

Livonia, Redford Girls Dance With Civic Ballet

LaDonna Reddington of Susanna Street, Livonia, and Janice Roggenbeck of Central Street, Redford Township, will be among the dancers featured when the Detroit City Ballet presents its 15th annual performance. The event will take place at 8:30 p.m. Friday, March 9, in the Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium. Tickets are available at the institute, Hudson's and Grinnell's.

Williams To Conduct Own Work

YPSILANTI Patrick C. Williams, a graduate assistant from Livonia, will conduct the Eastern Michigan University Choir in a performance of his composition, "Magnificat" on Sunday, March 11. The performance will be at 8 p.m. in Pease Auditorium. Soloists will include another Livonian, Bernard Hyland, a baritone. Choir alumni have been invited to return for the concert and will join in singing five selections in the final part of the program. These will include spirituals and folk songs. Under the direction of Blaine Ballard, the choir will sing several classical compositions. These will be followed by a group of avant-garde selections, including one in which sound effects will be made with pop bottles and wind chimes.

The company, which is directed by Marjorie Hassard, assisted by Kay Bliss, will dance the colorful "Hungarian Fantasy," with music by Liszt, "Concerto Grosso," by Vivaldi, and a "Rostokavich Suite." The latter was choreographed by Jon Rodriguez, co-director of the Dayton Civic Ballet.

The apprentice company will give a lecture-demonstration on ballet. The company will also perform in Ann Arbor's Power Center for the Performing Arts with the Ann Arbor Civic Ballet on March 23. The 18 members of the ballet are chosen from auditions, and continue studying with their regular teachers as well as rehearsing with the company every

Players Ready 'Drink To Me Only'

The Lathrup Players, who have just finished presenting "Man of La Mancha" have selected a three-act comedy "Drink to Me Only" for their next production. The play is a bawdy situation comedy about a millionaire playboy who allegedly shoots his wife after consuming 52 shots of whiskey.

Amusements

The play revolves around the half-hearted attempt of a famous law firm to prove he could not have done it. On the Broadway stage, it starred Tom Poston and John McGiver. Directed by Joel Weaver of Detroit, the play opens March 8 in North Congregational Church, 26275 Northwestern Highway, Southfield. It is also scheduled for performances March 9 and 10 with curtain time 8:30 p.m., every night except Sunday, when it is 7:30. Tickets are available from Mrs. Marge McCulloch, 20350 Brookshire, Southfield.

The cast includes Henry Schneider and Edward Welton, Jack Corfield, Jeanette Hensing and Thea Wienke, all of Southfield.
