Another successful Father and Son Banquet in the Livonia Methodist Church has now become past history. The affair was held last Friday evening. As many as could be comfortably seated were present to enjoy the good food, prepared by mothers of the church and served by their daughters. With Lent beginning March 1st, churches of the community are planning schedules to climax at Easter, which is April 17.

A nice group, under the auspices of the Neighborhood Church, met for prayer and Bible-study at the home of Mrs. Walter Rehahn last Thursday evening. They have been invited to meet at the home of Mrs. George Welsh Thursday evening of this week.

At the Neighborhood Bible School Sunday morning, less than half a dozen regular attendants were absent.

The Sunday evening service in the Neighborhood Church was a study of Bible references dealing with the subject of "Service." It is hoped that before too long, Rev. Cameron will be well enough to meet with the little flock. Lights are on at 7, service starts at 7:30 and is over before 9. Just a friendly, informal get-together.

"Secret Pals" in the Sunshine Sisters' district were responsible for many thrills and much excitement around St. Valentine's Day. Many participants in the plan found dainty missives in their mail-boxes and some received such gift items as handkerchiefs, lace doilies, candy and flowers in this way bits of sunshine brightened many homes.

The fire department was called out shortly after noon Saturday to another grass fire getting under way on Hubbard Avenue near the Smith property and at the rear of the Graham acres.
