

THE LITTLE FELLOW ... with the brace on his leg still needs your help. You will see him in your local stores all noxt week. He is the March of Dimes poster boy and he needs your dimes, not just for himself but for his follow play-matca. Lock for the stiractive posters and canisters. He will be right here, holding his little hand out. You will give him a litt, won't you?

UST SO WE WOULDN'T FORGET

JUST SO WE WOULDNT FORGET ... that it's winter, what with the red stuff in our thermometers refusin to ret very far away from the zero mark, we added a cory blank the source this week. It may be cory to something, but it doesn't he our cara a little bit. At any rate source optimists are beginning to tal about spring coats and suits and the like, if that's any comfort.

JUARY 12 ... date most of us learned about as soon as we began reading his books. It ian't a date we have forgotten, either, or will forget age it represents American and American ideals in the body and of s man who believed in them. Hved them and made them work pileluy, honesex, kindliness makes a ban great, then Abraham Lin was one of the greatest. Test to this is bourne in the remembrane American people have for this leader. On second thought may γ in bed. Of course, I don't know how sym o your excuse, but I have an idea. You , so you had better just get out and face it had just better stay in bed. probabl

18 NOW ...; retty well known fact that crime and juvenile delinquency is not fixed antirely to large cities. J. Edgar Hoover stated in an article se time ago that crime knew no boundaries and that in so called rural as the crime rate had jumped cossiderabity. This is something for of us to think about. Crime costs you money. It is up to all of us do everything in our power to reduce this growing trend. We can it through education, constructive action and leadership. This week a good time for all of us to go to work on it, in our homes and our cools, because this week is Crime Prevention Week.
