Party To Benefit Nursery Fund

The Bible Class of the Salem Evangelical Church is sponsoring a card party to be held Thursday, June 3, at 12:30 p.m. at the church. The purpose of the card party is to raise funds to build a sound proof nursery in the basement of the church.

For reservations or tickets, please call Mrs. Robert Clayton at Farmington 0541-R1.

The Salem Ladies Guild are planning a bake sale to be held Saturday, June 12, at Dickersons Hardware. The sale will begin at 9:30 a.m. You'll find many delicious baked goods, made by the ladies of the Guild, and they invite you to visit the sale.

WINS MEDAL

JUNE TURNER

Last Sunday afternoon a speech contest was held at the Baptist Church, and was well attended by residents of the community. The contest was sponsored by the Farmington Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The winner of the first class was nine year old Leah Nathan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Nathan of 33505 Karl Street of this city.

In the older group, the first honors were given to Miss June Turner, the twelve year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Turner of 21659 Albion Street, also of Farmington. June is pictured above.

RECENT BRIDE

MR. and MRS. H. R. HESS

Miss Lily Ivy Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen S. Mitchell of Floral Avenue, became the bride of Howard R. Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hess, at a ceremony at the First Methodist Church Saturday evening, May 8, at seven o'clock. The Rev. A. Stanley Stone officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a square yoke of lace and rhinestones. Her over-shirt with tulle tail was also of lace and rhinestones. Her head dress was a crown, studded with rhinestones, and it held a finger tip veil. Lily's bridal bouquet was white lily and white daisies.

Barbara Minard of Ironton, Ohio, who served in the Waves with the bride, was Maid of Honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Don Speer, sister of the groom, from Saginaw, and Mrs. Curt Pabian, cousin of the bride, from Redford. They wore identical rainbow gowns of chiffon, in yellow, pale green and orchid. Their head dresses carried bouquets of purple lily and yellow daisies.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mitchell wore a rose taffeta gown with a peplum of rose lace, and gold accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

William Mitchell, brother of the bride, served as best man. Seating the guests were Owen Mitchell, another brother of the bride, and Samuel Mueller from Frankenmuth. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the Macabees Hall in Clarencerville. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Holliday from Lachine, Montreal, the bride's grandparents; Mrs. F. Holliday and daughter, Mrs. J. J. Arnold and son, Miss Ellen Smith, Mr. P. L. Lohmeier and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rowlings, all of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Wright from Toronto, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. J. Holliday, Mr. and Mrs. William Goodfellow and family from Sistersville, West Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClements from Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. S. Mueller of Frankenmuth; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beck of Solvay, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dene and Mr. and Mrs. Don Speer of Saginaw, Michigan.

For traveling, the bride wore a powder blue dress, with brown and beige accessories. Her corsage was of lily of the valley and iris. Mr. and Mrs. Hess spent their honeymoon at the Lee Plaza in Detroit.

Named Candidate

Velma's sister, Lois, attended Girls' State a few years ago.

Girls State brings together each year outstanding girl citizens from communities all over Michigan. The girls are selected by the faculty of the school they attend, and by a local committee. They are chosen for qualities of leadership, good citizenship, friendliness and ability.

Velma has been very active in school and community activities. She is a member of the Farmington High School band, having been active in the group since she was in the sixth grade. She was treasurer of the band during her Junior year, was voted an outstanding band member, and also served as assistant director in her Junior year. She served on the Student Council in her Sophomore year, was a member of the Girls' Athletic Club in her Sophomore and Junior years, and was secretary of the group the latter year. She belonged to the Pop Club in the 9th and 10th grade, and was a member of the Monitor Club the same years. She was Junior Class president, and a member of the Falcon Junior Bowling League, serving as captain of the winning team in her Junior year. Velma has been a member of the Girl Scouts for nine years, and she is a member of the Farmington Methodist Church, attending the Youth Fellowship group.

Alternate to Girls' State this year is Lore Leidig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Leidig of Orchard Lake Road. Lore has been a member of the Glee Club for two years, serving as vice president for one year. She served for one year on the Student Council, one year on the Falcon Staff and one year in the Girls' Athletic Club. She worked on the J-Hop, Carnival, Junior-Senior Banquet, and on Freshman dance committees. Lore, too, attends the First Methodist Church.

'TIS SED!!

What this country needs is a good nickle cigar for 5c. Well, we aint got that, but we got cigarettes for $1.62 plus tax for a carton, but you gotta be of age to git these. Can you prove it?? You don't gotta be of age to git the juice special this week end — you just gotta be big and strong so you can carry lots of 'em. You don't wanna pass up this 46 oz. Texun grapefruit juice for 19c a can. It comes in assorted colors too — pink or white. Now aint that somethin'???

Air yuh goin' on a picnic this week end? Got lots of time, you know, cause the stores will all be closed Monday. No sense in gettin' all het up tryin' to build a fire. We got modern equipment fer that. Ever try Kwik-Fyre? All you gotta do is touch a match to it and it will start your fire. Course you gotta strike the match first. One box for 29c will last all summer if you don't start too many fires. To go with that is charcoal for 41c a bag. If you're gonna have a weinie roast why didja ask us for hot dogs? Oh, well — weiners or hot dogs — same difference — they're all 45c a lb. What'll yuh have, mustard or onions? We got 'em both! Hey, didja know we'd like to sell some pop and beer, too? By golly, we jest got everything for a perfect week end.

Where there's a fire, most picnics get kinda smokey. So'd ours. We got the shank ends of this here smoked picnic fer 43c a lb. That's kinda stinky, aint it. Somebody said our ad last week was the same. Did you think so?? Why doncha let us know how you like this kind of stuff and nonsense. This aint nonsense, tho — cube steaks fer 79c a lb. There aint no waste to a cube steak — it's all meat. Jest like cold cuts. Fer yer picnic sandwiches we are about to slice you a lb. of pickle and pimento loaf for 49c. Did I hear you say you'd rather have bologna?? Fer 49c a lb. OK — you talked me into it. Want it in a ring, or a piece, or maybe just a slice or three??
