When the cost of medium eggs is more than 15 per cent below the cost of large eggs of the same grade, the medium eggs are the best buy. Medium eggs weigh 21 ounces per dozen and large ones weigh 24 ounces per dozen, reminds Roberta Hershey, extension home economist at Michigan State College.

H. SOUTHS FETED WITH RECEPTION ON GOLDEN WEDDING

The Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry South of Clarencville was observed on the evening of Saturday, February 18, at the Clarencville Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. South were married in Clark, Missouri, on February 21, 1893. Mrs. South was the former Lilly Smith. A reception of 150 guests attended the affair.

Dressed in a blue crepe dress and wearing a corsage of yellow jonquils, Mrs. South stood with her husband, Henry, to receive their friends and guests. Mr. South is 67 years old. They have lived in Clarencville for more than 15 years.

Rev. Elsie Johns, pastor of the Clarencville Methodist Church, led a short program honoring the wedding couple. Miss Wilma Hood at the organ played "The Golden Wedding," Mrs. Walter McKensie sang "Your Old Gray Bonnet," and "The Cause," Mrs. Eva Newman gave a reading, "The Worn Wedding Ring," and Miss Johns spoke of their life together and the couple's work in the church and the community.

The dining hall was decorated with gold and white jonquils. The center of the three large tables was beautifully decorated with candles and silver, and centered with a tiny altar before which were the figures of a bride and groom. The two large cakes were decorated with yellow and white roses. The supper was served by the members of the Women's Society, and was highlighted with the happy couple cutting the cake. Mrs. L. L. Delf and Mrs. Alice Scortie presided at the tea table and coffee urn.

The couple are the parents of four daughters: Mrs. Claude Porter of Grosse Ile; Mrs. Alfred Hinton of Kirtsville, Mo.; Mrs. Lourin Stever of Farmington, and Mrs. Hartwell Bynum, at present in Bad Tolz, Germany, where she has been for the past two years with her husband, Lt. Col. Hartwell Bynum. There are six grandchildren.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of Toledo, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hinton, Dorothy and Robert Hinton, of Kirtsville, Missouri; and J. H. Laddaway of Hamilton, Ontario. Numerous lovely gifts were received by the couple.

The meeting and luncheon is open to the public, and everyone is invited to attend.

LOCALS

Little Miss Ann Hofmann on Edward entertained the "little folks," Jo-Ann Smith, Carolyn, Eileen and Judy Best, and Donna Marie Chamargo, on Friday afternoon to help her celebrate her fourth birthday. The guests enjoyed themselves playing games and trying to roller skate about the house before the cutting of a lovely cake and opening all the packages brought for Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Opel and children, of Houston, Texas, and Mrs. Nelson Vanderburgh, who was called there by the illness of Mrs. Opel, arrived home last Wednesday after driving through with their house-trailer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pauline are ill at their home with throat infections. Miss Zeida Steele was taken to Pontiac General Hospital Sunday for a check-up.

Mrs. Martha Rossow of Walled Lake, is in Sessions Hospital at Northville, and is reported to be very ill.

Ray Oldham has returned home from the hospital and is able to walk about and renew his friendships with his many acquaintances in Farmington following his long illness.

Mrs. Cordy Driscoll and children of Grand spent the week end with her parents, the R. K. McConchie, on Detroit River.

The Louis White family of Webberville spent Saturday with her

Detroit callers on Saturday.

Donna Cox of the Fifth Grade of the Farmington Public Schools was the winner of the Dictionary given as a prize in the spelling bee held on Friday at the school.

Mrs. Yvonne Macomb is still under the doctor's care following a painful injury when she fell on an icy walk.

The regular business meeting of the Blue Star Mothers of America will be held in the Farmington Town Hall on Thursday, March 17, at 1 p.m. Reports of the Detroit Hospital meeting and Rehabilitation Blue Star Home in Indian Lake will be read at this meeting. The Hospital Easter Party for the Wm. H. Maybury Sanatorium for Veterans at Northville will be planned by the Hospital chairman of the Farmington Chapter, Mrs. Hester Wilkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brannack and daughter, Barbara-Jo, of Pontiac.

CLARENCEVILLE BY MRS. ALBERT KELLY

The Clarencville School Cub Pack, under the leadership of Cubmaster Kenneth Swarthout, will participate in the Sunset District annual Den Project exhibit in the gym of the Plymouth High School on Saturday evening, March 12.

The Clarencville Cub Pack will be one of fifteen to twenty packs taking part in the affair, including some 600 boys and their leaders. The exhibit is open to the public, and approximately 500 parents are expected.
