Playgrounds

Kids have last year. We would like even more kids to come so they can have fun, too. We spent our time last week playing horseshoes, croquet, checkers, jacks, clay, baseball, coloring, and many other games.

On Wednesday, 45 from Bond School went swimming at Kent Lake. Everyone had a good time and no one was ducked.

On Thursday we went to the wading pool to get cooled off. It's not very big or very deep, but we had a good time.

Friday was the day for the treasure hunt. They had lots of things in the treasure hunt and we had a hard time finding them. We found suckers, model airplanes, bubble blow, dart guns, model cars, and other nice things.

This week is the horseshoe tournament. Many children are going to enter.

NOBLE

By Buchanan, McClurg, Waters, and Pettifor.

Our first week emerged from the confusion of registration and organization with a fairly clear perspective of the next five weeks' work. Noble playground registered 100 even on the first day and now has 169 registered. They are doing their afternoon at softball and wading at the Farmington playground in spite of hot weather and a crowded bus. They are enthusiastic about horse shoe pitching and softball and make constant use of the croquet sets. During the sizzling weather of Thursday and Friday afternoons, they played quietly with paint, crayons, and colored chalk. Their Safety Council is very cooperative and works efficiently. The Regular Safety Council is made up of Robert Pettifor, Lenora McClurg, Michael McClosky, Charlotte Bowden, Tommie Sundrae, Judy Early, Horace Waters, Lois Barge, Ronnie McKenzie, Gerald Wilmer, Veronica Berger, and Gerry Flick. A special force was recruited for Thursday's outstanding contribution of the week. It was a campaign to pick up all broken glass, old tin cans and wire, in the interests of the barefooted companions. They gathered a waste basket full and the neighbor man's store gave them two cents apiece as reward and their names appeared on the playground bulletin board honor roll. The special force was Dennis Meade, Charlotte Bowden, Geraldine Dell Ray, Philip Meade, Carol Anderson, Eileen Anderson, Judy Early, Rosemary Heath, Mary Howe, Bobbie Denny and Peggy Ann Denny.

To let some of the children speak for themselves, Robert Pettifor, 11, writes "I have won one horse shoe game out of two. I have been position in croquet games once. I have played two or three times. I played ball out in the field. The Farmington kids had 50 points on their side, the Noble kids had 20. Beverly Buchanan, 10, says "Noble school went to Kent-Lake on the bus and it was very crowded, and some of our children didn't get to go. But the children that got to go had fun. We were trying to learn how to do the dead man's foot. Then it started to rain and lightning and we had to get out of the water." Carol McClurg says "Every other Tuesday we go wading. Thursday, Mr. Nose brought us some paints and other play things. Friday we had a treasure hunt. Why we are going to the lake every Wednesday is because we are going to learn how to swim." Barbara Waters (14), writes on July 1. "Today we had a treasure hunt and almost everyone that attended got some sort of a prize. There were a few who didn't get prizes, but maybe they will have better luck next time."

After the treasure hunt, they all lined up and had suckers. Those who wanted second lined up and got more.

All the prizes were finally found, except one, and even Polly Early,

Summer Band Gets Big Turn-Out

Lloyd Smith, director of the Farmington High School music department, announces a big turnout at the opening day of summer band, July 1.

Students can still enroll in the band at any time. Band classes have been tentatively scheduled for afternoons at the Bond and the Noble schools. At Farmington, beginning instruction from nine to 10, twirlers from 10 to 10:30, drums from 10:30 to 11, and advanced students from 11 to 12.

"The directors of the band league will meet for a picnic, to plan the coming year's projects. The picnic will be held at Dodge park near Milford on Saturday, July 9."

Schools in the league, called the Eastern Oakland County Band League, include Clawsonville, Holly, Keego Harbor, Milford, Walled Lake and Farmington. All have summer programs and are now making a concerted effort to interest and use adult alumni musicians within the league. Adult alumni are asked to attend the summer rehearsals.

Plans are now being made to have a league band group for the American Legion Gala Day Parade on August 7.

League schools, Scout organizations, recreation groups and others are looking forward to the Fifth annual boat trip to Put-In-Bay, Ohio, on Wednesday, July 27. An amateur show is to be held aboard ship, and prizes will be given the winners. The D&C liner "Eastern States" will carry the group.

Our director, didn't know where that one was. After a long search, it too, was finally found.

The first few days, there was almost perfect attendance. Thursday and Friday there were not so many because of the hot weather.

FARMINGTON

By Lynne Angel

We have been having fun at play school this week. We have been playing games and going on the swings, merry-go-round, and teeters. We have a story hour, paint, color, and model with clay. Every afternoon we go wading in the pool to cool off.

Last Friday we had a treasure hunt and found toys and suckers. This Friday we're going to the zoo.

The boys have organized a softball team and call themselves the Farmington Apes. They beat Noble playground this week and hope to be champs of all the playgrounds by the end of the summer.

We go swimming at Kent Lake every Wednesday and take lessons from the Red Cross. It sounds like we're going to be busy for the next few weeks at the playground and we're all looking forward to it.

Mrs. Gertrude Cox

Mrs. Gertrude Cox, an old time resident of Farmington Township, passed away in Monday afternoon at the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital at following a short illness.

Mrs. Cox was born July 21, 1869, in Marion, Illinois, the daughter of George and Sarah Roberts Watson. She was united in marriage to Frank W. Cox on April 25, 1888 in Clay County, Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Cox returned to Michigan and took up their residence on the old Cox homestead on Thirteen Mile Road, living there until twelve years ago when Mr. Cox retired from farming. Mr. Cox passed away in June of last year.

Mrs. Cox rested at the Thayer Funeral Home until Wednesday morning when she was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Layland, 2324 Criggs Avenue, where funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with the Rev. A. Stanley Stone officiating. Burial took place in the North Farmington Cemetery.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Aileen Layland of Farmington and Sarah Roberts Watson, and four sons, Carl E. of Pontiac, Gerald W. of Detroit, Howard F. of Walled Lake and John R. of Farmington. She also leaves four sisters, Mrs. Ora Brooks of Edmonton, Kansas, Mrs. Carrie Jones of Klamath Falls, Oregon, Mrs. Jesse Chickfield of Gary, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Cora Peaster of Clairmore, Oklahoma, and three brothers, George of Yukon, Oklahoma, John of Los Angeles and Joshua of Vinland, Kansas. Also eighteen grandchildren and twenty-two great-grandchildren.

'TAINT NO USE ! !

It's too darned hot to eat, and so why should we work up a sweat tryin' to sell yuh somethin' when yuh don't want nothin' no how — except somethin' cool! — and we've got more cold stuff around here than Carter's got little liver pills. There's cantaloupe and watermelon and ice cream and pop and root beer and beer without the root and that new Dial deodorant soap that's supposed to make yuh smell pretty from 7 to 7 if yuh got time to take a bath. Course you always gotta take a bath when you git thru with the washin'. Betcha yuh sure had a mess of it after that two day holiday and you want to git done quick like. Well, you wanna be sure and git around here and git yourself a couple boxes of HUM fer 33c while there is still some of those deals left. You know how hard it is to git people to try somethin' new — and this HUM soap is really goin' over with a bang! It didn't stop bangin' on the fourth, either. Somethin' else — we're really comin' forth with a good deal on our new coffee! If you'll buy 1 pound of Folgers coffee fer 57c fer 89c more you can git fer you a darned good 8 cup aluminum percolator. What can you lose??

If we git that break in the weather that the weatherman is talkin' about maybe you'll feel like doin' some cookin'. Now we're gonna dress some chickens Friday aym. They'll be the stewin' kind and the fryin' kind. Course if you want beef or pork or lamb we got them too — but bein' as how we've lost a day this week we can't say fer sure jest what the price will be — but you can be sure it'll be in line and hey — when you take yer vacation be sure to drop us a line. Jest address it to Conroy's Gang. We'll git it — and we like to hear from our friends and know what they're doin'! We aint doin' any more than we have to — can you blame us ??
