CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

By MRS. AXEL RUTILA
TELEPHONE FARM. 1124-M

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walsh have returned from a business trip to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ryall of St. Francis spent last week with relatives in Hamilton, Ontario.

Mr. Harvey Barnes of Ontario is confined to University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mr. William Cox of Ontario is in Veterans' Hospital, Dearborn.

So many new little citizens have come to town since we've been away! But herewith are the names of two brand new fellows: Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cook of Colwell have a new daughter, Linda Lou. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. LaFollette of Dresden have a new son, Bruce.

The Band Boosters were enthusiastic about the good crowd at their card party. Come out Friday night for the Bandalee at Farmington, 8 p.m. It'll be more than worth the price of admission.

The Musical Belles gave their annual concert on Friday evening at Mackenzie High before a large group of relatives and friends.

Clarenceville has six girls among its members, Audrey Kennard, Dolores Crump, Pat MacFarland, Dorothy Rutla, Jane Ann Rutla and Maureen Waack. Audrey, Dorothy and Jane are in the clarinet section, Dolores and Pat, saxophones, and Maureen, trumpet. The group has been awarded a trophy given by the Detroit Juvenile court at their concert on Friday. The girls, dressed in their pastel formal, looked quite professional on the huge school stage with all their bows, back drops, ribbons, etc. The group is playing the first Sunday of each month on WLDL at 4 p.m. They will play again on the lawn at Veterans' Hospital June 12 and are due to play again at Wayne County Hospital.

The Scouts of Troop 2 presented a Court of Honor at which time the new scoutmaster, Mr. Horn, and assistant, Mr. Burnett, were introduced to the parents of the boys. The retiring scoutmaster, Axel Rutla, was presented with an Oscar in appreciation of his services in the past 6 years. Bob Teahan, Glenn Grimm and Don Rutla were chosen to represent District 7 in the Border Patrol Quiz in Windsor. Scouts of Troop 1 and their Scoutmaster, Mr. Ellsworth, took part in the Detroit Exposition at Convention Hall.

The members of the baseball team who attended the baseball clinic at Briggs Stadium and Coach Rybak were pleased with its results. Of course, staying on as a member of the team for the next season's well-attended game was more than could be hoped for.

Mr. C. L. Cook's mother, Mrs. Weber, has returned to Pokio, Illinois, after a month's stay here.

Our town is all lit up with spring flowering plants and fruit trees. Never saw such a sight as the peach orchards all in full bloom Sunday. Hope old man Frost doesn't return as he has been doing.

The hustle and bustle is for the annual Senior Prom at Botsford Inn May 14. This is the beginning of the Seniors' round of graduation activities. They are busy assembling their wardrobes for their trip to Washington the last of this month.

The Girl Scout mother-daughter banquet of this year was unrecorded. Mrs. Wade Dickerson was the speaker of the evening. Mr. Benisteel furnished the music during the dinner and for the song fest led by Mrs. Lloyd Russell. Mrs. Moore's troop gave the play they presented to their parents at Christmas time. The group is in the middle of six weeks' swimming lessons at the Detroit Y. W. W. and Mrs. Moore have secured their senior Life Saving certificates in preparation for Troop summer camp.

Our town is rapidly changing its face along the main drag. The A & P Store, which has been doing business at the intersection of 8 Mile and Grand River, has disappeared. Mr. Maxwell Smith has taken the store over to enlarge his drug store.

Nettes Market has become a grocery store, meat market, cash-ier's cafe and all Robertson's hardware has been enlarged half again as large as it was. The former Selinski home on Eight Mile has been removed for something, we know not what at the present time.
