Keith Wieland Wins Aschenbrenner Trophy

Keith Wieland, a seven letter man, is the first winner of the Aschenbrenner Athletic Trophy, which was established in memory of the late Dr. Zae R. Aschenbrenner. This award, which is presented to the outstanding senior athlete of the year at Farmington High School, was given by a friend who wishes to remain anonymous, in recognition of Dr. Aschenbrenner's interest in the athletic program and his work on the Board of Education for more than 14 years.

Keith, like all future winners, received a smaller trophy to keep; his name will be inscribed on the larger trophy, which is to be kept at the school.

Nominations for the award are made by the coaches, but final selection is made by the Athletic Council.

This issue will be the last put out by the entire staff.

Athletes Honored At Assembly

The annual athletic assembly, June 2, introduced two new awards to Farmington High School, the Aschenbrenner Athletic Trophy and the Brykalski-Coolman Athletic Award. The Aschenbrenner Trophy was presented to the school by an anonymous member of the Board of Education, in memory of Dr. Zae R. Aschenbrenner. Keith Wieland is the first to receive the award.

Through the sponsorship of the Class of 1941, the Brykalski-Coolman Award in memory of George Brykalski and Dean Coolman, who died in the war, is presented to a member of the Junior Class. George Barrows was chosen by the faculty and his classmates, his selection being based on his athletic achievement and high scholastic standing — along with his good citizenship. His name will be engraved in the decorative mahogany plaque.

Velma Goers, Gladys Fyoraal and Helen Tamm received highest possible honors in the Girls' Athletic Association. Their names will be engraved in the new G.A.A. plaque. Seven girls earned letters this year.

Coach Hutton, with the assistance of Coach Nuse, presented the boys' athletic awards to the following for work in track, baseball, football and basketball: ninth grade: T. Brown, B. Brown, J. Brunk, J. Bunn, D. Byrne, G. Carver, E. Cox, F. Curran, T. Darling, R. Devroy, C. Dryden, E. Diehr, J. Fanzini, B. Hammond, B. Hutton, B. Hupert, R. McCracken, H. McCracken, A. McFarland, J.
