"FANTASY" HELD TO HONOR SENIOR STUDENTS

On May 21, from 8 p.m. to 11:30 p.m., the annual dance sponsored by the freshmen to bid farewell to the senior class was held.

A small pond surrounded by grass was the attraction in the center of the floor. Goldfish were scattered in the water. Various covered entrances carried out the spring theme.

A Truth and Consequences program was conducted by Dick Alexander as a part of the entertainment. "Smoky" Aschenbrenner emphatically read the commercial advertising "Kelly's Crew-Hair Cut". Participating in the quiz show were: Beryl Ervin and Jerry Fisher, Doris Gieskowski and John Green, Patte Every and Tom Taggart, and Marjorie Hunt. The consequences (paid by all contestants) amused the audience. Flashbacks, presented through once-popular songs, recalled many nostalgic memories to the seniors.

FIFTEEN ARE INITIATED INTO QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll assembly was held Monday, May 24, at 8:45.

The convocation opened with Ellice Whitehead playing a march while students entered the gymnasium. Elbridge Danckel, student council vice president, gave an introduction to the assembly and called Marjorie Hunt, secretary of Quill and Scroll, forward, who presented a certificate of merit (first place award to Blue and White) to Mr. Harrison. Miss Ruth Bailey made a brief citation for excellent work done in expository writing.

Elbridge introduced Miss Dammon, advisor of the work in Journalism in F.H.S., who began the ceremony by outlining the aims and purposes of Quill and Scroll Society.

Marjorie Hunt and Lee Lathrup lighted seven candles, symbolic of journalistic aims and aspirations. The seven candles represented Truth, Initiative, Opportunity, Leadership, Loyalty, Enlightenment, and Friendship.

Arthur Howard called the initiates from the audience; Miss Dammon gave each a candle as he came onto the stage to be lighted from the flame of Truth. After the pledge was administered, the candles were extinguished.

Quill and Scroll badges were then given by Miss Dammon, who then closed the impressive ceremony by reading the Writer's Prayer. R.M.H.

PERSONALITIES CAN BE MADE

Personality, like the body, develops. The first and most vital thing to do is analyze your own personality and recognize both faults and assets. Faults are like habits — they must be consciously thought about and when you catch yourself practicing that fault or habit, stop it!

Whenever people make the statement that one has a charming personality, they usually consider his smile, poise, confidence in himself, ability to make conversation, and the capacity to make others feel at ease.

Smile needs no comment. Poise means balance; to be able to keep calm, to know what to do at the proper time, and to conduct yourself with easy grace. Confidence in yourself is essential. If you aren't satisfied, you can't expect to please other people when you meet them—though, like all things, there are limits.

The ability to make conversation falls in the same line as capacity to make others feel at ease. A wide background gives topics for any discussion. Observation of activities going on also gives material. By listening to your companion's conversation and making comments or slight interjections here and there, it carries the conversation along, and makes him feel you are in a charming and interesting conversationalist.

BIRMINGHAM HOLDS PLAY-DAY FOR G. A. C.

Saturday, May 22, was a big day for the girls in G.A.C. of Farmington, Northville and Birmingham. Birmingham exhibited fine hospitality at the second Play-Day. Similar in the season Farmington entertained in the same fashion. The morning hours were given to uncompetitive games of tennis, archery and badminton. A game of softball was played between Farmington and Northville. The game progressed with much excitement and finally ended with a score of 6 to 5, in favor of Farmington. A fine lunch of meat loaf, potato chips, relishes, milk and ice cream cones was served at noon. Programs, decorated in white and blue to represent a soft ball, were distributed at this time.

Following lunch the girls from Birmingham and Farmington engaged in a game of softball. Birmingham came out on top by a large margin in this game. Uncompetitive fun continued in the afternoon. In the archery event, Margaret Clapp, a Farmington freshman, hit the "bull's eye".

The program ended at 3 p.m., the consensus being that a similar schedule be repeated soon. M.V.

Public Invited To Swing-Out Assembly

On Friday, June 4, at 2:35 p.m., in the F.H.S. gymnasium, the class of '48, appearing for the first time in caps and gowns, will present the last assembly of the school year.

The Keith Johnson Memorial Award will be made at this time. Other highlights of the Swing-Out program will be the presentation of the new school gavel to the class of '49, the school gifts, and special music. The class history will bring back many happy memories of the past four years.

The senior class extends a sincere invitation to their parents and to all other persons interested. F. H.
