ST. PAUL'S CHORUS TO PRESENT CAROL SERVICE

On Sunday evening, December 19, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, the chorus of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Middlebelt at Eight Mile Road, will present a carol candle-light service.

The music will be under the direction of Waldemar T. Graf, and the Reverend Walter F. Rutkowski will be the narrator.

The program will include the following numbers: "Adeste Fideles" arranged by Ruth Heller; "On A Morning Long Ago"; Spanish: "Break Forth"; Bach: "O How Joyfully"; Sicily: "A Virgin Unspotted"; Early American: "Ah, Dearest Jesus"; Luther: "Angels We Have Heard on High"; French: "From Heaven Above, Ye Cherubs Come"; Lullaby: "Praise God the Lord, Ye Sons of Men"; Friends; and "Adoration of the Shepherds." Butcher. Everyone is most welcome at this musical program.

PROGRAMS MARK YULETIDE SEASON AT CLARENCEVILLE

The Clarenceville Methodist Church presented their new All Boys' Choir to a full church last Sunday morning.

In the evening service, the past, assisted by Miss Wilma Hood, organist, the Senior Choir and the Intermediate Youth Fellowship, conducted a beautiful and impressive carol singing service.

On Sunday, December 19, Christmas music will be heard in the morning service by the Senior Choir of the church. The pastor, Rev. Elsie A. Johns, will preach and her sermon theme is to be "Glory To God In The Highest". The program will be led by trumpeters Fred Grose and Kenneth Shufflett. In the evening service at 7:30 p.m., a carol service will be presented, directed by Mrs. Walter MacKenzie. Mrs. Lena Newman, a talented reader, will read a Christmas story.

- Obituaries -

William Rubbel, 75, died at his home on Hamilton avenue last Friday afternoon, December 10, when he was unable to get out of his home during a fire. Rubbel was born in Chatham, Ontario.

Funeral services for him were held at the Spencer Heene Funeral Home in Farmington on Monday, December 12, with the Rev. Carl Schultz officiating. Through the kindness of friends and neighbors, a collection made it possible for Mr. Rubbel to be buried in Grand Lawn Cemetery, and flowers were furnished.

Mrs. Grace P. Holmes

Mrs. Grace P. Holmes of 22823 Lakeway Avenue, passed away on Wednesday morning, December 9, 1948, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac following a short illness. Mrs. Holmes was born June 25, 1898, in Chatham, Ontario, the daughter of Martin and Mary Louise Breen. She was united in marriage on January 17, 1916 to Thomas Holmes. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes lived 21 years in Detroit and had resided in Farmington for the past eight years.

Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the Thayer Funeral Home with the Rev. Fred B. Fisher of the Farmington Baptist Church officiating and burial took place in the North Farmington Cemetery. Surviving Mrs. Holmes besides her husband, are one sister, Mrs. Alice Duff of Chatham, Ontario, two half sisters, Mrs. Edward Brackett of Chatham and Mrs. Ray Brackett of Detroit, and one step-sister, Mrs. Fletcher Beale of Dearborn.

OUR TOWN !!

Say, aint it beginnin' to look purty?? We're kinda makin' our meat prices purty too so's you'll have enuf left over to buy a turkey for Christmas. While we're talkin' turkey please git your order in early. We don't want cha to not have one—but we don't want a lot of 'em left, either—so we're plannin' on figurin' 'em pretty close. About those meat prices—we're gonna have some rib end pork loin roasts for 39c a lb. Howzat sound? We got more 39c stuff, too. There's a fresh batch of Pork sausage and some short ribs of beef. All fer 39c a lb. You know you can do a lot with short ribs, bake 'em, make soup with 'em, or didja ever boil 'em with noodles? That's mighty fine eatin'. Finally there's gonna be some of our own hamburger fer 49c a lb. You know we bone and grind up all our own beef so we guarantee it's fresh and there's none better.

On the grocery side we got all the stuff to go with what cha got on the meat side. Even got the dessert. There's puddings of all kinds — date — fig — plum — and the hard sauce to rub on 'em. Course you know the price of coffee has gone up — so here's your last chance to git Hills coffee fer 51c a lb. Better buy enuf to last thru the holidays at that price. We aint kiddin' you about this either — jest look around and you'll see.

We couldn't git Brazil nuts this week but we got a lot of the other kinds and right in the middle of all this there's a bushel of Christmas candies like what you'll need fer the Christmas stocking. Speaking of stockin's don't forget to take the kids to the High School gym Sunday. Santa's gonna be there with treats fer 'em all and there's a swell show lined up. It starts at 2:00 o'clock — so don't be late. Be seein' yuh, huh kids???
