LOCALS

Mrs. Ralph Auten was a Detroit caller on Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Meyers of Redford are spending a few days with their parents, the Nelson Vanderburghs, on Waldron. Mrs. Meyers suffered a painful fall on the ice last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Don McIntyre from Prescott spent the week end with their parents, the Hugh McIntyres, on Farmington Road.
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Grewing and daughter Susan from Walled Lake were Saturday callers at the Hugh McIntyre home.
Mrs. Nelson Vanderburgh on Waldron called on her brother, who is a patient at the Herman Kiefer Hospital, on Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of Detroit were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Brown on Middlebelt Road.
Robert Gullen, a Junior medical student at Ann Arbor, and his wife, Beverly Anne, visited his parents, the Lloyd Gullens, over the week end.
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brown had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Eugene Brown of Woodward. Farmington Area residents were so surprised to hear of the sudden death of Fred Ketter on Karl Avenue. Mr. Ketter had spent the past twenty years building and improving, then selling, portions of his property out here.
The V.F.W. Auxiliary will hold their February lunch and card party at the home of Mrs. Beatrice Carpenter, 33449 Wasace, on Thursday, February 26, with luncheon at one o'clock. The lovely handmade quilt will also be awarded at this time. The public is invited for the luncheon and party.
Marilyn Eichler, Bill Conroy, Junior Fendt and Shirley Boyd, all Farmington students at Michigan State College, attended the J-Hop at M.S.C. Friday night. Tommy Dorsey's orchestra provided music for the occasion.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moss of Grand River Avenue are visiting Mr. Moss' brother in Chicago for a few days.
Rev. Dean W. Parker is slowly recovering from his recent illness, in Hurley Hospital at Flint.
Dale Cook and family of Pleasant Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cook of Ferndale and Robert Cook and family of Portland, Michigan, were all home with their parents, the George Cooks, on Power Road, for Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeVriendt entertained at their home Sunday night. The guests included Mrs. Maggie Catherman, on her 75th birthday anniversary. Twenty nine were present for Sunday night supper, including Russ Catherman and family of Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Catherman of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Quinn and daughter, Nancy, the Elmer Catherman family, the Howard Catherman family, Mr. and Mrs. Y. Cuthbert and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaeper, and Mrs. Catherman's granddaughter, Mrs. Marian Gow. Among the many lovely gifts Mrs. Catherman received were two beautiful orchids.
Mr. James Layn was honored at a birthday party last Wednesday evening, given by his wife at their home on Grand River Avenue. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eichler, Mr. and Mrs. Trace Conroy, Mr. and Mrs. Kenn Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Walters and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Dunckel.
Mr. and Mrs. James Layn entertained their pinocle club on Saturday evening.

Clarenceville News

By Mrs. ALBERT KELLY
Sorry there isn't much news this week. Guess the ice storm kept everybody home. After the long winter we are all enjoying the spring weather we have had this week. No doubt we'll soon be freezing again.
The Senior Youth Fellowship of the Clarenceville Methodist Church held a Valentine Party at the church Saturday evening. Refreshments were served.
Mr. and Mrs. Ben Elkins, Miss Doris Biles and Mr. Al Spruce, all of Lansing, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fell on Oxford.
Mrs. William Sonnenberg, Sr., on Oxford entertained her rug club Monday of this week. Fourteen members were present.
Mrs. Roy Shaw returned home Sunday after spending two weeks in Buffalo, New York. She was called there by the serious illness and death of her father, who was 86 years old.
Mrs. William Thornton entertained the Parents Club of Clarenceville last Wednesday at her home on Eight Mile Road.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kelly and sons were Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Beck in Detroit.
We hear that Mr. Albert Bortelle of Oxford has been quite ill. We all hope he recovers soon.
Mr. and Mrs. William Dowsett and family of South Lyon, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thornton and son were Sunday dinner guests of their mother, Mrs. William Thornton.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnes entertained a group of neighborhood children Sunday afternoon with a sleigh ride. Afterwards they enjoyed a bite to eat at Buddy's Lunch Room.
Mr. and Mrs. Damon Knight left Sunday for a three weeks visit with her parents in Tampa, Florida.
The Wesley Group of the Clarenceville Church entertained the Junior Youth Fellowship with a Valentine Party Saturday evening at the home of Richard Newman.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH PLANS ADDITIONAL SUNDAY SERVICE

Two services every Sunday morning will become a regular feature at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Middlebelt at Eight Mile Road beginning Sunday, February 22. The services will begin at 9:30 and at 10:45.
Commenting on this new arrangement, the Rev. E. L. Stuenkel, Pastor of the church, said: "St. Paul's congregation resolved upon this step forward in answer to a definite need. First of all, a growing membership and crowded conditions at recent services make it advisable to have another service. Furthermore, this schedule will give parents, who bring their children to Sunday School at 9:30, an opportunity to attend a worship service while their little ones are in Sunday school. We extend a cordial welcome to all in the community who wish to worship with us at either of these services."

SCOUT LEADERS ORGANIZE TRAINING COURSE

Troop 48, Boy Scouts of America, were hosts at a Scouters Roundtable held at Bond School last Wednesday evening, February 11.
The men organized a scoutmasters' training course, which is one of several in line for earning the Scoutmasters' Key. A health and safety course was given last year, and the training course this year is part of the same program. Mr. John Samuelson will conduct the course.
The men organize just as a regular Boy Scout Troop. Bill Barnum of Troop 35 was named Senior Patrol Leader, and two patrols, the Wolves and the Eagles, were formed. Burton Bingham of Walnut Lake is patrol leader for the Wolves, and John Young of Troop 48, for the Eagles. Mr. Hanson of Troop 41 was named bugler and Mr. Gilson, neighborhood commissioner, is scribe.
The men receive a great deal of benefit from training in this way, and they have a lot of fun while they are doing it.
The next meeting will be held in March at the Novi School.
Mrs. Alma Burnstrom of Twelve Mile Road gave a valentine luncheon on Friday. Her guests were Mrs. Tuck, Mrs. Scheffer, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Clemens, Mrs. Klassner and Mrs. Mitchell.

Roger Gates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gates of Floral Avenue joined the Cub Scouts and is happy to report that he knows all of his laws and oaths. Already he has made a three legged stool and it really is quite a work of art.

Mish. Veterans School Needs Used Watches
Mr. Elmer J. Hanna, Director of the Mich. Office of Veterans' Affairs, recently announced that Michigan Veterans who are taking vocational courses at the Mich. Veterans' School in Flint Lake, Duster, Mich., need used watches for training purposes in the Watch and Clock Repair course.

DeRoy Jewelers Appointed Official Agency

In a letter to DeRoy Jewelers dated January 21, 1948, Mr. Hanna advised DeRoy Jewelry Company that the school would gladly accept a quantity of used watches. DeRoy Jewelry Company is pleased to give absolutely free to the Veterans' School all watches traded in by its customers during its annual February Trade-in Sale.

Lord Elgin. 21 jewels. $70.00

Elgin De Luxe. 17 jewels. $52.50

DeRoy Offers Generous Trade-in Allowances
For this special occasion, DeRoy Jewelers is offering extra generous trade-in allowances for your old watch, regardless of its age or condition, toward the purchase of any new Bulova, Elgin, Green, Longines, or other famous-make watch in any of their three stores. It's a marvelous opportunity for you to help yourself to a new 1948 watch, and to help the Veterans' School, too. All watches received as trade-ins by DeRoy will be given absolutely free to the Veterans' School. Got an old watch? Don't put it off — take it off and trade it in!
