Beginning of Cricket Cricket, the game of so much popularity in England, Australia and other British dominions, is of disputed origin. It started as a boys' game, eventually was taken up by adults, and the Test Matches between England and Australia, originated in 1850, aroused enthusiasm in both countries equal to that created by world series play in the United States. Cricket, in both England and Australia, is a sport for the masses, and a great cricket player becomes an idol.

RECENT BRIDE

MRS. RICHARD SCHULKINS

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Houghton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Houghton of Eleven Mile Road, and Richard G. Schulkins, son of Mrs. George Schulkins of Floral Drive, took place Saturday, October 23, in the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church. Rev. Carl Schultz read the double ring ceremony. For the service, the church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, palms and central candelabra, with burning tapers.

The bride chose a gown of white satin, with a sweetheart neckline, outlined with coral pearls and rhinestones down the bodice. The full skirt ended in a circular train. Her bridal veil was of white illusion, with a tulle of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums centered with a white orchid.

The matron of honor was Marjorie Barlow Houghton, who was groomed in Iceland blue satin, and carried red roses and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Nelson Vanderburgh, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and she was groomed in dusty rose satin and carried a bouquet identical to that carried by the matron of honor.

The little flower girl, Melinda Schulkins, was groomed in yellow satin and carried a basket of red rose petals. William Schulkins was best man. Ushers were Emmett Houghton, James Schulkins and William Hill.

Miss Rosemary Leslie of Michigan Opera Company sang "Because," "Through The Years" and "I Love Thee."

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Houghton chose a grey dress, and she wore a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Schulkins, the groom's mother, chose a solid dress, and her corsage was of red roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 150 guests was held in the church parlors. The bride and groom left on a wedding trip through the Smoky Mountains and

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of Mrs. Lula Church, who passed away December 1st, 1947. Our friendship was short, your memory so dear, each day that passes, I think of you dear. Mr. and Mrs. A. Cairns.

IN MEMORIAM In memory of the late John M. Grace, who passed away 2 years ago, November 27, 1946. We miss you in the morning When the sun is shining bright. We look but just can't see you And it doesn't seem just right. We miss you in the evening When the evening shadows fall. We long to see your smiling face But you are just not here, that's all. We miss you, oh, we miss you In every sort of way. And our only consolation is We will meet some future day. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Graham 8-1p

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Why Dutch is Growing a Beard

That beard on Dutch Miller's chin doesn't mean that he's getting ready to play Santa Claus. He's simply paying off the election bet he lost to Cappy Swanson.

And while some folks allow it's all a lot of nonsense — like the wheelbarrow ride that Cappy had to give Dutch after last election day — from where I sit, it's a mighty wholesome aftermath to a difference of opinion.

Because good Americans all take their politics and voting mighty seriously. But when the issue's settled, and the die is cast, they accept the verdict in a spirit of good humor.

And that's as it should be when it comes to any difference of opinion. Some folks vote for beer so their favorite beverage — others vote for cider. In fact, we all have differences of taste in almost everything! But that doesn't mean that we can't live together in a spirit of good fellowship.
