SHORT-HORN FROM BINGER, OKLAHOMA

CHICAGO, ILL. — Lee Kerlich, of Binger, Oklahoma, points out the features of his Short-horn steer "Dooce" to three "city slicker" friends, Pat Miller, Betty Carlson and Yvonne Richert, all of Chicago. Lee is a member of Future Farmers of America, and is exhibiting his steer at the International Live Stock Exposition at the International Amphitheater in the Union Stock Yards.

WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM, 1461-M

Clyde Buckingham and sons, Wallace and David, spent last week end in West Branch.

Mrs. Joe Roberts and Mrs. Evelyn Bollinger visited in West Branch last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault spent last Sunday evening, the 21st, with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keyser, in Huntington Woods. A Brush Demonstration Party, held in the beautiful residence of Mrs. Robert A. Diehle, on Shady-side Avenue last Monday afternoon, proved a great success socially as well as otherwise. In the games arranged for the guests' entertainment, Mrs. Homer Coolman won an attractive prize and a special gift was awarded Mrs. Louis Graham.

Miss Nancy Varhol has been ill in bed all this last week and on Sunday her brother, Richard, was reported suffering a flu attack.

Little Eddie Brugman of Mayfield Avenue has been suffering with a bronchial infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult and their son, Alfred, returned last week end from a deer-hunting vacation in the north.

The Cecil Willets spent all the Thanksgiving week end in Northern Michigan.

Mrs. M. E. Ault and son, Robert Hunter, spent Thanksgiving Day with the Johnson Porters at New London, O. Bob reports enjoying some exciting hours in the rare old sport of coon hunting.

The Edwin Johnsons spent their Thanksgiving with relatives near Lansing.

Albert Hardy Jr., from Norwayne, was the Thanksgiving Day guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rehahn.

Miss Norma Judd spent the Thanksgiving week end with her parents in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange and son, Edward, were Thanksgiving Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith, in Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keyser, from Huntington Woods, were out-of-the-community guests at the nice little dinner party arranged by Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Ault for Thanksgiving evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chavez were in Detroit Wednesday afternoon attending an uncle's funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts and daughter, Beth, were week end guests of relatives in this community.

Miss Joanne Craig, from Detroit, was the week end guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chavez.

Mrs. McLane, widow of the late Dr. McLane, was out from Redford to be a Thanksgiving Day guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Mercer.

Mr. and Mrs. Reidtshar, from Garden City, are taking over the occupancy of the Irving Avenue property just now being vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault, who are moving to Brentwood Avenue.

The Ira Magners dined with friends in Detroit, Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lindberg and daughter, from Brighton, spent Thanksgiving Day evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Welch, on Wednesday afternoon friends from Rosedale Gardens called on Grandma Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Redge Broquet and their children, from Detroit, were calling on F. Broquet and friends in the neighborhood Sunday afternoon.

In company with Mrs. Rhodes, Irving Avenue, and Mrs. Leach, Loveland Avenue, Mrs. John Mercer, of Seven Mile Road, attended the annual "Open House" at the King's Daughters Home in Redford on November 18. They marveled at the beauty of the buildings and their furnishings and the serene contentment of the residents. Of particular interest to the visitors was a presentation made by the State President of a gold locket trophy with emblem to "Aunt Minna Hendricks" of Northville, honoring her fiftieth year as a King's Daughter.

The community was saddened last week by the death, after a ten day illness, of Mrs. Hugh Schell, of West 8 Mile Road. Her husband and two small children survive her.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Altman, from Detroit, were Thanksgiving Eve guests of Mr. Altman's brother, John Altman, on Shady-side Avenue. Accompanying Mr. Rudy Altman were his children, Gordon, Paul, June, David and Mrs. Ernest Niederer and her husband, visiting here from Wisconsin.

Monday, the 22nd, Mrs. John Altman was presented at a Woman's Relief Corps luncheon held at the Detroit Leland Hotel.

John Altman, Jr., has been suffering with flu.

Louis Jennings, Norfolk Avenue, received notification Monday, the 22nd, of the sudden death by plane crash in New Hampshire, of his brother, Vergil A. Jennings. The body was brought to Detroit and funeral services were to be held Monday, the 29th, from the Carnegie Funeral Home in Detroit, with burial at Aensla Park. The deceased is survived by a wife and daughter, three brothers and two sisters, as well as his parents, most of whom are well known and reside in this locality.

A trio of young folks from Detroit made the evening service in the Neighborhood Church Sunday. This little chapel is open at 4:30 Sundays. A service begins at 5 and usually closes at 6.

Sunshine Sisters, who keep specially in mind the aged and sick of the neighborhood were unusually busy last Wednesday evening. Mrs. George Welch wishes to thank the Sunshine Sisters, neighbors and friends who so kindly combined efforts provided her with a fine Thanksgiving dinner and canned goods and groceries sufficient to help out for the next week or two.
