Missionary

In Henderson Settlement's environment, without resolving to improve living standards in the community which he came. The majority of students, many of whom go on to college, return to their home communities to work or teach. The country is full of youngsters whose scholastic records at Henderson have been only a beginning for worth-while service in their home communities.

Before becoming a preacher, Mr. Frakes worked for a number of years for a railroad company, leaving the Indiana farm where he had spent his boyhood to become a telegraph operator and station agent for the railroad. For the next fifteen years he did railroad work during which time he was converted at a tent meeting in Colorado. He then became a local preacher, taking the four-year course of study and did local preaching in the community in Kentucky. From there he went to Pineville. The people of the community have honored him by naming the town for him.

The Male Chorus of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Highland Park, will present a sacred concert in the evening service at 7:30 p.m. The chorus is directed by Mr. William Johns.

WHITE ELEPHANTS? END OF THE MONTH? Call it anything, but we have some stuff we would like to get rid of. For instance, we have seads of Gold Dust scouring powder. We guarantee it won't take all the enamel off your sink and lucky you can have 2 boxes for only 9c. Then we have some whole bean coffee. None of us have had the courage to try it, but if you want some coffee cheap, wander in and grab yourself a pound for 39c. If it needs a little doctoring we would suggest adding chicory. This I will give you for only 5c a box and if you really feel brave and want two boxes for 10c, I will give you one absolutely free. We have a couple of good things, too. Catsup. It always helps kill the taste of something that isn't so hot otherwise. We'll sell you Table King for only 22c a bottle and that's a steal. Feel ambitious? Wanna bake a pie? We have two ingredients. Sour Cherries at 2 for 55c and Apricots for 29c. The boys here at the store always welcome a piece of pie, so bring in what you have left over. We are stuck with a mess of Xmas Candy. Take it home for 25c a bag. Now we can't forget the dog. Did you ever hear of I. Q. Dog Food? We have some for 15c for two pounds. We ain't sayin' it's good and we ain't saying it's bad, but it is kibbled and your dog might like it.

In our meat department we have some stuff that needs a home. Smoked Picnic Hams for only 45c a pound. We will tie a rope around one so you can drag it home. If you don't like ham, we have Codfish Fillets, and I do mean we have them. Why don't you have some for 29c a pound. We would appreciate your help in getting rid of these.

Anything on our shelves that looks old, musty, and batted out of shape and you can use, ask us about it. We'll make it worth your while.
