MINISTER SPEAKS BEFORE MEETING OF W.C.T.U. GROUP

The Farmington Woman's Christian Temperance Union met on Tuesday afternoon at the Clarenceville Methodist Church with Mrs. Roy Shaw presiding. The Rev. Clyde Booth of the Oakland County Temperance League gave a challenging address on "What Would Jesus Christ Do In Regard To Temperance?" He emphasized the wide difference between divine law and civil law on the question, and stated that a true Christian believes in total abstinence and not moderation.

Mrs. William Lancaster reported on character building, particularly the medal contest of last Sunday, and announced another contest for next Sunday.

Miss Wilma Hood, assistant to the pastor of the Clarenceville Methodist Church, charmingly led devotions which were based on "Look Up, Lift Up", the motto of the Epworth League of former years.

A year's subscription to the Union Signal was voted each of the three pastor members of the Farmington W.C.T.U.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, May 25, at the home of Mrs. W. H. McCullough.

Salem Women's Guild Changes Meeting Time

The Women's Guild of Salem Church has changed the time of their regular monthly meeting to be held next Wednesday, May 5, at 7:30 p.m., rather than in the evening, as formerly.

MOTHERS CLUB HOBBY SHOW OPEN TO ALL

Details are now being completed for the Mothers Club Tea and Hobby Show to be held on Saturday, May 15, at the Farmington Methodist Church. Tea will be served from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. and the Hobby Show will remain open until 9:00 p.m. so everyone will have an opportunity to attend this interesting display.

Anyone in the community who has a hobby, handicraft or collection is invited to enter a display in the Hobby Show. To make arrangements for your showing, please contact Mrs. Farrel Weber, Mrs. Rolfe Smith or Mrs. Henry Trombley.

Mrs. Raymond Woolfenden of Birmingham, a silversmith, will have a display at the Hobby Show, and she will be present to show her work during the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Woolfenden currently has a display at the Detroit Art Institute.

It is also planned to have exhibits of water colors, ceramics and other art work.

The public is invited to participate and to visit this show.

TIMBER TUMBLERS SELECT OFFICERS AT BANQUET

The Farmington Timber Tumblers held their annual bowling banquet on Thursday evening, April 22, at Tom's Tavern. All of the women bowling in the league, enjoyed a lovely dinner, which was followed by a business meeting.

Pearl Simpson was elected president of the Timber Tumblers for next year, and other officers will be Jackie Jentzer, vice president; F. Buttermore, secretary; Ruth Lapham, treasurer and Ruth Peterson, sergeant-at-arms.

A very lovely trophy was presented to Carl Hall's team, championship winners for this year, and each of the team members received a lovely individual trophy in recognition of their bowling skill.

Dancing completed the evening's festivities.

All of the Timber Tumblers enjoyed bowling this season, and it is hoped that all of the girls will be back next year to enjoy the fellowship and sport.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Sandau and family of Hubbard Avenue called on Mr. and Mrs. George Waiman in Detroit recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Liza attended the ball game in Detroit on Sunday.

County V.F.W. To Give White Elephant Party

The Oakland County Council invites you to a Veterans of Foreign Wars White Elephant Party on Thursday, May 6, at the 1008 Club Rooms of the V.F.W., 149 Mt. Clemens Street, Pontiac. The party starts at 8:00 p.m. There are plenty of prizes, and refreshments will be sold during the evening.

This party is being put on in order to obtain paper for the printing press purchased by all the Posts and Auxiliaries in Oakland County for the disabled veterans at Percy Jones Hospital to help them to work and rehabilitate themselves.

The public of Farmington is cordially invited. It is hoped a record crowd will attend.

Fact Finding Group To Be Formed At Clarenceville

The creation of a new committee to be known as the "Fact Finders" is being organized in the Clarenceville School District. It was announced at the meeting of the Farmington Garden Club, held on Monday, May 3, at the home of Mrs. Clarence Johnson, 7555 Drake Road.

According to Pierre DeMontier and Vernon Woodcut, members of the organizing committee, the purpose of the group is to obtain and compile facts regarding the present school situation in Clarenceville. DeMontier stated that this is an impartial committee showing no sides and only interested in facts. He added that this committee has no connections with any group or faction.

The committee is expected to be made up of representatives of civic groups in the District. DeMontier stated that any organization may send a representative. Organizations are requested to call DeMontier at Farmington 1421.

A public meeting will be held as soon as the facts have been completed. The time and place will be announced later.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Bazaar and Bake Sale

The American Legion Auxiliary is planning a bake sale and bazaar to be held next Friday, May 7, in the new store building, next to the Post Office.

The ladies have made many lovely and useful articles, both personal and for the home, and they invite you to visit the bazaar and continue on through the afternoon.

The bake sale will feature home made pies, cakes, cookies, rolls, cup cakes and many other treats your family will enjoy.

AMERICAN LEGION ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS NAMED

Winners of the American Legion Essay Contest were announced recently by the department.

Dorothy Howard received first prize in the senior high division, while Robert Erickson and Katherine Kingsley were awarded second and third honors, respectively. Winners in the junior high division were Pat Pithle and Rita Christian.

The subject of the essay was "Our Great American Heritage - Liberty", and essays were limited to 500 words in length.

Judges for the contest were Mrs. Mahlon Bradley, Mrs. DeWitt Goodrich and Mrs. Trace Conroy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cuff of Saline were Sunday visitors at the R. E. Wards.

JEEPERS JENNY!!!

It's gettin' tough to think of how to say things in this corny corner of the paper. Our brain (yeah, we got one amongst us) is all jammed up. Speakin' of jam, we took a hunk of eraser and went thru the jam and jelly department and marked everything down to 29c and 39c. Now our strawberry jam didn't just have a berry dragged thru it - there's a couple berries still there. Same deal on the cherry. So help me, it's true. And you know what? It's all made from fresh fruits, not stuff what's been frozen. If it's frozen sweetness you're after why doncha try a frozen pie? We gotta da apple - da pitch - da cherry - da apricot - da mince - and da berry wit da blues for 59c each.

You gotta da blues? Betcha you won't have when you find you can stray in here and get a lb. of nice yellow butter for 81c a lb. Cheapest it's been in weeks - and so's the eggs we got at 55c a dozen, but they're still in those stinky old cartons that fall apart. Gosh darn, we'll be glad to get rid of those. Got some cute little white cartons with a handle for cottage cheese. The cheese is Daisy Valley stuff and it's the creamy kind. One lb. of cheese in a cute, little white carton with a handle for 19c a lb.

What's with the meat, yer eskin??? That's a question - a $64.00 one. If it's red meat yer wantin' howz about beef? Is it a juicy steak, either round or sirloin, for 79c a lb.? or is it a hunk to roast for 59c a lb.? or is it just some little old short ribs for 35c a lb.? Dunno whether Mr. Swift tasted our sausage or not, but he's running us competition cause we gotta sell his sausage for 37c a lb. Maybe it ain't quite as good as ours, but it's less work for us, and who wants to work anyhow???
