FLORAL PARK NEWS

By MRS. EVA BARBER 22735 FLORAL AVENUE

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Willis of Grand River entertained friends from Royal Oak Sunday afternoon. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krieger and son Freddie.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sill of Floral Avenue entertained week end guests from Berrien Springs, Michigan. Their guests, the parents of Mr. Sill, were Mr. and Mrs. B. L.
Sill, who, celebrated their 25th anniversary Sunday with a family gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hunt of Floral Avenue had guests drop in Sunday.
Their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carter and children, brought fish and chips with them as a surprise. They all went for a ride in their new Buick.
After the drive they all went back to the Hunt home, had dinner and played cards. Everyone had a very enjoyable day.

We are sorry to report that Mrs.
W. T. Quick of Floral Avenue is very ill. She went into Ford's Hospital six weeks ago. Last Saturday she came home but took a turn for the worse and was rushed back to the hospital the next day. She has had two blood transfusions this week. We all are wishing her lots of luck and hoping she will get well soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley McIntosh of Floral Avenue entertained guests Saturday evening for dinner and a game of cards. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. McIntosh and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson. Mrs. Mc-Intosh served barbecued spare ribs, home made cake and coffee. They played pinocle and the ladies won against the men.

Mr. and Mrs. Walczak of Floral Avenue entertained guests Saturday for dinner. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walczak, Mr. and Mrs. Meyers and Miss Wanda Batory. After dinner they spent the evening visiting together.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Sittz of Floral Avenue are settled in their new home. Perhaps all of you would be interested in hearing about Mr. and Mrs. Sittz' daughter, Audrey.
She has a beautiful soprano color-ature voice, and sings on a group of 15 singers and also performs as a featured soloist over WJR every Saturday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, on the program called "Make Way for Youth". So, let's all tune in Saturday and enjoy a performance from one of our own neighbors. Incidentally, Audrey will be in the cast over WJR this Friday in which they will dedicate the opening of another new radio studio. Also among the guests on the radio will be J. Edgar Hoover and Ika Chase.

Besides being a talented singer, Audrey Sittz is quite a gifted artist. She is now doing sketches and oil paintings. She has done quite a bit of clay modeling and some of her clay figures were on display at the Art Institute in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hupert were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of Hawthorne Street. They played pinocle and Mrs. Hoeglund baked some delicious cream puffs which she served with coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Willis of Grand River and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fisher spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fisher.
They played cards and Mrs. Fisher served a lovely lunch. They all had a very nice time.

Last Sunday evening, Mr. Robert Sill of Floral Avenue, sang the hilarious solo in Faure's "Requiem" at St. Marks Methodist Church in Detroit. On Sunday, March 21, Mr. Sill sang the baritone solo in "The Last Word" by Du-Bois, at Adrian, Michigan. Fred Kendall, tenor soloist at WJR, went to Adrian with Mr. Sill to sing the tenor solo.

Mrs. Theodore Gillespie of Lakes Avenue has been spending every day at the new Grace Hospital with her grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Ryck-man, who is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Yours truly spent Monday afternoon visiting with Mrs. Milton Hoeglund, of Hawthorne Street.
Mrs. Hoeglund, baked a delicious cherry-pie, which we both sampled and drank coffee and chatted for two hours.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hart of Hawthorne Street, entertained guests Friday from Windsor, Canada. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meloch.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley McIntosh of
Floral Avenue entertained guests Monday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith and daughter, Sharon, and Mrs. W. E. Barber and daughter, Phyllis. Mrs. McIntosh doesn't want me to tell that she made the java and sandwiches, so I won't mention it at all. Mr.
Smith said that if it got around that Mr. McIntosh prepared the lunch and the men would label him "Unfair to Organized Husbands".
And, incidentally, Mrs. McIntosh, I won't mention the cake you baked though I must say it was delicious considering it was your first stab at cooking or baking.

On April 8 there will be a card party at the Town Hall sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion. If any of you ladies would like to fill out a table, let me know. There will be a style show and there will be very nice prizes for the card players. Many of the ladies from Floral Park are planning to attend and right now we would like one more pinocle player and one more bridge player to fill out two tables that are each short one player.

Gee, folks, I'm really in the dog house this week. As you all know, the deadline for income tax returns was March 15. Somewhere along the way I slipped, because I found the letter in my notebook on March 16. Please, Mr. Government, forgive me and don't blame Mr. Yours Truly or you will break up my happy home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barber and daughters of Floral Avenue, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mandt of Ardmore in Detroit, Saturday evening. They played pinocle. Mrs. Mandt's daughter, Shirley, made some delicious lemon tarts and apple turnovers, which she served with coffee. Everyone had a lovely time.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walczak of Floral Avenue entertained guests Friday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Batory, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Batory, and Mr. and Mrs. Kaezer.

Little Michael McIntosh, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley McIntosh, of Floral Avenue, was christened Sunday at the Bushnell Congregational Church on Grand River. A little touch of comedy entered the ceremony when Michael reached up and began to play with the minister's mustache during the christening. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tuohy of Detroit.
