Christmas is rush time for Long Distance too

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Every year on Christmas Day, Long Distance lines are like crowded highways. And Long Distance calls, like cars, are whumper to humper." Some calls, caught in the rush, may be delayed for

But if you'd like to call someone and don't mind the possibility of a delay - we'll do our very best to get your call through.

Better yet — why not call the day be-fore or after Christmas when the lines are not so crowded?

Best wishes for a Merry Christmas.

WHILE IN SERVICE
Veterans are advised to take a good look at wills and powers of attorney drawn up while they were in the service, and reseined those which are outdated and do not represent their current desires.

In many cases, servicemen and women executed wills and had them witnessed by people who, were not even casual acqualatiances and who have since become widely scattered. Ten to fifteen requests were received daily by the Army for help in locating witnesses. If witnesses cannot be located, wills usually cannot be admitted to court.

In many cases where a veteran

Six rules pertinent to wills are:
1. Have a good will.
2. Know where it is kept.
3. Know it carries out the wishes of the executor.
4. Avoid useless guardians for minor children.
5. Have proper witnesses who are known and can, he found.
6. Make sure the will will be recognized in the state where there its property.
