Conservation Department
Adds 50 Lakes To List

Fishermen looking for different lakes in which to drop their lines are advised that the conservation department has mapped 50 more lakes, bringing to some 1,800 the total now reduced to map paper. The maps show lake outline, bottom contour, depths and some shore line features.

County lists of the lake maps available and their prices can be obtained from the department's fish division at Lansing. Individual county listings are supplied free.

CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

Vacation from school here has come at last, but many of the youngsters are unable to find employment which they think they need to fill their coffers for school activities during the winter months.

The Leonard Monette family of Ontonagon and Mr. and Mrs. Monette of Inkster Road attended the wedding of a niece at Alpena Saturday.

Neighbors have been receiving correspondence cards from Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ryall, vacationing in the western states.

The Edgewood Mother's Club held their annual outing at the Rotunda when some 20 of the members attended the dinner and social evening that followed. Mrs. Kenneth Swarthout entertained the group with piano selections.

The Band Boosters' Club members are planning their annual trek for their members and children.

Ethel Pink of the Detroit school system is attending summer school sessions at the University of Michigan.

Our town sends forth herewith hearty congratulations to Fred Stolkler of Long Avenue, who graduated from the U. of M. School of Engineering.

The C. L. Cooks of Colwell, have C. L. Cook, Jr., and Mrs. Cook's mother, Mrs. Weber, of Pekin, Illinois, as their guests this week. Tiny Linda Cook has been confined to Children's Hospital in Detroit.

The Musical Belles held their annual banquet at the Golden Pheasant on Pallister Avenue in Detroit last Wednesday night. The members attending from our town were Audrey Kennard, Maureen Waack, Dorothy Rutilla, and June Rutilla. Audrey and Maureen were awarded their pins, the other two girls received theirs last year. The girls wound up their activities for the year playing for the Veterans at Dearborn Hospital Sunday, June 12.

The fishermen are telling of the wonderful catches they are dragging in during their jaunts to Lake Huron and other popular spots. We inland fishermen will have the tall tales to tell after Saturday morning.

The Fred Bailey family and Don MacArthur took to their lake property from Monday's terrific heat.

Monday morning the fagillar ringing of the Methodist church bells called the children together of their annual Bible School, to be held June 20 through June 30.

Two members of the Junior class made TV headlines Saturday and Monday. Roy Nelson, son of the Horlow Nelsons of Albion Avenue, took part in the "Starlight Stairway" program by playing "Tiger Rag" on his accordion. Roy is ably taking his place as a young entertainer of note.

Barbara Sowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sowers of Louis, played as a regular on Local 164 softball team, which held their games Saturday under the lights on the field on Six Mile.

This older recalls the days when the Parents' Club sponsored a summer softball program during the war years. Barbara's dad helped with the coaching. Barbara stood watching on the sidelines but before a couple of evenings were passed she had been asked to join the regulars, and outshone the fellows. Of course, nothing was thought of it; it was just taken for granted.

Mrs. Deitzel has returned to her home on St. Francis after spending some length of time with her son and his family during their recent illness.

Mr. Maxwell Smith is on the sick list. We hope he, too, will soon be back on the job.

Our 12 year oldster wants the record to show their 7th grade baseball team defeated the Farmington 7th graders. Mr. Grieg was plagued until he secured the game for them, but his efforts were well rewarded, from all accounts.

The fond hopes of all the parents and friends of the 1949 graduation to see the class use the new gymnasium for their exercises was fully realized Thursday evening when 56 graduates proudly entered the building to march music furnished by the band under Mr. Mann's direction.

The Junior boys had placed about 700 seats and they were all taken. Rev. Rutkowski of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church read the invocation and the Benedictions.

The program began with the chorus, under Mrs. Phyllis Pink accompanied by Mrs. Gail, singing the Lord's Prayer. Rita Giguere gave the salutatory address and Fred Grose the valedictory.

Mr. Schmidt introduced Dr. Carl Horn of Michigan State College, who in addressing the graduates, left this thought with them "a quitter never wins and a winner never quits."

Mr. E. L. Chappel presented the diplomas by Mr. Hoppe and Mr. Teahan of the board of education.

The American Legion awards were presented to Harriet Haskell and Robert Barnes of Central School and Alma Wells and Glenn Grimm of the Senior Class.

On Tuesday evening the juniors entertained the group, the faculty, members of the board and their wives, at the annual senior banquet. The food was prepared by the parents club, and served by the home economics girls. The class motto, "Tonight we launch, where do we anchor" was carried out in the decorations in the study hall, especially the place cards prepared for the 156 present. It was a big job, in fact, each Junior was given a job to do and did it during commencement week. The graduates are still talking, and will be for some time to come, about their trip to Washington. A number of parents of the group held open house after the exercises. Other parents entertained after baccalaureate exercises held by Rev. Elsie Johns at the Methodist Church Sunday evening.

Because it was losing $376,000 daily on railroad operations, the government of Argentina has contemplated tearing up 40 per cent of the trackage and replacing it with highways.
