Spring has arrived and with it mud and plenty of it. I guess we all have sore necks from craning the window watching cars being pulled out of the mud. Nearly all roads in this area are impassable. Several of the men handled everything they could gather up Sunday to fill a large hole in Oxford. They did a good job, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Newman of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Durham, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Leon L. Newman spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Durham, Sr., in Farmington.

Audrey Kennard and Kay Riddell had a very enjoyable time roller skating on Sunday afternoon at Eastwood Park.

A very large crowd attended the special Palm Sunday services at Clarenceville Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Boyle and son of East Lansing and Mr. and Mrs. David Winkle and son of Ypsilanti were week end visitors at the Albert Kelly home.

David Frederick is having the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Frederick and sons spent the week end with Mr. Frederick's sister and family at Grass Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Briggs and family spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Herald Cox in Detroit. They helped their son, Rupert Cox, celebrated his birthday on Saturday.

Clifford Farmer is on a tour of the southern states with the Detroit Symphony. Mrs. Farmer left last Wednesday to spend a week with him, and then she is going to Miami, Florida, for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zinglieman and family spent the week end in Cleveland.

Mrs. H. Shepard and Gary Mal of Detroit were Tuesday visitors of Mrs. H. C. Watson.

Dorothy Eisner of Waldron, a 6th grade student at Clarenceville, won first prize in the talent contest held last Tuesday evening. Her reward was a portable radio.
