Daughters Of Isabella Initiate New Members

Thirty new members were initiated by Our Lady of Sorrows Circle 617, Daughters of Isabella, Sunday. The ceremonies took place at St. Michael's Parish Hall on Ten Mile Road. The new class was named in memory of Laureine Dwyer Gardner, charter member who died three years ago.

Supper was prepared by Mrs. Theresa Gaurin and her committee, and was served by Girl Scout Troop 10.

Mrs. Helen Martin acted as toastmaster for the program which followed. She introduced Miss Mabel Schell, State Trustee and Regent of Sacred Heart Circle, Detroit; Mrs. Louise Kelly, State Treasurer; and Mrs. Agnes Zeller, Past National Director and organizer. Mrs. Zeller organized the Farmington Circle in 1938.

Miss Dolores Butler sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Claire Wilmarsh at the piano.

Mrs. John Schuda, chairman of the Cans Conference for the National Council of Catholic Women in Detroit, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Joseph M. Olhoff. Mrs. Olhoff is chairman of the Family Life committee of the Detroit Archdiocese.

A special tribute was then given to Mrs. Mary Fischer, charter member. She has not missed a meeting in eleven years. She was presented with a spring flower bouquet.

The program concluded with an address by Rev. Bartholomew O'Rourke, chaplain of the Circle. Regent Helen DeNies was general chairperson of the affair, assisted by Past Regents Martin, Marie Cronin, Irma Dwyer and Louise Brown.

Edgewood School Plans Open House

Plans are now being made for an open house to be held at the Edgewood School in the Clarenceville School District.

The Edgewood Mothers Club has offered to assist with refreshments for the open house. The program is designed to give residents of the School District an opportunity to visit the Edgewood School and the new addition on St. Francis Avenue. Any adults in the District are invited to visit the school during the open house.

Track Team Organized At Clarenceville High

Coach Charles Greig announced this week that a track team is being organized at Clarenceville for the first time in the school's history.

A total of 14 candidates are working out daily for the team. Greig stated that there are candidates for most of the regular track events. A dual practice meet was held with Farmington Tuesday. Greig states that two dual meets are being planned, one with Detroit University School and the other with Edison Institute. Exact dates will be announced later. Clarenceville may enter candidates in the State Regional Meet held later in the spring.

Efforts will be made to construct track and field events pits in the field opposite the Clarenceville High School on Middlebelt Road. Candidates for the team have been working out for several weeks. Training has been confined to distance running and conditioning.

Fellowship To Give Sunrise Breakfast

The Youth Fellowship of the Farmington Methodist Church will give their annual Sunrise Breakfast and service starting at 6 a.m. Easter morning. The breakfast will be held at the church. The service will feature a choir composed of members of the Youth Fellowship. There will be two soloists, Bob Isley and Anne Blair. Wanda Coolman will give an Easter reading, as will one of Mrs. Lancaster's speech students. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Mrs. Edna Smith, president of the Fellowship, will be in charge of the service.

"Children should be seen and not heard" is the caution expressed by the Automobile Club of Michigan to every motorist.

Accordion Ensemble Visits Percy Jones

The Northwest Accordion Ensemble journeyed to Percy Jones Hospital Sunday, April 10. They took with them a large amount of candy, cigarettes, books and magazines.

The show given the veterans included songs and dances by the Doehring brothers, Keith and Clifford, Jennie and Lynn, ventriloquist Ronald Glasgow, tap dancing and novelty dances by Dorothy James and Dolly Platter.

Accordion solos were rendered by Marilyn Volker (Boogie Woogie) and Jerry Brezinski, who played "The Sabre Dance." Barbara Daniels soloed "Jealousie," and Mary Jean Baquet gave "12th Street Rag."

Lewis Krueger was the accompanist.

Colleen Morris led a community sing, in which the boys joined her heartily. She had them roaring "Powder Your Face With Sunshine" and "Cruising Down the River."

Another Farmington Miss was called back for encores, several times. She was Jackie Leblanc, who sang western numbers, yodeled, accompanied herself in the guitar, and made a genuine hit with the boys.

Jackie works in a local insurance agency. She is heard over radio station WKM.

Agnes Heisler Bride Of Raymond O. Braun

Miss Agnes Heisler, daughter of Mrs. Louise Heisler of Spencer, Iowa, became Mrs. Raymond O. Braun at a double-ring ceremony performed April 9 at Redford Lutheran Church.

Reverend E. Mossner performed the 4 p.m. ceremony.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Martha Askitia, her sister, as Matron of Honor. She was dressed in a beige dress and wore a shoulder bouquet of sweet peas.

Best man was Duane Braun, the groom's son.

The bride wore a grey gabardine suit. Her shoulder bouquet and headpiece were of white carnations. The wedding dinner was served at Redford Inn. Guests present were Rev. and Mrs. Mossner, Lois Braun, Betty Smith, Elsie Martini and Mr. Gust Pappas.

GOTCHER EASTER BONNET??

Goin' steppin', huh? Didja git Paw his new necktie? We saw some elegant polkydot ones in a window down our way. What're we doin'? We aint sellin' neckties in here — we're hopin' to sell yuh the stuff fer yer Easter dinner and the stuff fer that there basket you're gonna make up for the Easter bunny. He promised to stop around here and leave us some white eggs — so why doncha stop around and see if he kept his word. We're gonna have some brown eggs that you can git fer 49c a dozen. We still have a few packages of egg dye — one with pictures to put on the egg and the other with a pencil what cha can write on an egg wit. There's a few boxes of Brachs candy if you wanna take home a treat for all the family.

Fer this here Easter dinner we're gonna have hams and hams; a great big pile of hams. You can git most any size or kind you want. If you aint havin' the neighbors in and cant use a whole ham could we interest cha in the shank end? Don't run away — the price is right. 45c a lb. fer the shank end of a ham sounds good to us. Sound OK to you? Now seems as tho when you have a ham you gotta have pineapple with it. We got it in No. 2 cans either crushed or sliced fer 39c. Fer the first time in a long time we're gonna have a few fresh dressed rabbits. If you're interested better call up and have us save you one.

If you went to the Sample Fair you won't be needin' much in canned goods — they sure gave away a lot of swell stuff — so we aint gonna say nothin' in that department — but would you like fresh frozen peas with yer dinner? We're gonna have some fer 25c a box and they're gonna be Birdseye. And we know you wont pass this up — fer dessert — frozen strawberries. You can git 'em whole or sliced fer 49c a box. They're all sweetened and cleaned and it won't take any time at all to fix that strawberry shortcake. If there's any left over, put on yer old gray bonnet and whip right down here. We have our morning coffee at the store about 9:30. Catch on??
