go with an Army job in Japan!

How times have changed.

Three years ago, when our first victorious combat men left Japan, much of it was a shambles. The Japanese people were so dazed by defeat they didn't know which way to turn. The life of an Army man often had its discomforts.

But look at him today! He's helped to start the rebuilding of Japan, to restore roads and railways, to inspire a tired and hungry people with the hope of Democracy. Under his guidance, courts of justice, woman suffrage and freedom of worship have been brought about. In Japan there is only one soldier for every 400 Japanese—the smallest per capita occupation army in the world.

The pay of a Private is 50% higher than three years ago, then another 20% higher overseas. And almost every cent can be banked. None of it goes for food, housing, medical or dental care, clothing, retirement annuity, or the opportunity to continue his education. The Army furnishes him equipment for organized sports. While on leave, he can do in winter or visit summer resorts at a fraction of what these activities would cost him in the U. S.

An Army career in Japan is full of advantages such as these. Compare it with any job across the board—you'll find it hard to beat! Ask at your nearest Army and Air Force Recruiting Station for full details.

SHEEP SHEARING TO BE FEATURED AT STATE FAIR

The ancient and important art of sheep shearing will be a feature of the agricultural show at the Michigan State Fair, on Thursday and Friday, September 9 and 10.

Graydon Blank, extension animal husbandry specialist at Michigan State College, who will conduct the competition, says that a good group is expected to enter. The champion sheep shearer of Michigan will be selected during the contest.

The preliminary contest for the big show will be held at the State Fair grounds on Friday, September 10 at 9 a.m. in the sheep barn. The final contest will take place at the Old Timers' Grove on the grounds at 2 p.m.

Another exciting event will be the Sweepstakes Contest, open only to former state champions and the 1948 champion. In addition to the championship honor, worthwhile prizes are being offered by the Michigan State Fair.

A junior contest will be held on Thursday, September 9, open to any boy or girl under 21 years of age. Preliminaries will be held during the morning at the sheep barn and finals at the Old Timers' Grove at 2 p.m. Prizes are also offered to the junior shearer. Blank will be assisted by E. S. Bartlett of the Sunbeam Corporation which is furnishing equipment for both contests.

Persons interested in the contests may secure further information by writing for a premium book to the Michigan State Fair, Detroit.

SUPPOSE IT IS TRUE AFTER ALL?

Two friends were discussing the question of punishment for sin in a future life. They settled to their own satisfaction that there was none. They decided that hell was a myth. They agreed that God, being a God of love, could not consign His creatures to everlasting punishment. Then a Christian who had been listening silently to the discussion said:

"Suppose it is true, after all?"

The words seemed to fall on the ears of the two with crushing force. The power of God seemed behind them, as never in the truth, God had spoken.

Suppose it is true after all that God must punish sin? How would you fare before the Judge?

Suppose it is true after all that hell is a reality, and that "It is appointed unto man once to die, but after this the judgment?" What lies at the end of the path you are now treading?

Suppose it is true after all that the Lord Jesus is the only Saviour? What if you neglect Him? "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?"

God hates your sin, but He loves you. He loves you so much that He sent from heaven His only Son, Jesus Christ, to die under God's wrath against your sin. As the Bible says it, "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." Our sins were laid on Him.

Tell God you want to be included among those for whom Christ suffered; that you do accept Him as your Saviour. —the One who suffered in your place. Jesus said, "Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out." There is no problem in your life too great for Mrs. Kant's wife if you will let Him. "Come unto me," and I will give you rest."

Within a 6 day period about 35 of the clan were visiting around or being visited in this community. C., was for the first time unable to attend. But there was a round of get-togethers and dinners as well as a fishing expedition, shopping trip, croquet and horse-shoe games and numerous walks, drives and calls.
