

GRACE LUTHERAN MEN TO SERVE SAUERKRAUT MEAL

The Men's Club of the Grace Lutheran Church will serve a family-style sauerkraut supper in the basement of the church located at 2500 Grand River Avenue, corner of Imperial Highway, Thursday, January 27, beginning at six o'clock in the evening. The sponsors stress that other vegetables will be served to those who prefer them. Tickets may be purchased at the door Thursday evening. Proceeds for the supper will be used for improvements in the church basement.

Committee members are Robert Blackmer, chairman, Ray Turner, Glenn Mutter, Gustav Teufel, George Heino and Douglas Evans. William Hunt is president of the society.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brundie on Shilavasee spent Sunday in Kalamazoo.

A five pound, five and one-half ounce baby girl, HAZEL, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson of Clarita Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts and daughter, Beth Anne, from Monday, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson and her new little daughter had just returned from the hospital.

Mrs. Dorothy Altman, who was ill with flu and an ear infection, suffered a relapse and was in serious condition the latter part of the week.

The young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kellogg have been ill. Arnold Jennings of Norfolk Avenue is now well over chicken pox.

William Varhol was reported on the sick list Sunday.

Herman Schult had a flu attack last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Magnus were visiting in the Marjoe Hospital Sunday afternoon.

Carol Margaret Buckingham has been having a bad time with a heavy cold.

Mrs. Vett Cooley, from Hazel Park, was calling on her cousins, Mrs. Louis Graham and Mrs. Clinton Ault, Thursday.

Jerry Dieble of Shady Side Avenue and his brother, Robert Dieble have together purchased a home in Detroit and will shortly be occupying it.

Mrs. M. E. Ault and Miss Lora Ault were calling in Mt. Carmel Hospital Friday afternoon.

Mrs. James Simpson was visiting with the Raymond Ackersons in Detroit the first of last week.

Norman Doss, Farmington Road is convalescing from an attack of illness.

Mrs. Phyllis Harmon is now with her mother, Mrs. Williamson, on Mayfield Avenue.

Twenty-four ladies met at the home of Mrs. Harold McVicar on Shady Side Avenue last Friday evening and had a most enjoyable time witnessing a plastic demonstration. This form of entertainment is becoming increasingly popular.

Mrs. George Middlewood was hostess to a very interesting brush demonstration party at her home on Farmington Road last Monday evening. A nice group of Mrs. Middlewood's friends were in attendance. Cake and cookies with tea and coffee climaxed the nice little affair.

Another enjoyable "Brush Demonstration Party" was held at the home of Mrs. Russell Ault Tuesday afternoon. Fifteen ladies participated. During the games, offered by way of entertainment, useful prizes were earned by Mrs. Stanley Chavey and Mrs. James Simpson. Later, the group were served dainty refreshments.

The Charles Neils of Hubbard Avenue recently spent a week and with relatives in northern Michigan.

A Home Nursing course arranged by Livonia Township Health Guild is to begin work next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hardy of Norway and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hardy from near Wayne County Airport spent Sunday afternoon with their grandmother, Mrs. Walter Relahn.

Mrs. George Welsh entertained the Prayer-Bible Study Group of the Neighborhood Church last Thursday evening, serving an appetizing lunch at the close.

Children of the Neighborhood Bible School greatly enjoyed the reading of a letter from Rev. Gordon Cameron Sunday morning. Mr. Cameron has been very ill and sent his thanks to the young folks for a beautiful plant they had sent him.

Livonia Methodist ladies are busy preparing to present a play, postponed until after the holiday season, and now scheduled to be put on the latter part of this month. Old-time costumes are to be used and Mrs. John Mercer is rendering specially fine service in helping to produce them.

Churches of this section report a fine attendance at all services during the fine weather we have been enjoying.

The Boys' and Girls' Group meeting in the Neighborhood Church at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday hope to have faithfulness rewarded by a gay valentine party next month.

Inspection of the new Farmington area telephone directories mailed to subscribers last week convinces one that the few and far between residents who do not have phone service are in for an inconvenient time of it keeping up with friends and events.

Sunshine Sisters Line Up "Secret Sunshine Pal" Fourteen ladies of the Neighborhood Church section gathered at the home of Mrs. Ira Makner on Shady Side Avenue last Wednesday afternoon for a regular meeting of the Sunshine Sisters. At this get-together, which was the first of the New Year, there was a drawing of "Secret Pal" for the next twelve months. The sealed envelope method was used and it is expected that a "Secret Pal" shall be known only to the person holding her name. Fifty-five women residing within an area less than a mile square are enrolled. Many of these, because of age, ill health, young children, or inconvenient hours of employment cannot regularly attend Sunshine meetings. By this plan it is hoped added cheer may be instilled into many lives that might otherwise become drab and monotonous. Each participant is to consider her "Secret Sunshine Pal" a "Prayer Pal" also, and will endeavor to remember appropriately her birthday anniversary and any occasion when a little extra attention might be appreciated. It is believed the undertaking may be a step toward greater neighborliness and the cultivation of more sincere friendships within the district covered. Envelopes, with enclosed date cards are being mailed or delivered to all enrolled.

Another feature of this Sunshine meeting was the lending of a card and handkerchief shower to the hostess, Mrs. Magnus, who had celebrated her birthday only a day or two previous.

Two new neighbors, Mrs. William Allen and Mrs. John Allen, were welcomed into the group.

During the social hour Mrs. Magnus served delicious refreshments. The next Sunshine meeting will be held Wednesday afternoon.

January 26th, at 1 o'clock in the home of Mrs. James Simpson on Mayfield Avenue. At this time Mrs. Simpson's daughter, Mrs. Edward Brugman, will present her new little son, Larry Jon, to the Sisters.
