WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM, 1451-M

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong's sister, Miss Maude Gallagher, were dinner guests of friends in Detroit Sunday and were also present at a little get-together of their old neighbors on the East Side.

Mrs. Tom Roberts and daughter, Beth Anne, from Monroe, were visiting relatives in this vicinity last Thursday afternoon and were in attendance at the Livonia Methodist Mother and Daughter Banquet, where they were awarded prizes for being the youngest mother and youngest daughter, respectively.

The Cecil Whitely spent the week end in northern Michigan.

The Misses Lora and Freda Ault were visitors in Harper Hospital Wednesday and again Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rehahn visited University Hospital, Ann Arbor, Tuesday.

Mrs. John Altimarra returned home Monday night from Atlantic City, where she had been in attendance at an Eastern Star Convention.

The trip was made by car, several ladies traveling together. Mrs. Altimarra reports some very interesting sightseeing jaunts in Washington, D. C. and New York City.

Glenn Vance, a patient at the Veterans' Hospital, was able to spend another week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vance.

Frank Gould, who has been critically ill in a Detroit Hospital, was improved sufficiently to return to his home on Farmington Road Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. M. E. Ault, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson and Miss Anne Johnson were calling in Monroe last Thursday morning.

Mrs. Muir, from Detroit, was the Sunday dinner guest of her son, Arthur Muir, and his family.

Norbert Schmidt, formerly of Shadydale Avenue, but now residing near Howell, is reported quite ill with mumps.

Mrs. Schult, from Ann Arbor, was visiting with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Herman Schult, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Borland and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Borland, from Detroit, were calling on West Point Park relatives last Wednesday.

Mrs. Clinton Ault, who was ill with flu for a week, has had an unfortunate relapse.

Chicken-pox has appeared in the family of Nelson Cameron, residing in Redford, but well known to many of the Neighborhood Church folks.

The Raymond Ackersons, from Detroit, were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson.

The Magners, Shadydale Avenue, were Sunday dinner guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, on Mark Twain Avenue.

Mrs. Rose Gunn Reid was in West Point Park Thursday night to attend the Methodist Mother and Daughter Banquet.

The young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Owen are reported convalescing from the measles.

Miss E. Jewell, a Social Aid worker from Detroit, was making her calls in this district last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault were present at a little get-together of the Roberts family in Monroe last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Mary Ackerson was out from Detroit Thursday evening to attend the Farmington Baptist Mother and Daughter Banquet with her mother, Mrs. James Simpson.

Also accompanying Mrs. Simpson were her two other daughters, Eva Willet and Normaene Bruggman, both of West Point Park.

Mrs. Ervin Bollinger was in Detroit Wednesday afternoon attending the funeral services of her great-aunt Lou or Mrs. Wesley, who died a week ago at the age of 92.

Until advancing years made the trip too difficult, Mrs. Wesley used to come out calling on her West Point Park relatives, the Middle-sexes of the Metropolitan Methodist Church, of which she was a life-long member. Rev. Sidney Eva, a former pastor of the Farmington Methodist Church, had a part in the service. Up until 25 years ago Mrs. Wesley was extremely active in all church affairs, taking an especially keen interest in missions.

In Buenos Aires, South America, a church is being built and named in her honor.

Frederick Schult, seventeen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult, was bitten last Wednesday by a stray dog discovered lying under a parked car near Davis Country Store. He was immediately rushed to a physician, who is giving him the necessary shots.

Lansing reports that the dog, which was promptly killed, was afflicted with rabies. The animal is said to have been wearing a Redford license tag. There are fears that it may have come in contact with other dogs of the neighborhood.

Mrs. Forrest Ault and Children, of Hubbard Avenue, were Saturday night guests of Mrs. Ault's sister, Mrs. Leo Woods, near Inkster.

Mother and Daughter Banquets kept dates with a large proportion of West Point Park women and girls last Thursday evening. At the Farmington Baptist Church, Mrs. Chas. A. Armstrong of Mayfield Avenue, had an important part on the program, and practically all Baptist mothers and daughters of our community were in attendance. They report a most delightful meal, shared by 160 persons.

The Livonia Methodists, who were able to use their new church building for their supper had sold only one hundred and fifty tickets. The usual Prayer and Bible Study session was held in the Neighborhood Church last Thursday evening. Teen-agers, as well as adults were welcome. The

Clarenceville Group Invites New Members

The Clarenceville Better Schools Association is now meeting every Wednesday evening at Van's Barn on Eight Mile Road. Mrs. Harvey Barnes is chairman of the group, and all residents of the community interested in the affairs of the school are invited to attend the meetings.

At the present time petitions are being circulated for the nomination of two men, Mr. William G. Lawraon and Mr. Harris B. Edgerton, for trustees on the Board of Education.

group does not get together until evening chores and gardening are over with.

The Neighborhood Church Boys' and Girls' Group, which has taken up a new course of study for the daylight-saving time season, started their work with real interest last Wednesday evening. They are to meet at 7 and be promptly sent home at 8. Children from 3 to 13, regardless of church affiliation, are invited to participate in this work.

Invitations have been issued for a Mother and Daughter Hymn-Sing to be held in the Neighborhood Church Friday night, May 22 at 8 o'clock. Following the song service, there will be some very special features, as explained in the invitations.
