WEST FARMINGTON

By MRS. IRVIN KNAPP
TELEPHONE FARM. 0594-J3

Mrs. Mary A. Heliker died at her home at 29 Lake Street, Pontiac, on December 27, 1948, at the age of 86 years. Born Mary A. Graham in West Troy, New York, on January 21, 1862, she came to West Bloomfield Township, Oakland County, with her parents, when she was a young girl. She lived in and around Farmington most of her life, and was married to George Heliker in 1883. He passed away on March 23, 1940, and Mrs. Heliker has lived with her daughter since that time. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Sarah Murray of Pontiac, three sons, James Heliker of Pontiac, and George and Charles Heliker of Walled Lake, ten grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. from the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home, with Rev. Fisher officiating, and interment was in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. Anna Westlake and Mrs. Edith Sarantis entertained 35 guests Sunday, from Highland Park, Detroit and Grand Rapids. Mr. and Mrs. George Heliker returned Sunday after spending Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cleveland at Kalamazoo, and their daughter and family. Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Cleveland, who will soon leave for the state of Washington, where they will be located. Wendell Green has been very sick. Edwin See is home to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer See, of Fourteen Mile Road, after serving in the United States service at Breckenridge, Kentucky. Mrs. Edith Graham is sick with a cold. Martin and Boony Westlake, son and daughter of William Westlake of Detroit, are spending their Christmas vacation with their aunt, Mrs. William Kepp.

We're looking forward to the coming year with optimism.
We urge you to do
the same, and we wish for you every success possible.

SOOT FIRE

The Farmington Fire Department responded to a call at the gas station at 12 Mile and Orchard Lake Roads at 7:30 p.m. on December 26, when it was feared that an oil stove, in which soot was burning, might endanger other property. The fire was confined to the stove, however, and no damage resulted.

PVT. JAMES LAMB GRADUATES FROM GLIDER SCHOOL

Pvt. James E. Lamb, 21 year old paratrooper from Farmington, was recently graduated from the 187th Glider Infantry Regimental Non-Commissioned Officers' School. Pvt. Lamb is the son of Mrs. Catherine A. Lamb of 20134 Farmington Road.

The men attending the school were selected by their company commanders as leading or potential non-commissioned officers and spent two weeks undergoing intensive instruction in technical and tactical subjects with emphasis on leadership and methods of instruction.

The Farmington trooper joined the Army in January, 1947, at Fort Dix, New Jersey, and completed his infantry basic training there in the same month. He joined the 11th Airborne Division in August, 1947, and was assigned to the 187th Glider Infantry Regiment, and is currently working as squad leader in the Headquarters Company, Third Battalion.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Haskins and family spent Christmas Day with Mr. Haskins' parents, the E. W. Dolans, in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Erickson were Sunday callers of friends in Detroit.
