• A New Year looms before us. Our wish for it is that happiness will bless our homes and contentment reign among our families—that friendship will continue to grow in our community from day to day and in its afterglow come the serenity of good will to each and all.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Galloway, from Garden City, were Christmas guests of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rehahn. Mr. Galloway is shortly to enter University Hospital, Ann Arbor, for observation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol and children visited relatives in Dearborn last week end.

Richard and Gloria Kauranen, who have been quite ill with flu, are now able to be out again as usual.

The Austin Aults of Irving Avenue were Christmas dinner guests of the Hoffmans in Detroit.

The Bradleys, from Orchard Lake Road, were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Welch. The Bradleys, who had expected to occupy the Schilling residence for the winter, have had their plans interrupted by unforeseen complications.

Mrs. Willet, from Redford, was the Christmas guest of her son, Cecil Willet and his family.

Miss June Vance, of Detroit, was the Christmas guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vance.

The Cecil Willets spent Christmas evening with the Ackersons in Detroit.

The Maggoners, of Shadydale Avenue, had a young nephew from Detroit as their house guest several days last week.

Mrs. John Aittama, Shadydale Avenue, is much under the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Judd and their three children were Christmas Day guests at the Stange home and called upon other friends in West Point Park. Miss Norma Judd, who lives out near Grosse Pointe, will spend a week with her grandmother, Mrs. Stange.

The Edwin Johnsons, of Clarita Avenue, are leaving Monday for a visit of several days with relatives in Akron and Uxalton, Ohio.

The Johnsons spent Christmas with the Nordecks in Grand Rapids.

Miss Ina Mae Tallman was a visitor in Kalamazoo Friday.

The Gordon Vances were all visiting Glenn in Veterans' Hospital, Dearborn, Christmas Day. Glenn was well remembered by his many friends and relatives. It has now been announced that he is out of the critical stage and it is hoped that before too long he may enjoy a visit to his home on Mayfield Avenue.

John Aittama, Jr., was a Christmas Day visitor in Veterans' Hospital, Dearborn.

Mrs. Clifton Ault is reported on the sick list.

Christmas cards from Shirley Zowahlen, for years a resident of West Point Park, bear a Philadelphia post mark and address.

Mrs. Henry Minter, who, as Hazel Whipple, formerly lived in West Point Park and Farmington sent Christmas cards from St. Petersburg, Florida.

The Sidelhinkers, recently of Mayfield Avenue, have reached Florida, and over the holidays are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoaglin, of Plant City, Florida.

Friends of Mrs. William Fisher, lately of Mayfield Avenue but now from near St. Petersburg, Florida, received boxes of delicious citrus fruits as Christmas gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gillespie, formerly of West Point Park but now of Tucson, Arizona, wrote they were expecting their entire family home for Christmas. Mrs. Gillespie's mother, Mrs. Painter, and the former Betty Randall, a niece, with her husband, were also to be of the party.

Henry Stizeland, Fendit Avenue, has been crippled up lately by a leg injury received two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Porter and children, Carol Ann and John, from New London, Ohio, were Wednesday to Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault and visited other friends and relatives in the vicinity.

Tom and Lora Ann Roberts, from Monroe, Michigan, were visiting among West Point Park relatives Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault and children, Marjorie and Nelson Meade, visited with Mrs. Ault's parents and other relatives in Flint Christmas Day and Friday.

Carolers were busy in West Point Park Monday night of last week. In the Seven Mile Road District Livonia Methodists were spreading cheer. In the Neighborhood Church section a group of young men visited various homes and delighted everyone with their fine voices.

"Movies" attracted a capacity crowd for the Livonia Methodists in the "Little Pink Church" Wednesday evening. Popcorn balls and other treats were in readiness for the youngsters.

The Neighborhood Bible School held their annual distribution of gifts and treats Tuesday evening. Each child received a generous-sized bag of candy and a small gift. A tree laden with popcorn balls and cookies was also dismantled. A "carol-sing" and several special exercises preceded the distribution. A packed house enjoyed the evening.

Brazil's Tree of Life

Brazil's "Tree of Life," the carnauba, grows in the northern coastal states. From five to six ounces of wax are obtained from each tree annually. Total production of the carnauba wax in Brazil is 26 million pounds annually. The wax now sells for $1.55, compared to 32 to 36 cents a pound before the war. The wood, hard and impervious to salt water and insects, is used in construction.
