Bad Breaks

without too much opposition. However, statistics show that the game was not a Keego Harbor runaway by any means. The season made nine first downs, while yardage gained by rushing gave Keego 218 and 565 for Farmington. It was a series of bad breaks that decided the game in the favor of the Falcon's opponents.

Playing their final game for Farmington High School were 18 seniors who appeared for the last time as members of the Falcon varsity: Bryant, halfback; Van Every, end; Packard, tackle; Clark, guard; Hanson, halfback; Welland, end; Budberg, end; Martindale, center; Charnoff, tackle; Seeger, center; McLean (Capt.) halfback; Sechler, guard; Burbank, guard; Ratliff, fullback; Buck, center; Wheeler, quarterback; Lind, tackle; and Goers, halfback.
