J. C. Dunham of Farmington Road underwent a major operation at Mt. Carmel Hospital Thursday morning.

Mrs. James Simpson has been visiting in Gladwyn, Michigan, for a week.

Charles Davis, Farmington Road, has returned from short visit with relatives in Virginia.

A "brush demonstration" party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neil, on Hubbard Avenue, last Monday evening proved a success. Several guests from Detroit attended.

Mrs. Owen Stevens of Detroit gave birth to a 6½ pound baby son Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armstrong entertained relatives from Flint last Monday. In the afternoon, Mrs. Armstrong and her guests visited Miss Maude Gallagher, in the Riverbank Convalescent Home.

Pierson school picnic, held at Cass Benton last Wednesday, turned out to be a "howling" success, though still with a great deal of rain. In one case, a pair of mothers, having changed the drenched clothing of their children and themselves, sat down together and from materials on hand contrived a bathing suit for an eight-year-old who intends to be ready for the next picnic.

Pierson School first-graders are having a picnic of their very own next Saturday, June 25.

The Brownies, who now number 39, are looking forward to "Zoo Day", Thursday, June 30.

Mrs. Roy Best, Detroit, was the Sunday guest of her daughter, Mrs. George Sandku.

A number of West Point Park folks were in Farmington Tuesday night attending the recital given in the Methodist Church Community Hall by Mrs. Edgar's piano pupils. Local young people included Alice Vance and Shirley Ault.

Mrs. June Spencer, from Wayne, was visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vance, Sunday evening.

While on their way to Pontiac last Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coolman suffered minor injuries in an auto accident. In averting to avoid being hit by a recklessly driven car, they collided with another. Mrs. Coolman was thrown from the car and has been recuperating from injuries. Mr. Coolman escaped uninjured. The car was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil, who for some time have been with their son, Charles and his family on Hubbard Avenue, left the first of this week for their farm in northern Michigan. Their three little granddaughters accompanied them. It is expected all will return when school reopens.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gedig from Detroit were visiting with West Point Park relatives and friends last Thursday.

The Shelmans are now occupying the cottage near the corner of Farmington Road and Norfolk. Mr. Shelman is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Fred Shelman, the former Betty Tallman.

Maynard Horton, of Shady Side Avenue is convalescing from an appendix operation.

The Louis Jennings, of Norfolk Avenue, were guests for the week end of Mrs. Jennings' parents in southern Michigan. They also attended the marriage of Mrs. Jennings' sister, Delora, who has frequently visited in West Point Park.

At the wedding, Mrs. Jennings served as matron of honor, and her son, Arnold, as ring bearer.

"Babies" was the topic at the last Sunshine meeting held in the Neighborhood Church, Wednesday, June 16, and the devotional as well as the Sunshine session were all in keeping with the occasion. Later, two new babies were presented to the group. These were Sunette and Richard, son of Mrs. George Cooke. According to custom, the little girl was presented with a Sunshine yellow dress, and the young gentleman with rompers of the same color. Both children were well behaved during the ceremonies, and the get-acquainted period following. Ice cream and cookies were served during the social hour. The next Sunshine meeting will be held Wednesday afternoon, June 23, at 2 p.m. "A Glorious Fourth" will be the topic.

Recognition was made of Father's Day in the Neighborhood Church Sunday School, Sunday, June 19. A recital given by Ellen Lewis and an exercise by the four Varhol girls added interest to the program.

Honoring their eldest daughter, Ruth, a 1949 graduate of Northville High, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault held "open house" at their home on Brentwood Avenue following commencement, June 16. Many friends and relatives dropped in. Entertainment was mostly musical. Four-year-old Ruth Ann Oman sang two solos. Her uncle, Albert Owen, sang another. Shirley and Phyllis Ault rendered some piano numbers.

Mrs. Ault, the hostess, served lunch. Mrs. Clarke Bonar, from Northville, assisted. Her daughter, Francis, was also one of this year's graduates. The Bonars until recently resided in West Point Park.

The first bicycle was made in Scotland in 1840.

Nearly 1,000,000 housing units were turned out in 1948.
