WOMAN'S GUILD MEETS

The Salem Evangelical Woman's Guild will hold their regular meeting July 5, at 2:30 p. m., at the Evangelical Orphanage on Outer Drive. Each member is asked to bring a coffee cake. Members wishing to attend are asked to contact their officer for transportation.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Barnum and son Michael Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Shanon and nephew, Joe MacNeil of Lansing, attended the Edison picnic at Bellevue Point Sunday.

Salem Church Scene Of Wedding

Miss Alvina Ruth Esch became Mrs. Elmer A. Balke at a double ceremony conducted Saturday at the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church. The couple spoke their vows before Rev. Carl Schultz last Saturday evening.

Harvey Balke, of Northville, acted as best man. Maid of honor was June Esch. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Janice Miller, Mrs. Nora Bartsch, and Miss Helen Beckelmann, of Detroit. Usher's duties were performed by Robert McCluskie, Douglas Belton and Frank Light.

Miss Esch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Esch, of 23660 Farmington Road. Mr. Balke is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Balke, 1011 East Line Road, Northville. He is employed as a mail carrier. The new Mrs. Balke is a graduate of Farmington High School, and is now employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

The bride was attired in candlelight satin, with a sweetheart neckline and long, tightly-fitted sleeves. Her long train was trimmed with white lace. A tara of satin trimmed with pearl tordrops and seed beads held the illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of madonna lilies, which came from the groom's mother's garden.

The maid of honor wore a yellow taffeta gown with hoop skirt, fitted bodice and cap sleeves. The bridesmaids were attired in matching gowns of blue taffeta. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of blue delphinium, blue carnations and blue daisies with yellow roses. The bridesmaids had matching bouquets of yellow larkspurs, yellow daisies, and yellow strawflowers.

The groom's niece, Darlene Orr, flowergirl, carried a colonial bouquet. The bride's mother wore navy blue crepe with pink print. The groom's mother also wore navy blue crepe, but with white print. Both carried gardenia corsages.

At the wedding, Maurice Giles sang "Because", and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Albert Bolito at the organ.

At the reception, attended by 250 at the I.O.O.F. Hall, Mrs. Florence Orr, the groom's sister, cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Clarabell Balke, the groom's sister-in-law. Afterward, the couple left for a week-long trip by auto to Canada. For her travel costume, the bride chose a moss green suit with grey accessories.

On their return from Canada, the couple will make their new home at 744 Horton, Northville.

William Adams, the first Englishman in Japan, was honored there by a yearly festival.

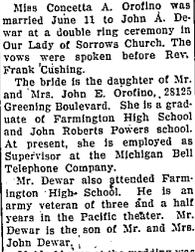

Engagement Announced

PHYLLIS JEAN BUNGE

Mr. Ralph G. Bunge, 23505 Olive Street, announced the engagement of his daughter, Phyllis Jean, to Donald D. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bell, 34017 Grand River Avenue. No date for the wedding has been set.

400 Witness Orofino - Dewar Vows

CONNETTA A. OROFINO

Miss Connetta A. Orofino was married June 11 to John A. Dewar at a double ring ceremony in the Lady of Sorrows Church. The vows were spoken before Rev. Frank Cushing.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Orofino, 23155 Greening Boulevard. She is a graduate of Farmington High School and John Roberts Powers school. At present, she is employed as Supervisor at the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

Mr. Dewar also attended Farmington High School. He is an army veteran of three and a half years in the Pacific theater. Mr. Dewar is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dewar.

Maid of honor at the wedding was Miss Marlon Rowland, close friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Martha and Dorothy Orofino, sisters of the bride. Ushers were William Campbell and Donald Dewar, the latter a brother of the groom. Best man's duties were performed by John B. Orofino, who is the bride's brother.

The new Mrs. Dewar was gown in marquisette, with a yoke of marquisette and satin bodice and sleeves. The marquisette skirt ended in a long train. Her veil was of illusion net, with a coronet of seed pearls edged with rosepoint lace. She carried a bouquet of white lilies. As travelling dress, she chose rose crepe with navy blue accessories.

The bride's mother wore a red and white print crepe dress with a plain red linen jacket, and white accessories. She wore a corsage of tallman roses.

The ring bearer, Master Albert Joseph, cousin of the bride, wore a tuxedo and carried a white satin ring pillow. The flower girl, Marjorie Joseph, another cousin, wore a blue taffeta off-the-shoulder gown, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. She wore a coronet of yellow flowers in her hair.

At the wedding, Miss Shirley Giblin accompanied by Mrs. Betty Schaffer at the organ, sang "Ave Maria", "Paniis Angelicus", and "On This Day".

At the reception, held at the bride's home, chicken, potato salad, baked beans, cheese, lunch meats, tuna, relishes, and beverages were served the 400 guests present.

Hostesses were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Albert Joseph, Mrs. Joseph Kamalay, and a cousin, Mrs. Chris Muttay.

The bride and groom left for a wedding trip in Canada. They will be at home at the bride's parents' home Sunday, June 25.

The Sodality of Our Lady of Sorrows Church will hold a baby sale July 2 at Grimes Cleaners. The sale will start at 9 a. m. and will last until approximately 4 p. m.

To Honeymoon In Bermuda

A flight to Bermuda climaxed the wedding Saturday when Miss Audrey Ann Lathrup to Joseph Hadcock, of Saginaw, at the Farmington Methodist Church. Rev. Stanley Stone officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lathrup, of 23607 Lathrup, Farmington. Mr. Hadcock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley J. Hadcock, of Saginaw.

The bride was gown in chamois lace, Her dress had a peter pan collar, long pointed sleeves, and a full, circular train. A scalloped illusion veil fell from her hoodiness of matching lace. The bride wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. She carried white orchids with a show valley attached to a white bibel.

The maid of honor, Dorothy Lathrup, wore a mint green marquisette over-taffeta gown, with deep ruffled bertha and back panel, and natural flowered headress.

Bridesmaids were Marcella Hejnu of Jackson, Patricia and Gloria Siggins, of Farmington. Their gowns were of the same style as the maid of honor's, with Miss Helmcamp, junior bridesmaid, in coral. Miss Brady in peach, and Miss Siggins in yellow. All carried a floral ring of roses with matching head-dresses.

Michigan Foods Good Buys In July

Homemakers who are interested in buying foods that are plentiful and therefore good buys during the month of July will have a number of foods from which to choose. A brochure heads the list of plentiful foods collected by the Production and Marketing Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture. Fresh and frozen fish will continue plentiful. Fryers from farm flocks and layers culled from flocks will contribute to the chicken plenty.

Fresh berries are added to the list of plentiful by Michigan State College horticulturists.

At the wedding, held at the bride's home, chicken, potato salad, baked beans, cheese, lunch meats, tuna, relishes, and beverages were served the 400 guests present.

Hostesses were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Albert Joseph, Mrs. Joseph Kamalay, and a cousin, Mrs. Chris Muttay.
