

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Three Mighty Important Ideas

Maybe you read, where a great encyclopedia has sorted all basic points out that two beers never got anybody into trouble—and that somebody's trying to distort the facts. No, there shouldn't be a law—there should be truth.

Then truth steps in between, and points out that two beers never got anybody into trouble—and that somebody's trying to distort the facts. No, there shouldn't be a law—there should be truth.

Temperance - Truth - Tyranny.

Sounds like a funny combination. And to philosophize a little, note that truth is in the center—between Tyranny and Temperance.

Now then you hear folks criticize temperate people who enjoy a moderate glass of beer... who talk about "two beers" getting some one into trouble, and claim "There ought to be a law!"

FORMER RESIDENT MARRIED AT FLORIDA RITES

The Seminole, Florida, Methodist Church was the scene of the wedding Saturday, May 2, of Miss Mary Frances Youngblood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Youngblood of Seminole, formerly of Farmington, and William Weston Repetto, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Allison Repetto, also of Seminole.

Baskets of gladioli, calla lilies and palms decorated the altar. The Rev. H. E. Phillips officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a short sleeve white crepe dress with an overskirt of organza. Her shoulder length veil was scalloped, and the narrow band holding it in place on her hair was covered with white carnations. She carried a white Bible, on which rested a white orchid. Long white mitts completed her costume.

Miss Gladys Jean Repetto, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of blue, fashioned like the bride's. Her corsage was of pink roses.

A blue Bomberg sheer dress was worn by the bride's mother. Her corsage was of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua crepe dress and corsage of yellow roses.

Allison William Repetto, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Horace Roberts and Charles Todd.

A reception was held at the Seminole Community House. Miss Beatrice Young was in charge of the bride's book.

Out of town guests were Mrs. H. G. Snook and son, Jerry, of Lakeland; Mrs. Ruby Combs and daughter, Lee, of Geneva, and Miss Beatrice Young of Detroit.

After a wedding trip through the state, the couple will make their home in Largo, Florida.

FOUR YEAR OLD LAD FLIES PLANE

HONOLULU, T. H. — Four and a half year old Peter Gunter, pictured above at the controls, likes to fly with his father, Maynard F. Gunter, and under his father's direction does a pretty good job of flying the ship straight and level, as well as making banks and turns. The plane being a two-control airplane with no rudder pedals to contend with makes it easy for Peter to control the plane. He uses a specially constructed portable seat that is placed beside his father. This brings the young flier up to a comfortable position where he can see out.
