WHITE SHRINE OF JERUSALEM HAS INSTALLATION

Trinity Shrine No. 44, White Shrine of Jerusalem, held their annual installation of officers on Thursday evening, March 18. About 250 members and friends were in attendance.

Mrs. Robert Moreno of Farmington was installed Worthy High Priestess, and was escorted to her station in the East by her son, Bruce. Mr. Kenneth Laskey of Redford was installed Watchman of the Shrine, and was escorted to the East by his daughter.

The installing officers were Mrs. Hazel Lynch, Mrs. Edith Soanen, both of Farmington, Mrs. Emma Dunn, Mrs. Corral Coffin and Mrs. Abbie King, of Detroit. Special music for the evening was arranged by Mr. Cleon S. Coffin of Detroit and Mrs. Ella Darling of Farmington, who were soloists for the evening.

The retiring, High Priestess and Watchman of the Shrine, Mrs. and Mrs. Rex Bailey of Northville, opened the meeting and welcomed guests from Windsor, Detroit, MI, Clemons, Royal Oak, Grosse Pointe, Northville, Plymouth, Hudson and Flint.

Emory Molnar, talented violinist and godchild of Mrs. Moreno, and Robert Salberg, accompanist, presented a short musical program, which was greatly enjoyed by everyone.

At the close of the installation ceremony, Mrs. Moreno, the new Worthy High Priestess, made pleasing remarks and introduced her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were presented with their Past Officers Jewels from Trinity Shrine by Mrs. Hazel Lynch and Mr. Walter Nevins.

Other officers installed were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nevins, Mrs. Vivian Laskey, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bondy, Miss Ida Cook, Mrs. Elizabeth Lutz, Mrs. Ruth Weigman, Mrs. Revella Eppert, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Dusen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buckner, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton W. Clark, Mrs. Clara McGraw, Mrs. Elaine Moran, Mrs. Ruby Hardow, Mrs. Ann Mayfield, Mrs. Iva Tabor, Mrs. Helen Moody, Mrs. Olive Richmond, Mrs. Rena Lamb, Mrs. Zella Nourjian, Mrs. Edna Brewer, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Virginia Oliver, Mrs. Eva Aittama, Mrs. Joyce Herald, Mrs. Emeline Slover, Mrs. Katherine Sweeney, Mrs. Ruth Fokihorn, Mrs. Edna Tolman, Mrs. Armeta Nevins, Mrs. Berly Tumaine, Miss Helen Golden and Mrs. Lena Oldham.

Refreshments were served after the meeting. The table decorations were in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. Many gifts were received by the officers.

Sincerely Yours

Farmington, Michigan
March 21, 1948

Dear Editor:
All of our citizens who live on dirt or gravel roads are having a new driving hazard dished up at them at present. In the shape of "mud holes" and "wash-ups" on otherwise hard road beds.

Sunday most of us commuters, with a thought of Monday's transportation problem upmost in our mind, attempted reaching paved highways to park our cars along the shoulders, so that we would, with some assurance, reach our Monday's work day destination.

Having, with much temerity and the aid of good luck, traveled one mile of muddy thoroughfare, I finally came to a dead halt at what seemingly was a "bottomless pit" of about a half a car's length and the road, absolutely forbidding in its aspects.

Cars were lined up while a tractor was busily engaged in towing cars across the said "pit" with amazing speed and dexterity. And, to bump, good luck, traveled the foregoing to inquire the cost of the above service. To my indignation, the exorbitant fee of four dollars was being extorted from each lucky and unhappy who had no recourse but to pay, or lose a day's employment as a consequence.

At half the price, it would have been a "sweet racket". Downright neighborly, I call it.

Ho hum, the price we pay for spring. But spring's promise of beauty to come, and the glory of our countryside in the offing, will, in a great measure, compensate the trials and tribulations of weather-weary commuters (I hope).

A Dirt Road Commuter.
Notice to Wayne and Oakland County Road Commissioners:
This week's experiences without mail and essential home services, only by our faithful servants who walloped through mud holes on foot or otherwise, to furnish us our daily bread and milk, should be a tacit warning to those in our Road Commissions.

For years many of us have suffered almost the same conditions without anyone in authority apparently trying to do anything about it.

NOW WE WANT ACTION, NOT ALIBIES.
Interested Tax Payers.

To The Editor:
We would just like to state that the opposition to the Clarenceville Gymnasium will never criticize or condemn a large percentage of possible votes on any question. In fact that represents our purpose.

Spokesman for the Opposition

To The Editor:
Interested parents and taxpayers of the Clarenceville District are pleased with the great improvement in voting interest, and we shall continue working for further needed improvements in management, and a better understanding of the things that make democracy live.

A Clarenceville Citizen

The Farmington Post will again cooperate in the sponsorship of the Wolverine Boys State this year, as in the past. Legion baseball teams are now being organized for this summer. The Post members are also actively engaged in a program of aid for veterans and their families.

LIONS CLUB
HEARS TALK BY RADIO EXECUTIVE

Mr. Ralph G. Melvin, manager of radio station WJBK of the Detroit Broadcasting Company, was guest speaker at Tuesday evening's meeting of the Farmington Lions Club.

Mr. Melvin explained the operation of a radio station. During the course of his talk Mr. Melvin announced that WJBK will soon take over the upper three floors of the Masonic Temple in Detroit. This portion of the building has remained unfinished for over twenty years, but will now be occupied by WJBK. He also stated that plans are being made for television studios.

The Toledo station operated by his company will have television operating within two months.

The Lions Club is planning a theater party for the near future, and further details were discussed. Awards for the membership contest held for the birthday observance of Melvin Jones, international secretary, in January, were given out.

A meeting for the transaction of regular business will be held on Tuesday evening, March 20, at 7:30 p.m. at Tom's Tavern.
