

West Point Park
By MISS L. A. AULT

Mrs. Dall Tallman, who has been visiting relatives in California for several weeks, returned home Friday.

Louis Carter, lately of the U.S. Navy, is back in the community again.

Mrs. Freeman Carter, formerly of Hubbard Avenue, but now residing at Sandpoint, Idaho, is reported suffering from a nervous breakdown in a hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rehahn were visiting University Hospital, Ann Arbor, last Tuesday and also called on relatives at Clarke's Lake.

Mrs. Marvin Adlis and Mrs. M. E. Ault were calling in Detroit Wednesday morning.

Mrs. John Attama spent Wednesday in the city.

Mrs. John Mercer, Seven Mile Road, visited in Detroit Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and children, Clarita Avenue, visited relatives in Lansing Sunday.

Five year old Pauline Vartol is quite ill with a throat infection. Charlie Davis, of The Country Store, has been on the sick list.

Mr. Charles Davis, of Shady-side Avenue is reported on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hardy and their baby daughter, from Norway, were calling on Mr. Hardy's grandmother, Mrs. Walter Rehahn Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ackerson and children, from Detroit, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson in their new home on Mayfield Avenue.

Mrs. Marietta Wyman was calling in Northville Thursday.

The McGinnis family moved Saturday from the front residence on Mayfield Avenue to another location. It is understood the property is shortly to be occupied by Mr. Kellog, Principal of Pierson School, and his wife and children, who have been living in Battle Creek.

Dr. Loris Hotchkiss, who because of illness has been off duty several months, has resumed his practice. It is understood that Dr. Screen, who filled in for him, has taken up work in Wyandotte.

Pierson P.T.A. executive board held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard Middlewood last Monday evening.

Miss Helen Ruth Ault, who for several weeks has been ill at her home on Irving Avenue, expects to return shortly to her duties as a Junior in Northville High School.

Mr. and Mrs. McMillan and children, from Detroit, were Friday evening guests of Mrs. McMillan's parents, the Magners, on Shady-side Avenue. Terry McMillan spent the week end with his grandparents.

Albert Hardy, from Garden City, was visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. Walter Rehahn last Wednesday.

Mrs. Louis Jennings and children left Thursday to spend the week end with relatives near Flat Rock.

The Bell Telephone Co. was again on the job last week. Among the families having telephones installed were the Magners of Shady-side Avenue, and the Forest Aults of Hubbard Avenue.

Over the week end, several local young men visited Wray Co. General Hospital and became blood donors. It was to this hospital that the boys injured in the terrible crash at Farmington Road and Schoolcraft Thursday were taken.

The community is deeply saddened over the death of Harry Boyce in Thursday night's terrible accident. As "Buddy" he was an efficient news-carrier in part of West Point Park several years ago.

Allan Bosworth, who was seriously ill a few weeks ago is now able to take short walks near his home on Farmington Road.

By the aid of one of their leaders, four Local Girl Scouts have secured the name and address of a needy family and are preparing a package of clothing to send them.

When a band of fifteen howling, snarling dogs, many of them huge animals, and some having come from a considerable distance, appeared in the section of West Point Park near Eight Mile Road, last Wednesday afternoon, residents began longing for a Pled Piper veralton of dog-catcher.

Walter Dixon, of Breton Road, returned last Monday night from Vincennes, Indiana, where he had spent a few days with his mother, who has been very ill. Mrs. Dixon was much improved when her son started back home.

Mrs. Eric Anderson was a recent visitor at the Veterans' Hospital, Dearborn, and called upon a former pupil, Glenn Vance, who is a patient in the institution.

Mrs. Herman Keyser, of Huntington Woods, and who frequently calls upon West Point Park relatives, is reported gradually convalescing from a major operation.

Mrs. Clarence Roberts, Mayfield Avenue, entertained Saturday afternoon honoring the 11th birthday of her daughter, Joyce. The guest list included, for the most part, school friends of the neighborhood. There were games, with pretty prizes, birthday cake, and accompaniments, and interesting souvenirs to carry home. Joyce received a number of lovely gifts.
