PRESIDENT TRUMAN GETS A TIE

DENVER, COLORADO — SOUNDPHOTO — One of President Truman's first stops during his campaign visit to Denver was Fitzsimons General Hospital to see some of the many convalescent war veterans in the army medical center. A pair of youngsters there were prepared for the visit and presented the President with a new tie which he smilingly accepted.

WEST FARMINGTON
By MRS. SARAH KNAPP

Mrs. Edith Sarantis, Mrs. Anna Westlake and Mrs. William Knapp attended the military burial service at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery for Donald O'Mara.

Mrs. Olive Fitch of Indiana has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Anna Westlake, and niece, Mrs. Edith Sarantis.

Mrs. William Knapp, Mrs. Edith Knapp, Mrs. Floyd Howard, Mrs. Jack Hetrick and Mrs. Ruby Snover attended the Farm Bureau women's meeting at the home of Mrs. V. Whlans on Buell Road, Lake Orion. A pot luck dinner was served at noon with the business meeting in the afternoon, conducted by Mrs. Brade, acting as chairman. The women voted to send puzzles, books and magazines to the polio patients at Pontiac Congregational Hospital. Mrs. Jack Hetrick was appointed publicity chairman. The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jack Hetrick, 30940 Haggerty Road, Walled Lake.
