FARMINGTON TEAM CAPTURES 3 PLACES ON MYTHICAL 11

Farmington High School's football team captured three important places on the first All-League team, it was revealed today. The three places give Farmington just one less than the four won by Keego Harbor, the 1948 League champions.

Chosen for the three spots were Jackie H. Packard, end F. Aschenbrenner, and back F. McLean. Farmington walked off with five places on the mythical second team - placing tackle L. Charon, center J. Buck, guard J. Boyce, back E. Bryant, and back E. Yanke. The five places are the most earned by any team in the league.

Following are the mythical team designations:
