A GREAT EVENT... in the life of young Robert Henry Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of 33704 Shlawassee, will occur on Sonday, February 29, Although young Mr. Smith is almost four years old, this is the very first birthday he has ever had, for, you see, he was born on Fobruary 50, 1944, and since we have the extra day in February out one very four years, the little fellow has been sort of chetated out of birthday amiversaries. He always has to "borrow" a birthday, but this year is different. Just because this is a real évent, he is going to have a party, and birthday cake - and everything that goes with 1. Elemen or tweive of his little friends will gather at his home Sunday atternoon to help him celebrate. Here's wishing him a very, very happy birthday: Here Thursday

EASTER... is just one month away! Already one sees the stores featuring Easter baskets, with grass, and all kinds of candy eggs and Easter toys. A visit to any of the greenbouses, and one realizes that Easter is fast approaching, for there are many lovely plants being primed to be at their very best for Easter. And one hears talk of new spring clubes-aways a sure sign that Easter is not far away. Our churches are getting propared for this freat holday, and the choirs are already hard at work on special anthema and choral numbers. Don't forget the midweek services being held during Leat - you will find you gain a great deal from them, and you are very welcome to altend.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS... is beginning their annual drive for funds next Monday, to continue throughout the month of March. Your help is needed if the drive in Farmington is to be a success. The local quotal is not as great as it has been in former years, but let's not treat it indifferently. This is a real obligation to all of us. If we all do our part we may be sure the drive will be a success, and the Red Crogwill have the wherewithal to carry on its great humanitarian work
