TALENT SHOW SCORES HIT AT F.H.S.

Turning off the glow of the foot-lights, hanging away their spangled costumes and becoming private citizens again after Saturday night's performance were the members of Farmington High's "Talent Show" cast.

The loudly applauded show played out to a particularly appreciative audience, as J.C.M. Jim Martin, writer and director of the presentation, carried on "mike" chatter and introduced the performers.

The program continued with the appearance of a young superman impersonated by Arthur Adams, ballet by Wanda Martindale, Impressionist; Flora Gossett, blues singer; the Doodiebugs, feminine trio; Shirley Boyd with her "Pass That Peacepipe" act; Kenny Birk, trumpet solo; Bob Jolley, guitar solo; vocal; and Eileen Whitehead and Leo Lathrup, singing duet.

EDITORIAL Good Play In The Stands

Were you one of the lucky ones to attend the District Basketball Tournaments at the Farmington Gym recently? If you were, did you take note of the expressions on people's faces, the ages of those in attendance, and the enthusiasm shown?

Whether or not someone dear to you was playing, a close friend or relative, you cheered the victors and underdogs alike. Credit was given where due. Throats became raw after much shouting and chanting, and fumes were put to good advantage when outstanding skill was displayed on the floor.

TWELVE SENIORS JOIN NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Twelve seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society at a special assembly Thursday, when they received their plaques and spoke the pledge. These new members are Elvirigo Dunckel, Carolyn Gary, Patricia Evers, Marge Hunt, Marguerite Labadie, Janet Louys, Thomas McKay, Mary Pagenko, John Pettibone, June Toth, Eileen Whitehead and Marge Young.

Following a piano solo by Dorothy Howard and "Finlandia" by Sibolus, sung by the capella choir, Miss Ruth Bailey introduced the initiates. They were chosen according to the four qualifications of scholarship, character, leadership and service, these being the standards of the National Honor Society.

Sometimes interested spectators asked concerning the manner in which members were chosen. The upper one-third of the senior class received a paper on which they summarized their activities for their entire high school years. The faculty also received a list of names of the upper one-third and asked to rate the students according to their individual merits.
