Clinton Ault has been convalescing from a severe attack of flu. Mrs. Hazen, of Sunnyside, near Eight Mile Road, visited relatives in Pontiac Saturday.

Mrs. Harry Lewis, of Hubbard Avenue, was hostess to a most enjoyable plastic demonstration party Friday evening. About twenty ladies, the majority from outside the immediate community, were in attendance. Amusing games and contests, with interesting prizes for winners, provided much of the entertainment. At the end of the evening Mrs. Lewis served a hearty lunch.

Monday of last week was a day on which the fire siren could be heard constantly from day-light until dark. One of the most threatening of the many grass fires originated in a pile of rubbish at the rear of the Nell property, on Hubbard Avenue. In no time at all the blaze spread and leaped a ditch. Combined efforts of a dozen neighbors barely saved the outbuildings on the Nell, Forrest Ault and Leslie Grundy acres. The Livonia Fire Department responded to the call. However, looking from the scene of the fire, one could observe other fires in every direction.

Edward Stange, Jr., has been suffering a protracted siege of flu and asthma. Carol Margaret Buckingham has been out of school several days.

Sunshine Sisters held a regular meeting in the neighborhood Church last Wednesday afternoon. "Prayer" was the theme of the devotional period. A Bible quiz was also used and proved interesting. Several good readings were contributed to the Sunbeam program. Plans were made for an Easter potluck luncheon. The real feature of the meeting was the presentation of a sheer yellow dress with matching anklets to a new little Sunshine Sister, month-old Sharon Wyman. As usual, cake and tea were served during the social hour.

The Sunshine Sisters will hold an Easter potluck luncheon in the neighborhood Church at 12:30 Wednesday, April 6. All women of the neighborhood are invited to attend. Each may bring food according to her own taste and convenience. Paper plates, napkins and tea will be provided, but it will be well for each person to bring her own cup and silverware.
