Girl Scouts Attend Free Press Quiz Show

Twenty-one girls and three leaders from Girl Scout Troop 7 attended the Free Press Quiz program at the Detroit Art Museum last Saturday.

From the Art Museum, the girls went to the J. L. Hudson Girl Scout department, then to Oriental Gardens for lunch. After lunch, the girls visited the Detroit News plant, receiving souvenirs of their visit.

Mrs. R. Banks, Mrs. W. Barnum, Mr. Adams and Mrs. Ayres provided transportation and Mrs. S. Cox tickets for the trip.

Right actions for the future are the best apologies for wrong ones in the past—the best evidence of regret for them that we can offer, or the world receive.

—Tryon Edwards

Girl Scout Leaders Plan Summer Camping

The Farmington Township Girl Scout Council sent Mrs. John Spaller to Grand Rapids to attend a two-day regional camping institute, March 23 and 24. Mrs. Spaller is local camp chairman.

Mrs. Spaller returned with ideas and plans for Girl Scout Day Camp, to begin June 20. Preparations are now being made for a special preparatory leaders' course to be offered in May.

The Magic of PERMA-STONE
THE MODERN WALL COVERING

To change your home

These illustrations show what magic can be wrought with Perma-Stone—in adding beauty and charm.

THE BEAUTY OF STONE
All the finer features of natural stone in beautiful textures and color combinations to suit individual tastes or to simulate the type of stone common to any locality.

THE PERMANENCY OF STONE
PERMA-STONE is actually a stone like (looks) snugly, sturdily encasing the building from the ground up. So flexible in its uses that it can be applied to any type of wall, regardless of its condition.

ECONOMICAL
PERMA-STONE is so economical in savings of maintenance expense, repairs, heating etc. that it is within the limit of the modest home owners budget while equally desirable for larger homes and commercial buildings.
