GIRL SCOUTS 36TH ANNIVERSARY

Hearken all ye, on this sacred day, every blessed Girl Scout through the land, Celebrates, and replodes her loyalty and allegiance so the world will understand. They help alling humanity, regardless of color, race or creed. And in order to grow Friendship and understanding, they plant the seed. Our best future mothers will graduate from this noble and valiant group. Because there is no mental task or job, to which they hesitate to stoop; So congratulations, Girl Scouts, and carry on this grand work, And let the whole universe know there is no responsibility from which you shirk. Then as you grow old and feeble, your daughter will cheerfully take the place. Of the dear mother, who can sit back, rest on her laurels, by God's grace; 'Twill be a source of genuine comfort, when you can look back and think. Of your early scout days, when there was no task from which you shrink. So let's pull together and do all we can to help this most worthy cause. Then when we've gone over the hurdle, let's stop, bow our heads, and pause; To thank God for all these blessings and not leaving a shadow of doubt. There's nothing finer in this whole world, than a true blue Girl Scout.

LOCALS

Tragedy seemed to send more than Farmington's share to the families in and near our city last Thursday. Three of the Schoolcraft-Farmington Road accident victims were buried on Monday. Robert Brough, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brough of Eight Mile Road, as well as James Fletcher, on Robinson, and Allen West, Gilbert Horton of Ray Street, are still confined to Wayne County General Hospital, with injuries received in the crash. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Haskins and family spent Friday in Detroit with the Mr. E. Reed family. Mrs. Clarence Bickling and Mrs. Carl Hinbern visited their sons-in-law and daughters, the Vern Turner family and the Richard Russell family, in Mt. Pleasant, several days last week. Mr. and Mrs. Laubach and little son, Larry, of Base Line Road, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hulbinger and children, and their mother, Mrs. Ethel Koss, near Fenton last Friday, where Larry enjoyed his third birthday party with his cousins. The C. D. Haskins were Saturday evening guests of the G. A. Tarrs on Farmington Road. Mrs. Fred Cook spent Thursday and Friday with her niece, Mrs. Holtzclaw, in Detroit. They also visited in Windsor, Canada. Mr. and Mrs. August Hayes, who have been visiting relatives in St. Cloud, Florida, returned to Farmington Friday, where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brown, on Grand River, before returning to their home in Morris, Mich., on Saturday. Miss Frances Bacon from Hastings spent the week end with her parents, the Reynold Bacons, on Shiawassee. The christening of the baby son, Paul Theodore, of Mr. and Mrs. Pleg Myers (Marion Vanderburgh) was held in the Lutheran Church in Redford on Sunday, March 14. Miss Grace Myers, sister of Mr. Myers and Donald Vanderburgh, brother of Mrs. Myers, were the sponsors for their little nephew. The dinner was given at the home of the maternal grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Vanderburgh on Waldron, Mr. The 22-year-old baby's great grandfather Kuehl, and the parents, brothers and sisters, also Miss Mary Dolores of Wayne. During the afternoon several pictures were taken of the four generations present. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coon on Grand River were week end guests of the Arthur Watsons in Grand Rapids. Twenty-two members of The Book Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brown, Sunday evening, where Rev. A. Stanley Stone and Gerald Domes gave a review of the Book of Revelations. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Millburn entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Belling, Mr. and Mrs. W. Camp Prisk and baby son, Bill, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Engson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Simpson, Miss Ruby James, Roy Rollins and Earl Belling Saturday evening for a surprise birthday party for Robert Curry, who didn't realize he was the honored guest until they gathered around the well planned festive table, and he was greeted with the familiar happy birthday chorus. Everyone had a very pleasant evening, and Bob was surely satisfied, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Laubach and son, Larry, were Sunday dinner guests of their aunt, Mrs. Meda McKinley, in Detroit. Oakland County has more inland lakes than any other county in the state, but with these spring days and warm sunshine, the snow and recent rains have produced many unnamed lakes and streams. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dolten and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sims of Detroit were Sunday callers of the C. D. Haskins on Farmington Road. Mrs. Charles Langley of Shiawassee and Mrs. Mae Jarlett on MacArthur leave Friday for Flint, where they will attend the Department of Michigan Convention for Blue Star Mothers, as delegates from the Farmington Chapter. William Knowlton, auctioneer, of Farmington, spent two days of last week on a trip through Ohio and Indiana, arriving home to conduct his community auction on Thursday evening.

Mrs. John Moore and Mrs. John Ballenger were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wasten last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Newman and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cord and family of Brighton Saturday. They report seeing a number of about 40 deer running in the fields from the road. Farmers out there are petitioning to shoot the deer. They fear for their crops this summer as they say there are around 200 deer in the area, roaming the area. Several ladies from the Methodist Church gave a bridal shower for Miss Marilyn Johns Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hocking on Middlebelt Road. Around 40 ladies were present and Miss Johns received many lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kelly and son were Friday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Beck of Detroit. Little David Frederick had three stitches taken to close a cut on the back of his head. He received the injury in a fall playing last Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Gibb and Mrs. Albert Kelly were Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Glass of Dearborn. Mrs. Glass is confined to bed with a serious illness. Mrs. Marks, Mrs. Dickerson, Mrs. Laue, Mrs. Thomson and Mrs. Watters spent Tuesday at the Flower Show, at Convention Hall, Detroit.
