FLORAL PARK NEWS

By MRS. EVA BARBER 2735 FLORAL AVENUE

Well, folks, we definitely have grass on our new lawn. At first we weren't sure. Every morning we all ran to the front window and searched for every new blade of grass. Now we actually see it without getting down on our hands and knees.

Now we are anxiously waiting for those strawberry plants we ordered. This is for your benefit, Mr. Henry. If you want a nice piece of home made strawberry shortcake this summer, better let us know right away when the expressman delivers those strawberry plants.

The welcome mat is out again for some new families in Floral Park. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dmochowski of Detroit moved into their new home on Floral Avenue last week. Another new family is that of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mann who also came from Detroit. We also want to welcome Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Janes who moved from Detroit into their new home on Floral Avenue this week. Mrs. Jeffries' mother, Mrs. Ford, of Detroit, is spending a week with her to help her get settled.

And right here is a good place to rectify an error I made last week. When I mentioned a new family that had just moved in, I misspelled the name. Everyone, even the milk man, has told me about it. It should be, "Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rowe", and I stand corrected.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Willis of Grand River called on friends in Ulfia Sunday afternoon. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Robinson and family and had a lovely time.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gardner and children of Floral Avenue spent the week end in Luna Pier, Michigan, at the home of Mrs. Joe Faull. They enjoyed the trip very much. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Morrell of Floral Avenue spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walker, also of Floral Avenue. They played several games of cards. Mrs. Walker served lunch and card games and they all spent a very pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Trueman of Floral Avenue entertained guests Sunday. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Trueman of Detroit. It was a double celebration. It was the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Trueman and the first birthday anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Trueman's son, Clifford. Everyone enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barber of Floral Avenue spent Friday evening as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dougherty of Detroit. They played cards and Mrs. Dougherty served fish and chips. Incidentally, ever since we inherited those eight gold fish, every time I eat fish I get an overcast sky and it is apocalyptic to the gold fish. One in particular, which we call Queenie, sticks its nose up in the air every time I go near them as though it has no use for me.

Billy Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gardner of Floral Avenue, spent last week at Traverse City, Michigan, with his grandmother, Mrs. Andrew Gardner.

Mrs. W. T. Quick of Floral Avenue, is convalescing very nicely. She still has that very serious heart condition and is taking it very easy as she doesn't want to have another relapse.

Phyllis Barber of Floral Avenue attended a birthday party in honor of Barbara Parry of Detroit. The guests were Joan Hudspeeth, Patricia Regan, Adrienne Daulton, Martha Anne Parry and Phyllis Barber. They played many games. Mrs. Parry served ice cream, cake and pop. Everyone had a delightful time.

May Wosbyna, of Floral Avenue, spent the week end in Detroit at the home of her girl friend, Miss Judy Woolworth. Sunday they attended the Fox Theatre and saw Mark Hellinger's show, "Naked City" by Barry Fitzgerald. They enjoyed it very much. After the show they had dinner in downtown Detroit.

Mrs. Ernie Garside of Detroit visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Alexander of Floral Avenue last Saturday.

Mrs. Harley McIntosh of Floral Avenue entertained several ladies of Floral Park for lunch and a card game last Wednesday. Her guests were Mrs. Robert Everett, Mrs. Norman Morrell and Mrs. Glenn Young. Mrs. McIntosh served chili and crackers, and coffee. Everyone enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Young of Floral Avenue entertained week end guests from Glenview Naval Air Station, Deerfield, Illinois. Their guests were Lieutenant and Mrs. David W. Canham and daughter, Pamela. Mrs. Canham is staying until Tuesday. Lt. Canham flew back home Sunday. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Young invited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Everett to meet her guests. Mr. Everett was stationed at the same place in Deerfield, Illinois, while he was in the Navy, so they had a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of Hawthorne street entertained out of town guests over the week end. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Berman from Welch, West Virginia. Mrs. Berman is a bride of one week and the couple drove up to spend their honeymoon in Michigan. They are here on an indefinite visit.

Mrs. Norman Tomlin of Floral Avenue invited Mrs. W. E. Barber and daughter, Sheila, for lunch one day last week. Mrs. Tomlin served a lovely lunch and they had a very pleasant time.

Mrs. R. B. Alexander of Floral Avenue entertained guests for lunch Sunday. Her guests were Mr. Howard Curtin, Mrs. Karl Kruger and Mrs. Alton Kruger. Mrs. Alexander served a lovely lunch and the ladies had a very pleasant afternoon together.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walczak of Floral Avenue entertained guests Sunday for dinner. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dondarski, Mr. and Mrs. Ostroski, Miss Bernice Ostroski and fiancé, Mr. Lee Meyers and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walczak. All of the guests brought a lovely gift for Mrs. Walczak's new home. She received a set of ash trays, a plastic tablecloth, a chrome wall can opener, a chenille bathroom rug, and a sum of money for new drapes. Everyone spent a very enjoyable day together.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tomlin of Floral Avenue entertained guests on Sunday afternoon. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Glover from Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zutavern, Jr. from Dundee, Michigan. For lunch Mrs. Tomlin served hamburgers, ice cream, cake and coffee. Their guests all had a lovely time.

Saturday and Sunday were busy days here in Floral Park. Everyone was out in their yards spreading dirt or leveling it off, and planting grass seed. It sure is going to look pretty when it is all done. Mr. and Mrs. Quick planted some lovely evergreen shrubs, and there is a beautiful large green bush right under the window of Mr. and Mrs. Haine's home that is growing so nicely that everyone looks at it going by. I guess everyone is pleased that the snow is all gone away for a few months and that summer is well on its way to getting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walczak of Floral Avenue entertained guests last week for dinner. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pease and Mrs. Batory and daughter, Wanda Batory. Mrs. Walczak served a lovely dinner and everyone enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. W. E. Barber and daughter, Phyllis and Sheila, of Floral Avenue, spent last Thursday in Detroit on business. After they completed their business, they spent the rest of the day visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder of Detroit. Mr. Barber came there from work and they all had dinner together. Mrs. Snyder served a tried chicken dinner. After dinner they all looked at movies they had taken on several trips together.
