Obituary

Edward Stromski, lately of Wayne, but a former resident for several years of West Point Park, died early Thursday morning, June 10, in Wayne Clinic.

Mr. Stromski was a native of Pennsylvania, but came to Detroit a little time previous to World War I. For a lengthy period he was an employee at Wayne County General Hospital, but his health failed about three years ago, and he has been ill since that time. His death was no shock to his many friends and relatives.

Mr. Stromski is survived by his wife, Mary, and a daughter, Barbara Ann, at the family home, 1672 Norris Street, Wayne, a daughter, Mrs. Virgil Commire of Wayne, a son, Melvin, of Belleville, another son, Edward Jr., of Wayne, and four grandchildren. Mrs. M. E. Ault of Mayfield Avenue, West Point Park, is a sister-in-law.

The body rested at Lent's Funeral Home, Wayne, until Saturday morning. At 11:00 a.m. Requiem Mass was said in St. Mary's Church, and burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Attending the funeral from here were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ault, Mrs. Robert Owen, William Owen and Mrs. Austin Ault. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts came up from Monroe to be present at the services, and there were a number of other relatives from out of the community and state.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Irving attended the Commencement of their nephew, Irving Clayton Hollis, at the Hill Auditorium in Ann Arbor Thursday. Mrs. Hollis was formerly Miss Lenore Irving of Farmington.

The neighbors of James Eastman gave him a happy surprise on Wednesday, June 9, in honor of his eighty-first birthday anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Banfield and children from Milford were Sunday guests of their parents, the Hugh McIntyres.

The Lemuel Irvings, Miss Anna Thayer, and James Eastman enjoyed a fish and chips supper last Saturday in honor of Mrs. Irving's birthday.

WEST FARMINGTON

By MRS. SARAH KNAPP

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Saravates and Mrs. Anna Westlake have moved from Detroit to the house known as the Tamm Homestead on Thirteen Mile Road.

Mrs. Mettie Bachelor, Mrs. Edward Lindsey and baby daughter, Judith Lay, called on Mrs. Edith L. Graham Monday.

Tommy Cairns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cairns, is ill at this writing.

Mrs. David Long and two sons, Ronald and Bobby, of Fenton, and Mrs. Lee Giegler and son, Bonnie, and Nancy Lou, of Hartland, called on Mrs. Edith Graham Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Peter Kolman, Mrs. C. A. Pattison and Mrs. G. A. Culbertson of the West Farmington Extension Group attended the women's camp at Waldenwood in Livingston County. They spent Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, returning Saturday.

The Graham reunion will be held this year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lindsey at Lone Lake on July 18. A cooperative dinner will be served at 1:00 p.m. with sports and fun for everyone. Pack your lunch and come.

Mr. and Mrs. Wormold called on Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Knapp Sunday. Among all the women of the West Farmington and Walpole Lake Discussion Groups of Farm Bureau ladies attended the Field Grass Day held at the Keith Middleton farm at Orion. These ladies helped other ladies of Oakland County serve about 2,000 people in a tent, for lunch, from 9:00 o'clock in the morning until 7:00 o'clock in the evening. All new modern farm machinery was demonstrated on the farm. Several people came to the meeting in aeroplane. Also the W.J.R. mobile studio was on the grounds. Farm Bureau members were present and everyone interested in farming and in new equipment was on hand.

Mrs. Florence Button and children called on Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp Sunday afternoon.

and Mr. Eastman's birthdays, which were last week.

To The Editor:

Clarenceville's school election last Monday represents inspiration, courage and wisdom from the hearts of men and women of all classes. Our school management should have freedom from all political and special groups, or class interference.

Our schools' future education shall be a pattern worthy of highest consideration.

Clarenceville Interested Taxpayers.

Auto Races To Be Held At Milford Sunday

Auto racers will again roar around the 1/2 mile flat track at the Milford Speedway Sunday afternoon, June 20, at Milford.
