front of the establishment. A new cement walk has just been put in down there, but the cement was not given a chance to dry — indeed, the workmen were not even through with the job, — before some unthinking people had walked right (brough it, leaving their footprints for all posterity! It might be the fashion in Hollywood, but we can't say that it particularly adds to the attractiveness of Farmington's business district.

EVERYONE... Is wondering who "Miss Hush" is — but of course you are, too. T terrific amount of prizes being offered to the one who can ident the voice that you here on the radio program is something for everyon to talk about! Just what would you ever do with all that, if you did w it — except pay a good fat tax on it? It sounds like all the things me people work and save a lifetime to have — and then do not achiev Anyway, it is fun to think about — and have you decided who "MI Hush" is?

BEGINNING NEXT WEEK.

we will again carry the "Blue and White" in The Enterprise, a section edited and prepared by the Journalism Class of Farmington High School. John Pettihone is editor this year and he will be assisted by Peggy Labadie as assistant editor, and a staff of reporters. This has come to be a feature enjoyed by everyone and we are happy to again be able to bring it to you, through the cooperation of the journalism class. Watch for it next week.

In the Entire Community...

Is invited to participate in Union Thanksgiving Services which will be held Wednesday evening, the night before Thanksgiving, at the Methodist Church. This is a community service of thanksgiving, with all our local churches participating. Other special Thanksgiving services are planned for 10:00 a.m. Thanksgiving morning at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and at 11:00 a.m. at the Christian Science Church House. Another special Thanksgiving service will be held pext Sunday at 10:00 a.m. at Salem Church.

OVER THE RIVER AND THROUGH THE for a real old fashioned woods THANKSGIVING.

With it all comes family, home, hope and faith.

May we all give thanks this day that we are Americans, free to worship, free to think, free to enjoy the fruits of our harvest.

May we, in our unceasing drive for a better world, pause one moment in gratitude for our many blessings and pledge anew our faith in God and Country.
