

CARD OF THANKS

I extend my wishes for a Happy, Prosperous New Year, to all my friends, and I want to thank all those who remembered me with gifts at Christmas and other times. You will be most welcome at any time you may be able to stop and visit at the home. Happy New Year to all.

Mrs. Phebe Ross,
Methodist Home, Chelsea.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Albert H. Ross, who passed away January 12, 1944.
Who knows the pain of loneliness. For the one we love so well. Who feels despair and emptiness. More words can never tell.

Miss Elizabeth Luer of Detroit was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Lancaster of Grand River Avenue Monday evening, December 29.

Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith, of Dearborn, were New Year's Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stange.

The Neals, of Hubbard Avenue, spent the New Year week end with friends in Chicago.

The Bucks, of Seven Mile Road, have been visiting in Kentucky.

The Simpsons, of Mayfield Avenue, spent New Year's Day and the following week end with the Ackers in Detroit.

Miss Shirley Zwalien, lately returned from an extended stay in Philadelphia, was a guest over the holidays of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Zwalien, at White Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ault and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Ault, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts in Monroe last week end and also called upon the Edward Stromoski in Wayne. Mr. Stromoski, a former West Point Parker, has returned home from the hospital, where he spent several weeks in a critical condition, and is now resting in comparative comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoff had Mr. Hoff's father, from Detroit, as their guest Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tallman visited Glen Vance in the Veterans' Hospital, Dearborn, last Wednesday afternoon.

John Varhol and son, William, were visiting in Detroit Sunday afternoon.

The Stanges were all visiting in Detroit Sunday.

Mrs. Lillian Nelson, formerly of Hubbard Avenue, but now of Detroit, was calling upon the Misses Lora and Freda Ault and Mrs. Ed Stauch the first of last week.

Miss Norma Judd, who spent the holidays with her grandparents in West Point Park returned to her home near Grosse Pointe Sunday.

Miss Francis Kauranen spent all of last week with her grandparents in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonar, Mrs. Stanley Chavez, Miss Joanne Craig and Mrs. Austin Ault were among the shoppers in Detroit Friday.

Mrs. Marvin Addis and granddaughter, Joanne McVicar, were luncheon guests of relatives in Detroit New Year's Day.

Gordon Alttama, son of Rudy Alttama, was the guest for a few days during the holidays of his uncle, John Alttama. Gordon Alttama is in the service and at the close of his visit, proceeded to a camp in Kentucky.

A letter received from Private 1st Class Herbert Schult, of Shady-side Avenue, states that he and his buddies enjoyed a pleasant, busy Christmas Day down in Puerto Rico, and greatly enjoyed the holiday cards sent them. Herbert has sent home a great many fine, interesting snapshots.

After having been without electricity since the ice storm, Tom and Lora Roberts came up from Monroe Saturday and spent the evening with West Point Park relatives.

After a few days visiting with relatives in northern Ohio, the Edvin Johnsons arrived safely home Saturday. They reported that although mild, spring-like weather was prevalent around Akron, they saw little but ice on the way home and by the time Monroe was reached driving became most hazardous.

Mrs. E. W. Stange was calling on relatives in Detroit Sunday afternoon.

The Herman Hoffmans, from Detroit, were visiting with the Austin Aults Sunday evening.

Mrs. Stanley Schilling has finally left for Florida some day this week. Mrs. Schilling had planned leaving three weeks ago but unexpected complications arose.

Mrs. Clinton Ault is ill. Mrs. Harold McVicar was calling on her sister, Mrs. Jerry Teschka, in Redford, last Tuesday evening. On New Year's Eve, Mr. and Mrs. McVicar were both in attendance at a New Year's Eve party held Wednesday night at the Teschka home.

Eight girl friends of Miss Helen Ruth Ault gathered at her home on Irving Avenue Friday and assisted in celebrating her 16th birthday. All the usual stunts were enjoyed.

A family get-together at the M. E. Ault residence on Mayfield Avenue honored the 4th birthday of Mr. and Mrs. Ault's granddaughter, Anne Johnson, Saturday evening. A gay, happy time was spent by all.

The Mothers' Kindergarten Club of Pershing School is meeting at the home of Mrs. Weitzel at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, the 15th.

Mrs. Austin Ault was attacked with serious illness Sunday night. Mrs. Cecil Willets was one of last week's flu victims.

Alice Jane Vance was a reported flu victim over the week end.

The Bradleys, from the Orchard Lake Road, were guests of the Welches on Mayfield Avenue during the New Year season.

Last Wednesday afternoon was the regular time for the Sunshine Sisters to meet in the Neighborhood Church. Inclement weather cut down the attendance greatly, but those present enjoyed the occasion. "New Years" was the topic and contributions along that line were read and discussed. Special New Year's cake, provided by Mrs. Armstrong, was served with tea.

The next Sunshine meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. W. Stange, corner of Mayfield and Norfolk, on Wednesday afternoon, January 14, at 2 o'clock. It has been decided to hold a few of the Sunshine meetings in homes during the winter, hoping in this way to come in touch with sick or elderly persons who cannot easily attend ordinary meetings. "Problems of Winter" will be the topic on January 14.

A very pretty, but impressive object-lesson, using birthday candles, made up part of the evening service in the Neighborhood Church Sunday evening. Previously, the same program, capably directed by Mrs. Cecil Willets, had been presented, with great success, in the Bible School. Another object sermon is to be used next Sunday.

LIST TALKS FOR MSC FARMERS' WEEK PROGRAM

Farm people who attend the Farmers' Week at Michigan State college, January 25 to 30 will find that an outstanding program of general interest has been arranged. Each department of the school of agriculture will hold its own meetings during the week and general programs will be held during the late afternoon and evening.

Tuesday afternoon speaker will be Mrs. Ray Sayre, Ackworth, Iowa, president of the Associated Country Women of the World. This program will be of special interest to the women who will hear Mrs. Sayre tell of her visit to Europe last summer. Her topic will be "Europe as I see it".

Speaker for the Thursday program will be Dr. Daniel A. Poling, New York, editor of the Christian Herald. His subject will be "A Program for American Defense and Peace". Dr. Poling served as a member of the president's commission on universal military training.

Evening programs are scheduled for each night in the MSC auditorium or the fieldhouse or at both places.

Departmental meetings will get under way Monday, January 26, with Dairy Day. Breed associations will hold their general and business meetings during the day.

Sugar beets and horses will be featured on Tuesday, although all departments will begin their departmental meetings on that day. Wednesday will feature livestock day with meetings of swine, cattle and sheep men. The auction of prize steers, swine and sheep, and the turkey growers' session will be held on Thursday. Friday's program will be largely for musk and farmers, beekeepers and soil conservation cooperators. Much programs will continue on Saturday, January 31.
