GOTTA QUARTER??

Wanna spend it? OK. We can use it. We got some stinky Bologna — it aint old — it's jest got garlic in it — and if you aint goin' no place fussy it's good eatin'. Fer that quarter yuh got you can git one pound of it. As long as yuh don't smell like a rose now yuh might as well go all the way and eat radishes and green onions too. We got 'em both at 3 bunches fer a quarter and you can git 'em straight or assorted. If you'd rather have sliced onions on yer samrich there's dry onions at 6 lbs. fer a quarter. Now we know you aint gonna eat 6 lbs. of onions on a samrich so fer another quarter you can git a lb. of pork liver. That's a meal fer this week — liver and onions. Got any more quarters? We got more stuff. There's oxtails here fer a quarter a lb. and some beef hearts. These hearts are swell baked and stuffed and you can git rid of some more onions — we don't care, but betcha by now you're gettin' sleepy. How about a good shower? We got that too — grapefruit — white ones — at 4 fer a quarter.

Now that we got all your quarters, have yuh got any half dollars? Fer half a dollar there's Polish sausage. Really, it's only 49c a lb. but we gotta have a penny tax. Same difference on our Florida oranges. These are great big juice oranges and fer 49c and a penny tax you can git 12 of 'em. Hey — We hit a snag. We don't have to sell our beef pot roasts fer 49c — we're gonna have to give yuh change. They're only 47c a lb.!!

Got anything left to jingle in your pocket? Don't take much to git a bunch of carrots. If there's two nickles bangin' together you can git rid of them on one bunch of carrots. Now this piece bacon don't exactly go with carrots but we don't want cha to miss it — and fer 29c a lb. you don't wanna miss it — do yuh???
