Defeat Spring Fever Feeling With Right Foods As "Tonic"

That "tired feeling" which occurs around this time of year, is often called the result of imagination and the weather. In the light of newer knowledge in nutrition, however, it is now understood that there is a real cause, and the right kind of food is important in maintaining our energy and sense of well being.

For example, one of the food elements which may be lacking in the diet is iron. Iron is essential to the formation of good red blood. Lean meat, especially liver, is a valuable source of iron, says Reba Stagg, home economist, and she recommends that it be served regularly in the diet, to insure an adequate supply of this mineral. Especially is this true in the case of children.

Liver is easy to prepare. It can be sliced and broiled or braised. If it is a large piece, it should be braised. It can also be ground or chopped and broiled in patties, baked in a loaf or combined with other foods to make a variety of tempting spring dishes.

An unusual recipe for a liver dish that will be appetizing as well as beneficial to children is Liver Rolls with Sausage Stuffing, suggested by Miss Stagg.

Liver Rolls with Sausage Stuffing
6 large slices liver
6 to 8 links cooked pork sausage
1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 small onion, grated
1/2 cup hot water
Salt
Pepper
6 slices bacon

Pour hot water over the liver slices. Sausage left over from breakfast may be cut into pieces for sausage stuffing. If no cooked sausage is on hand, brown and partially cook the sausage first. Combine with bread crumbs. Season with grated onion, salt and pepper and moisten with hot water. Pile a teaspoonful of bread dressing on the sautéed liver slices. Roll and wrap a slice of bacon around the outside. Fasten the ends with toothpicks. Place in a baking dish. Add one-half cup of hot water, cover and cook slowly in a moderate oven for 45 minutes. Remove the cover during the last fifteen minutes in order to brown the bacon.

NEW IDEA FOR LIVER SAUSAGE — SERVE IT HOT!

Liver sausage has always held high rank as a premium sandwich filling, and as a "must" on a cold meat platter. Now Reba Stagg, home economist, comes up with a new suggestion to add to the versatility of this old favorite.

The suggestion, she says, is to serve liver sausage hot! For example, one way of doing this is to cut the liver sausage into one-half inch slices, brown in butter or margarine and use it as the base of many tempting combinations. It's good served this way with crisp bacon, stuffed celery and potato chips.

Another recommendation is liver sausage slices panbroiled along with slices of tomato. An unusual lunch or supper dish is liver sausage and cheese sandwiches — served hot. To make them place a slice of cheese over a slice of bread and over that a one-half inch slice of liver sausage. Brush the sausage with melted butter or margarine and for good measure lay a strip of cheese dipped in cream over the top. Put the sandwich under the broiler until the cheese is toasted. Served with a crisp salad, these sandwiches will find a permanent place in your list of foods good to serve.

"Thank You"

The Blue Star Mothers wish to send a "Thank You" to the Farmington Hills Market for the use of their baskets, to Livonia Girl Scout Troop No. 1 for their donation of cigarettes, and the Gold Star Mothers for their generous gifts and help that made the Easter Party for the Veterans in the William H. Maybury sanatorium a very pleasant visit.

SUNSHINE LADY REQUESTS CARDS FOR BLIND FOLK

In the words of Rev. John W. Greenwood, Calvary Methodist Church of Redford — "Be ye one another's burdens, and thus fulfill the laws of Christ."

Cheerful notes will help lighten the burdens of Mrs. Sarah Tingay, 611 35th Avenue, Detroit 7, Michigan.

Mrs. Tingay is a former pastor, who, before her illness, gave a life time of service to her church and fellow man.

Many folks have asked me, "Why send mail to a blind person?" Several years ago I asked a blind person why she waited for the mail each day. She said, "I was 22 when I lost my sight. At first I thought my world had come to an end. Then I found that just going through the mail each day gave me the feeling that I wasn't shut out of the world after all. It's that shut out feeling that is the hardest to take."

Mary Ella White, 3615 Williams Street, Jackson, Michigan, is another sightless person who enjoys notes and cards so very much.

Ten year old Dorothy Pierpont, 18923 Annecorridor, Detroit 19, Michigan, was born for weeks to come. Dorothy was burned seriously in the back yard of her home, when flames from waste paper enveloped her clothing. She is badly burned from her waist down. And your cards will shorten those days.

Friends are asking for a special card shower for Mrs. Ralph Schluschter, 24504 14 Mile Road, Farmington. Mrs. Schluschter has been very ill.

The "Friendly" Baptist Church of Farmington proved it is rightly named the other day when Sunday when they gave of their time to brighten the day for all the shut-ins at the Glenbrook Hospital.

After the Holy Service given by the Rev. Fred Fisher, teenagers along with the other folks from the church, served refreshments. Each person was given a gay Easter basket. There were special Easter cookies, and each room was decked with beautiful flowers. The young people did such a fine job of cheering the sick that all are hoping it won't be too long before they come back for a return visit.

Other shut-ins who could be greatly cheered by a friendly note are:

Mrs. Laura Shumate, 14184 Auburn; Mrs. Catherine McGrover, 12478 Fairport, Detroit, Michigan; Mrs. Fred Griffl, 12915 Prevost, Detroit 19, true friends to say old or lonely persons are themselves on the sick list. Won't you drop them a note today?

Present at the shower were Miss Annie Wells, Mrs. Robert Daley, Mrs. Richard Fisher, Mrs. Art Millard, Mrs. Samuel DeVore, Mrs. Royal Barlow, Mrs. Gerald Grace, Mrs. Gene Hymes, Miss DeLores Butler, Mrs. Vern Nelson, Mrs. Richard Munro, Miss Sue Sugden, Miss Betty Winters, Mrs. Fred Ready, Mrs. Myron Conn, Mrs. Charles Sills and Miss Penny DeVore.

SUE HALMARK IS BRIDE OF JOHN GATTERI

Miss Sue Halmark became Mrs. John Gatterer at a pretty wedding solemnized in Brightmoor Methodist Church, Sunday, April 18.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Joan Hunter, the bride's cousin, was maid of honor. She wore a light blue colonial style taffeta gown, and carried a bouquet of carnations. A shoulder length veil topped her costume.

Bridesmaids were Shirley Halmark, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Jennie Barlow, sister of the groom. They were clothed in yellow and green taffeta with shoulder length veils. Both carried carnations.

A niece of the bride acted as flower girl, and the ring was carried on a white satin cushion by a nephew of the bride.

Joey Gatterer, the groom's brother, was best man.

Doyle Ward and Bob Coe were ushers.

The bride's mother was dressed in blue with blue accessories. Mrs. Gatterer wore gray with white accessories. Both wore corsages of red roses.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom dined at Raphael's Barbecue.

A reception for nearly 250 people was held at 8 p.m. at the Veterans Hall at Northville. A buffet lunch was served. The newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Chicago. On their return they will be at home at the Thompson Farm to their many friends. The farm is located on Grand River in Novi.
