STATE of MICHIGAN Executive Office — Lansing PROCLAMATION NATIONAL GARDEN WEEK

The National Garden Institute, Incorporated in 1942 as a non-profit organization, devotes its energies to the forwarding of the interests of the people of this country by fostering the growth of gardens.

The Institute constantly strives to bring to the lives of the people a greater realization of the happiness, beauty, utility, and contentment that gardening can bring to them. Gardens satisfy the inmost needs of man by bringing him closer to the soil and giving him the sense of peace and accomplishment that eases the strains and tensions rampant in the world today.

The youth of the Nation are finding the most worthwhile expression of their creativeness and energies in gardening, and gardens create a happier and fuller family life through the cooperative accomplishments of growing beautiful and useful things.

Gardens create an atmosphere of beauty and serenity in which man's best traits will flourish, and all men recognize the need for beauty amid the routine of daily living. The Institute endeavors to instill in the public mind the importance of gardening in the lives of all of us.

Therefore, I, G. Mennen Williams, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby proclaim the week of April 21-30 as National Garden Week in this State, and do urge our citizens to pay special tribute during the week to the beauty, happiness and utility that gardens bring into our daily lives.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this eighth day of April, in the year of Our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred Forty-Nine, and of the Commonwealth the One Hundred Thirtieth.

(Signed) G. Mennen Williams
Governor

YUHDUNNO!!

And we dunno, too, what to suggest to eat — but it seems long about this time yuh should git kinda interested in some fruits so we got some sliced shortcake peaches. The guy sez these peaches are tree ripened and fer two bits you can git a can of 'em — or if yuh wanna buy two cans we'll knock off a penny and yuh can git 2/49c. And after askin' every salesman that came in the store we finally found one that had those good MacIntosh fresh frozen strawberries so we bought another car load of 'em. If you tried 'em before you'll want more than one box — put some in your locker. This week end we're gonna special 'em out at 39c a package — then they gotta go up to their regular price. You know if you're gonna have a garden and put away some fruits and vegetables and aint gotta locker you don't wanna wait too long to git one. Right now we have a few low ones, but later on you'll jist have to take what's left.

Speakin' of gardens — have yuh got yer onion sets yet? We got 'em settin' in here fer 2 lbs. fer 29c. Back in Ioway Grandpappy always sez if yuh wanna have good spuds they gotta be planted on Good Friday. Chances are yuh didn't git around to plantin' yours and if yuh aint got 'em bought we're gonna try and have some this week end. If we git 'em they'll be settin' out in front so you can look 'em over. Don't cost nothin' to look — and if you like 'em we'll be happy to take your money inside and our boy Bruce will throw 'em anywhere you want 'em — but that don't mean around on yer back 40.

Now in the meat department we have a sad story. We're stuck — and we do mean stuck. So fer cost we give yuh some cooked smoked picnics fer 39c a lb. While you're kindda thinkin' about comin' in we'll clinch the deal and offer yuh a lb. of rolled butter fer 63c. See yuh, huh? In the odds and ends department there's some Kingans sausage fer 35c a lb. — or would yuh rather have bacon fer breakfast. It's only 45c or 47c a lb. We know you don't want cottage cheese fer breakfast but it's cheap (only 19c a lb.) so you should have some around. It's almost time fer the ball game and the boss is at the dentist. You know what we're gonna do, dontcha?
