RECENT BRIDE

MRS. W. E. WOOSTER

Miss Gwendolyn Margaret Nicholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nicholson of Farmington Hills, and William Ernest Wooster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wooster of Rosedale Gardens exchanged their marriage vows Saturday evening, July 24. Rev. C. Townsend performed the double ring service before an altar decorated with white candles and gladioli. For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white satin and lace. Her blush veil was lace trimmed and extended into a long train. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses and strophantia.

The maid of honor, Beatrice Globke of Detroit, wore lavender marquisette with matching head dress and satin streamers. Her flowers were yellow roses.

The bridesmaids, Phyllis Stall and Peggy Brooks of Royal Oak and Dorothy Sedick of Detroit were gowned in pale green marquisette, their dresses of the same style as that of the maid of honor. They carried pink roses.

The flower girl was Judith Cawker, a cousin, from Royal Oak. She wore yellow marquisette and carried yellow roses and blue hydrangeas. Ring bearers were Brian Bauman and Dennis Nicholson. Harry Wooster attended his brother as best man and usher was John White and Earl Howie of Detroit and Ross Nicholson, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Nicholson wore a lavender lace gown with orchid corsage and Mrs. Wooster wore a coral crepe with a gardenia corsage.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mrs. Fred Wanless, the groom's grandmother, and Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Wanless of London, Ontario, and Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks, the bride's grandparents, from Miami, Florida.

A reception with dinner and dancing followed the ceremony, at the Botford Inn, with 150 guests attending.

The young couple are spending two weeks in Florida. For going away the new Mrs. Wooster wore a pale blue crepe dress, with white accessories. Her corsage was pink and white carnations. In September the newlyweds will go to Chicago to live, where Mr. Wooster will attend school.

The school is located at 33135 Thirteen Mile Road, near Orchard Lake Road.

Thomas Carlyle (1795-1881) was born at Ecclefechan, Scotland, in 1795. His writings covered a wide range: literature, mathematics, philosophy, social science, politics, history, biography and religion. Educated at Edinburgh university in preparation for the church, he gave up his studies in theology in the middle of the course and chose literature as his profession.

INTERNATIONAL KIWANIS HEAD TO MAKE TOUR

Officers of the Kiwanis Club of Farmington learned today that J. Belmont Mosser, prominent Farmington industrialist and recently elected president of Kiwanis International, probably will speak in this section sometime during his one-year administration.

May D. Eichler, president of the club, said that following his election at Los Angeles, the new Kiwanis Club Executive had indicated he would launch his speaking itinerary in late summer. This schedule undoubtedly will carry him into a majority of the 29 Kiwanis districts throughout the United States and Canada.

Delegates to the largest convention in the history of Kiwanis International named Mosser to succeed Dr. Charles W. Armstrong, Salisbury, N.C., who served as president of the community service organization during the past year.

Long active in eastern circles, Mosser is vice president and general sales manager of the Super Carlin Company and vice president of the International Graphite and Electrode Corp., both at St. Marys, Pa., where he maintains his home.

In a press conference a few days ago, Mosser said that during his administration he would advocate a program of adult education based primarily on the principle that freedom is "everybody's business." He declared the public must become aware of the dangers that threaten liberty.

"The apathetic and indifferent attitude of today that has resulted in mounting government debt, in broken homes, and empty churches is not the spirit that forced the rivers and scaled the Rocky Mountains," Mosser said.

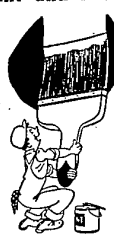

He said that "we realize that the ballot is sacred, that youth must have proper leadership, and that the government is the servant of the people."

Active in civic affairs for many years, the new Kiwanis president recently was appointed by Governor Duff of Pennsylvania to the State Committee to Study Education Facilities. He also is a past chairman of the carbon section of the National Electrical Manufacturers association. In St. Marys, he has served as co-chairman of six war fund drives and as a director of the St. Marys Chapter of the American Red Cross and the Community Chest.

Mosser was treasurer of Kiwanis International for the past two years. Prior to that time he served as a member of the International board of trustees, International committee chairman, governor of the Pennsylvania Kiwanis District, and president of the St. Marys club.

Social Security Cards Not Identification For Checks

Business firms in Farmington are continuing to use social security cards for identification in cashing checks, according to Rex Atwood, manager of the local social security office. "A social security card just isn't designed for that purpose," Atwood said. "It merely indicates that wages paid to the individual whose name appears on the card must be reported under that account number. It doesn't mean the individual has a bank account, nor does it mean he is the person whose name appears on the card. Many cards are lost or stolen each year."

Atwood further pointed out that the Social Security Administration cannot assist businessmen or police officers in tracing masters of lost checks since all of its records are confidential. The records would be of little help anyway, since more than half of the accounts were established over ten years ago. No record of current addresses is maintained for the $8 million account holders.

Atwood advised all business firms to instruct their cashiers to consider social security cards as valueless for identification purposes.

Atwood, who will represent more than 2,800 clubs throughout the United States, Canada, Alaska and Hawaii, embracing a membership of 150,000 business and professional leaders.
