Christian Science Lecture To Be Given May 5

Christian Science Society, Farmington, invites you to attend a free lecture on "Christian Science: The Availability of Divine Law," by Cecil F. Denton, C.S., of New York City, a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, on Thursday evening, May 5, at 8:00 p.m. at the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church, Oakland and Grand River Avenue, Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lee announce the birth of a daughter on Thursday, April 21. Mrs. Lee was formerly Miss Evelyn See, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer See on 14 Mile Road. Mr. Lee is a nephew of Mrs. Maurice Seebaldt on Edward Street.

Want Wedding Gowns For Fashion Show

Do you still have your wedding gown? Maybe that priceless relic will come in handy again! The Methodist Mother's Club would like to use it for modeling on display at the Bridal Fashion show and reception. The event will take place at the Methodist Church Saturday, June 4, at 8 p.m. Mrs. George MacDonald, 2224 Prospect, is chairman of the committee for procuring gowns. She may be reached by calling 1134-3. Among dresses offered to date is one worn in 1885. A special appeal is being made for period gowns, attendant's gowns and flower girl and ring bearers' outfits are also desired for either modeling or display.

Mrs. R. W. McConchie was a Detroit caller on Monday.

BRITISH BRIDE NEW RESIDENT IN FLORAL PARK

One of the new couples in Floral Park are Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Miller, 2324 Lilac. Mr. Miller met his wife in England where he was stationed with the 8th Air Force at Chelveston Field.

Mrs. Miller is from Rushden, England, near Bedford. They were married at her home and Mrs. Miller came to America on the Queen Mary.

In 1947 Mrs. Miller returned to England to visit with her parents and await the birth of her baby. Due to housing conditions she left her son with her parents.

Now that they have their own home, the Millers are anxiously awaiting the arrival of their son.

Mrs. Miller and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook, are bringing him over on the Queen Elizabeth and are expected to arrive next week. They will spend their first days and may stay here in America.

A brother, Gordon Cook, is with the Royal Artillery, radar section, and is now stationed in Egypt.

Bombed. Her family lived in one room for four months until it was repaired. Several houses near them were completely destroyed by bombs. She said the worst mishap occurred when three planes from a nearby airfield crashed in midair in early morning fog and fell into their own barracks.

Mrs. Miller says she knows she will love Farmington. She said shopping in Farmington was such a refreshing change from the hustle and bustle of the city. She said the tradespeople make such pleasant conversation and are so willing to help.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller lived in a small apartment in Detroit before moving to Floral Park.

MARY ANN ISLEY

The engagement of Mary Ann Isley was announced March 5. Mary Ann is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Isley and the late George G. Isley, Sr., of Oakland Avenue. Mary Ann will wed Don E. Prior, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Prior of Nine Mile Road. The couple plan to be married August 13.

DRESS WINS PRIZE

Miss Lois Claypoole, 27410 Halsted, 12 years old, won the ribbon on Achievement day held April 23 at Pontiac High School. The ribbon was first prize for Clothing. One precinct, Lois won with a yellow dress she made. The West Farmington 4-H Club sponsored her.

Among the sixty members of the University of Michigan Alpha Gamma Delta chapter coming to the Book-Cadillac for the reunion April 30 will be Bernice Calkins of 23230 Power Avenue, Farmington. Bernice is bringing two sorority sisters with her to spend the week end at her home in Farmington. They are Corrine Firth, of South Bend, Indiana; and Ruth Holloway, of Perry, New York. Also, two Farmington teachers who will join in the reunion of Alpha Gams are Miss Margaret Foster and Miss Anna Metzger, both alumnae of Old Chapter at Michigan State College.

Livonia Health Guild Installs New Officers

Dr. Robert S. Drews, psychiatrist from Detroit, spoke before the Livonia Township Health Guild at their annual spring luncheon and installation of officers.

Dr. Drews spoke on "Women After Forty." Luncheon was served by the women of the Livonia Methodist Church, Eleven Mile Road. Tables were decorated by Mrs. Hugh Fox and Mrs. Ralph Kinner, who served on the hostess committee with Mrs. Harry Rowland, chairman.

Following the luncheon, guests were introduced and a brief business meeting was held, during which a special collection was added to the collection for the Livonia Loan Closet.

The articles are available at the home of Mrs. Theo Sauer, 15100 Farmington Road, Livonia 2408. There is no charge.

Mrs. Verner Nyman will head the committee to purchase the bed.

Also at the meeting, Mrs. Russell Wendt, retiring president, introduced the women who had served on the executive committee during the past two years. She presented them with tiny tokens of her appreciation. Mrs. Homer Coolman, president of the guild for the 1948-51 term, introduced Mrs. Walter Kremkow, her vice president, and announced the names of the women to serve on the executive committee for the coming year.

The executive committee met at Mrs. Coolman's home Thursday, April 21 to plan next year's program. Next meeting of the board will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Kremkow, May 25, at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Charles A. Armstrong and Mrs. John Alttama were among the visitors in Detroit this Monday.

The Grover Autens, from Melvindale, spent Sunday with the Ralph Autens on Shilwassee.
