By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE LAM. 1461-M

The Homer Coolmans have returned from their vacation trip to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Redge Broquet and children, from Detroit, were calling on F. Broquet Sunday afternoon.

Miss Darla Mae Jennings, who has been ill with chicken-pox, is returning to school Tuesday of this week.

Richard Kauranen, of Mayfield Avenue, was reported a flu victim Sunday.

Little Miss Ruth Ann Oman, of Brentwood Avenue, has been quite ill for several days.

The Schells of Eight Mile Road have moved. It is understood they are now residing with Mr. Schell's parents.

Mrs. Walter Dixon, of Bretton Road, was calling on the Misses Lora and Freda Ault on Shadydale Avenue Sunday afternoon.

The Dixons of Farmington Road, are about to take a vacation trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lindberg and children, from Brighton, were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George Welsh on Mayfield Avenue Friday.

After a ten day visit with her aunt, Mrs. Stanley Chavey, Miss Joanne Craig has returned to her home in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Padot, from Monroe, were visiting with Mrs. Padot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts and daughter, Beth, from Monroe, were calling on various West Point Park relatives Sunday.

Sidney Rowe, from Detroit, was calling on his sister, Mrs. Austin Ault and her family Friday evening.

Freda Ault was calling on Mrs. Nelson Cameron in Redford Friday afternoon.

Critical illness of a relative called the Anders family of Mayfield Avenue to the South this week.

Wesley Smith has been visiting friends in the South.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault and children, Mayfield Avenue, were visiting with the Leo Woods family at Inkster last Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Boyd Candlish, Seven Mile Road, was an afternoon tea hostess last Thursday. Several friends and neighbors were guests.

Mrs. Kenneth Owen and children, Mrs. M. E. Ault and the Misses Lora and Freda Ault were all afternoon guests of Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, on Clarita, last Tuesday afternoon.

Thursday and Friday appeared to be return and exchange days in the shops of downtown Detroit, and crowds are reported to have been as great as at any time preceding Christmas.

West Point Park folks by the dozens found places in the throngs.

An alarming number of West Point Park men have been "laid off" since Christmas. It is hoped the idleness will be of short duration.

A bad traffic smash-up at Farmington and Eight Mile Roads attracted hundreds of people Sunday evening.

Don Tooley, of Redford, who spent much of his vacation leave with West Point Park friends, returned to his duties with the U. S. Navy Saturday.

Mrs. Emerson Ault participated in a 5th birthday celebration for her granddaughter, Anne Marie Johnson, near Redford, New Year's Day. Little Miss Johnson is convalescing from several days of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange and Miss Freda Ault were in Detroit at the P. H. Hunter Funeral Home Saturday evening. They were viewing the remains of William Allen, a neighbor, who died last week, and were extending sympathy to Mr. Allen's wife and family.

Flowers from the neighborhood had arrived and were found to be very lovely. Since last fall the Allens have been occupying what was known as the Berger house on Mayfield Avenue.

William Allen, of 29415 Mayfield Avenue, died last Wednesday night, the 29th. He had been in failing health for some time and death came in a Detroit hospital to which, after a severe attack, he had been removed nearly a week previous.

His wife, Sarah, and son, John, and family had moved out from Detroit last October. Surviving him, besides his wife and the son with whom he resided, are two daughters, Mrs. Sarah Simmons and Mrs. Agnes Ott, as well as eight grandchildren. Services were to be held at 2 p.m. in the F. B. Hunter Funeral home, Terry and Schoolcraft. Rev. Robert, Barti was to be the officiating minister. Interment at Roseland Park Cemetery.

The Sunshine Sisters meeting, scheduled to be held in the Neighborhood Church last Wednesday afternoon, was by invitation of Mrs. Russell Ault, held at her home instead. In spite of the rain, eleven ladies and one child were in attendance. "Faith" was the devotional topic and quotations along that line were read by the various ladies. It was decided to draw names for the "Secret Sunshine Fair" activity at the next meeting, which will be the first of the New Year. At the close of the afternoon, the hostess served a dainty luncheon. The Sunshine Sisters will meet again on Wednesday, January 12, at 1 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Ira Mager, on Shadydale Avenue.

At the Neighborhood Bible School Sunday morning each attendant was presented with a handsome orange ripened in the Florida sunshine. Their size caused many of the children to believe they were grapefruit. All were the gift of Mrs. Harry Houghlin of Plant City, Florida. Enough fruit was left over to pass out to sick children of the neighborhood.

A New Year's service was held in the Neighborhood Church, New Year's Eve. A feature was special prayer for the mourning in the neighborhood and the sick.

GARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for the beautiful flowers, and Dr. Wilson for his consoling words during our bereavement. E. Schellenberg and family.
