

Arthur Ryan Places In Model Airplane Meet

The third annual Michigan State model plane meet in Detroit was held by the Plymouth Dealers of Michigan July 15, 16, and 17. 355 contestants flew 1,094 planes. Arthur Ryan, of 2177 Junction, placed in the meet. He was the 4th place winner in the Class A model division, flying a free-flight gas powered model plane.

High point winners from this contest will be screened and 17 will be selected to represent Michigan in the Plymouth Corporation International Meet to be held in Detroit August 22 to 23.

ENTERPRISE CLASSIFIEDS
BRING QUICK RESULTS

4-H Club News

JOHN TROCKE, 4-H Club Agent

Oakland County is really becoming 4-H minded. Just to prove the point, 1 was at the state horse show at Richland, Michigan, on the 20th of July. Although we were around 175 miles from here, about 20 Oakland County 4-H people attended the show. Among them were members of Jack Appleby's club of Northville, Mr. and Mrs. Wais club of Highland, Gene Borkhards club from White Lake and some from Mrs. Schmidt's club in Rochester. The program was very good and featured horse catching, teaching colts to lead, breaking 2 year olds, feeding and fitting hogs for show and many other interesting events.

Out Randall Way

By MRS. GLENN PETTIS
21420 Randall - 1041-R

Joan Lancaster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lancaster, left Sunday for her summer vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster of Gaylord, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Tarry of Detroit spent Sunday with Mrs. Marie Scholett of Randall Road.

Mrs. Della Thornton spent the week end with friends in St. Clair, Michigan.

Mrs. Jim Sarris and daughters, Kathie and Chris, of Detroit, spent Sunday with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pettis.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKenzie spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thurman.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kohler and sons have left for their vacation in Chicago and northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olson attended the wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. Fiedel Beck in Detroit Saturday evening.

Mrs. R. Schlegel and daughter, of Gill Road, and granddaughters, spent Sunday visiting the Irish Hills and Jackson.

Sunday callers at the Nicholas Day home were Mrs. Charlotte Mettetal and daughter Barbara, of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Boderbach and son, Rancey, of Ferndale, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Brasch and family of Detroit.

The Flying Needles club will meet at the home of Martha Shuts on Weber Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomas of Randall Road spent the week end visiting Mrs. Thomas' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Debow of Battle Creek.

Extension Group Hears Governor

Mrs. C. Mortimer and Mrs. Frank Platz attended the Home Makers Conference at Michigan State College July 18-22, representing the Farmington Eight Mile Extension Group. More than 700 women from various counties in Michigan attended the conference.

Governor C. Mennen Williams addressed the women at the conference, as did Dr. Howard McClucky of the University of Michigan, who spoke on "Making Democracy Live in Your Community". Mrs. Betty Price, of the Leiberhann trunk company in Lansing spoke on how handbags were made.

A panel discussion was held on the United Nations Educational Scientific Organization, a world clearing house for information and education leading to better living. Dr. Miriam Lovenberg of the Mayo Clinic gave a talk on feeding children. Dr. William M. McGovern, of Northwestern University, also lectured on the future ahead in world affairs.

Entertainment highlights at the

St. William's Fiesta Stated For Saturday

This Saturday and Sunday, July 30 and 31, has been set aside as the dates for the annual St. William's Fiesta at the Walled Lake Church.

The affair will feature a Country Store, fancy work booths, archery, a fish pond, refreshment, rides, dancing, games and other amusements fitting the carnival-like fiesta.

Sunday from one to five a family style dinner will be served in the Mexican-decorated church dining room. The ladies of the parish will serve the dinner.

The largest bluegill on record in Michigan weighed two pounds and 12 ounces, was 12 inches in length and had a girth of 14 and seven-eighths inches. The fish was caught in Silver Lake, Cheboygan county, in August, 1948, by Fred Brook of Bloomfield Hills.

Edgewood Items

By Olga Rice
PHONE 0522-J11

On July 12, little 4 year old Dianne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pratt was severely burned when she found some matches in the glove compartment of her daddy's car. She got out of the car with the matches in her hand, and commenced striking them one by one. One of them set her dress on fire and she suffered second degree burns. Dianne was rushed to the Redford Receiving Hospital by the State Police. Later she was transferred to the Pontiac General Hospital, where she will be for five or six weeks. She is improving.

Mrs. Harry Westland of Orchard Lake Road left July 18 for a five day vacation. Her itinerary includes Akron, Columbus and Cincinnati, where she will stay at the Netherland Plaza Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lione of Portland, Oregon, were the Sunday dinner guests of Miss Olga Rice.

The Wren Longabaugh, who operate an apartment house in Detroit, are sold on country living, and their farm at 27460 Orchard Lake Road is their second home. Half of their two acres is under cultivation, yielding an abundance of flowers and vegetables, due to Mr. Longabaugh's enthusiastic care.

The Longabaughs come out every chance they get, and sometimes stay for several days. Mr. Longabaugh looks 10 years younger since commencing with Mother Nature.

Dr. and Mrs. James Cunningham of 35559 13 Mile Road were recently the dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilner. They dined at the Vannelli restaurant on Woodward, Detroit.

Dr. and Mrs. Ben Darling, 30725 12 Mile Road, have sold their lovely country estate to a man by the name of Benson from Royal Oak. The Darlings will be gone in 50 days — and we hate to see them go.

We have a fine and talented son in our midst. He is Lawrence Stock, 17, of 21548 Edgemoor Drive. Lawrence attends the Sacred Heart Seminary, where he is studying for the priesthood. A poem which he wrote recently appeared in his school magazine, the "Golden". At present Lawrence is at the Catholic Youth Organization camp in Port Sanilac, where he is acting in the capacity of counselor to young boys. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stock, plan to visit him this week.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Mrs. C. Mortimer and Mrs. Frank Platz attended the Home Makers Conference at Michigan State College July 18-22, representing the Farmington Eight Mile Extension Group. More than 700 women from various counties in Michigan attended the conference.

Governor C. Mennen Williams addressed the women at the conference, as did Dr. Howard McClucky of the University of Michigan, who spoke on "Making Democracy Live in Your Community". Mrs. Betty Price, of the Leiberhann trunk company in Lansing spoke on how handbags were made.

A panel discussion was held on the United Nations Educational Scientific Organization, a world clearing house for information and education leading to better living. Dr. Miriam Lovenberg of the Mayo Clinic gave a talk on feeding children. Dr. William M. McGovern, of Northwestern University, also lectured on the future ahead in world affairs.

Entertainment highlights at the

St. William's Fiesta Stated For Saturday

This Saturday and Sunday, July 30 and 31, has been set aside as the dates for the annual St. William's Fiesta at the Walled Lake Church.

The affair will feature a Country Store, fancy work booths, archery, a fish pond, refreshment, rides, dancing, games and other amusements fitting the carnival-like fiesta.

Sunday from one to five a family style dinner will be served in the Mexican-decorated church dining room. The ladies of the parish will serve the dinner.

The largest bluegill on record in Michigan weighed two pounds and 12 ounces, was 12 inches in length and had a girth of 14 and seven-eighths inches. The fish was caught in Silver Lake, Cheboygan county, in August, 1948, by Fred Brook of Bloomfield Hills.

Edgewood Items

By Olga Rice
PHONE 0522-J11

On July 12, little 4 year old Dianne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pratt was severely burned when she found some matches in the glove compartment of her daddy's car. She got out of the car with the matches in her hand, and commenced striking them one by one. One of them set her dress on fire and she suffered second degree burns. Dianne was rushed to the Redford Receiving Hospital by the State Police. Later she was transferred to the Pontiac General Hospital, where she will be for five or six weeks. She is improving.

Mrs. Harry Westland of Orchard Lake Road left July 18 for a five day vacation. Her itinerary includes Akron, Columbus and Cincinnati, where she will stay at the Netherland Plaza Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lione of Portland, Oregon, were the Sunday dinner guests of Miss Olga Rice.

The Wren Longabaugh, who operate an apartment house in Detroit, are sold on country living, and their farm at 27460 Orchard Lake Road is their second home. Half of their two acres is under cultivation, yielding an abundance of flowers and vegetables, due to Mr. Longabaugh's enthusiastic care.

The Longabaughs come out every chance they get, and sometimes stay for several days. Mr. Longabaugh looks 10 years younger since commencing with Mother Nature.

Dr. and Mrs. James Cunningham of 35559 13 Mile Road were recently the dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilner. They dined at the Vannelli restaurant on Woodward, Detroit.

Dr. and Mrs. Ben Darling, 30725 12 Mile Road, have sold their lovely country estate to a man by the name of Benson from Royal Oak. The Darlings will be gone in 50 days — and we hate to see them go.

We have a fine and talented son in our midst. He is Lawrence Stock, 17, of 21548 Edgemoor Drive. Lawrence attends the Sacred Heart Seminary, where he is studying for the priesthood. A poem which he wrote recently appeared in his school magazine, the "Golden". At present Lawrence is at the Catholic Youth Organization camp in Port Sanilac, where he is acting in the capacity of counselor to young boys. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stock, plan to visit him this week.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Mrs. C. Mortimer and Mrs. Frank Platz attended the Home Makers Conference at Michigan State College July 18-22, representing the Farmington Eight Mile Extension Group. More than 700 women from various counties in Michigan attended the conference.

Governor C. Mennen Williams addressed the women at the conference, as did Dr. Howard McClucky of the University of Michigan, who spoke on "Making Democracy Live in Your Community". Mrs. Betty Price, of the Leiberhann trunk company in Lansing spoke on how handbags were made.

A panel discussion was held on the United Nations Educational Scientific Organization, a world clearing house for information and education leading to better living. Dr. Miriam Lovenberg of the Mayo Clinic gave a talk on feeding children. Dr. William M. McGovern, of Northwestern University, also lectured on the future ahead in world affairs.

Entertainment highlights at the

St. William's Fiesta Stated For Saturday

This Saturday and Sunday, July 30 and 31, has been set aside as the dates for the annual St. William's Fiesta at the Walled Lake Church.

The affair will feature a Country Store, fancy work booths, archery, a fish pond, refreshment, rides, dancing, games and other amusements fitting the carnival-like fiesta.

Sunday from one to five a family style dinner will be served in the Mexican-decorated church dining room. The ladies of the parish will serve the dinner.

The largest bluegill on record in Michigan weighed two pounds and 12 ounces, was 12 inches in length and had a girth of 14 and seven-eighths inches. The fish was caught in Silver Lake, Cheboygan county, in August, 1948, by Fred Brook of Bloomfield Hills.

Edgewood Items

By Olga Rice
PHONE 0522-J11

On July 12, little 4 year old Dianne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pratt was severely burned when she found some matches in the glove compartment of her daddy's car. She got out of the car with the matches in her hand, and commenced striking them one by one. One of them set her dress on fire and she suffered second degree burns. Dianne was rushed to the Redford Receiving Hospital by the State Police. Later she was transferred to the Pontiac General Hospital, where she will be for five or six weeks. She is improving.

Mrs. Harry Westland of Orchard Lake Road left July 18 for a five day vacation. Her itinerary includes Akron, Columbus and Cincinnati, where she will stay at the Netherland Plaza Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lione of Portland, Oregon, were the Sunday dinner guests of Miss Olga Rice.

The Wren Longabaugh, who operate an apartment house in Detroit, are sold on country living, and their farm at 27460 Orchard Lake Road is their second home. Half of their two acres is under cultivation, yielding an abundance of flowers and vegetables, due to Mr. Longabaugh's enthusiastic care.

The Longabaughs come out every chance they get, and sometimes stay for several days. Mr. Longabaugh looks 10 years younger since commencing with Mother Nature.

Dr. and Mrs. James Cunningham of 35559 13 Mile Road were recently the dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilner. They dined at the Vannelli restaurant on Woodward, Detroit.

Dr. and Mrs. Ben Darling, 30725 12 Mile Road, have sold their lovely country estate to a man by the name of Benson from Royal Oak. The Darlings will be gone in 50 days — and we hate to see them go.

We have a fine and talented son in our midst. He is Lawrence Stock, 17, of 21548 Edgemoor Drive. Lawrence attends the Sacred Heart Seminary, where he is studying for the priesthood. A poem which he wrote recently appeared in his school magazine, the "Golden". At present Lawrence is at the Catholic Youth Organization camp in Port Sanilac, where he is acting in the capacity of counselor to young boys. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stock, plan to visit him this week.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Mrs. C. Mortimer and Mrs. Frank Platz attended the Home Makers Conference at Michigan State College July 18-22, representing the Farmington Eight Mile Extension Group. More than 700 women from various counties in Michigan attended the conference.

Governor C. Mennen Williams addressed the women at the conference, as did Dr. Howard McClucky of the University of Michigan, who spoke on "Making Democracy Live in Your Community". Mrs. Betty Price, of the Leiberhann trunk company in Lansing spoke on how handbags were made.

A panel discussion was held on the United Nations Educational Scientific Organization, a world clearing house for information and education leading to better living. Dr. Miriam Lovenberg of the Mayo Clinic gave a talk on feeding children. Dr. William M. McGovern, of Northwestern University, also lectured on the future ahead in world affairs.

Entertainment highlights at the

St. William's Fiesta Stated For Saturday

This Saturday and Sunday, July 30 and 31, has been set aside as the dates for the annual St. William's Fiesta at the Walled Lake Church.

The affair will feature a Country Store, fancy work booths, archery, a fish pond, refreshment, rides, dancing, games and other amusements fitting the carnival-like fiesta.

Sunday from one to five a family style dinner will be served in the Mexican-decorated church dining room. The ladies of the parish will serve the dinner.

The largest bluegill on record in Michigan weighed two pounds and 12 ounces, was 12 inches in length and had a girth of 14 and seven-eighths inches. The fish was caught in Silver Lake, Cheboygan county, in August, 1948, by Fred Brook of Bloomfield Hills.

Edgewood Items

By Olga Rice
PHONE 0522-J11

On July 12, little 4 year old Dianne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pratt was severely burned when she found some matches in the glove compartment of her daddy's car. She got out of the car with the matches in her hand, and commenced striking them one by one. One of them set her dress on fire and she suffered second degree burns. Dianne was rushed to the Redford Receiving Hospital by the State Police. Later she was transferred to the Pontiac General Hospital, where she will be for five or six weeks. She is improving.

Mrs. Harry Westland of Orchard Lake Road left July 18 for a five day vacation. Her itinerary includes Akron, Columbus and Cincinnati, where she will stay at the Netherland Plaza Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lione of Portland, Oregon, were the Sunday dinner guests of Miss Olga Rice.

The Wren Longabaugh, who operate an apartment house in Detroit, are sold on country living, and their farm at 27460 Orchard Lake Road is their second home. Half of their two acres is under cultivation, yielding an abundance of flowers and vegetables, due to Mr. Longabaugh's enthusiastic care.

The Longabaughs come out every chance they get, and sometimes stay for several days. Mr. Longabaugh looks 10 years younger since commencing with Mother Nature.

Dr. and Mrs. James Cunningham of 35559 13 Mile Road were recently the dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilner. They dined at the Vannelli restaurant on Woodward, Detroit.

Dr. and Mrs. Ben Darling, 30725 12 Mile Road, have sold their lovely country estate to a man by the name of Benson from Royal Oak. The Darlings will be gone in 50 days — and we hate to see them go.

We have a fine and talented son in our midst. He is Lawrence Stock, 17, of 21548 Edgemoor Drive. Lawrence attends the Sacred Heart Seminary, where he is studying for the priesthood. A poem which he wrote recently appeared in his school magazine, the "Golden". At present Lawrence is at the Catholic Youth Organization camp in Port Sanilac, where he is acting in the capacity of counselor to young boys. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stock, plan to visit him this week.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

Other survivors include Mrs. Vining, three grand children, five great-grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Harger Orvis of Los Angeles.

Following cremation in Florida, Interment will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John Dallas Harger, the former Stella Elizabeth Chamberlain, died July 15 at Coconut Grove, a suburb of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Harger, who was residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Devere Vining, (the former Mildred Harger) died peacefully in her sleep the morning of July 15.

Mrs. Harger was born December 1, 1897, at the Chamberlain farm near here. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Whipple, survives her.

conference were a clothing revue in which Extension women participated, and the Southernaires male quartet. A concert, featuring Mr. Roy Underwood, head of the MSC music department, a contralto selection by Mrs. Ethel Wright Fuson and violin selections by Kenneth Byler of Appleton, Wisconsin, was presented.

Square dances were held on the lawn in front of the bandshell, as well as a community sing. Mrs. Mortimer and Mrs. Platz also took two of the many courses available to the Extension women during the conference.

When you need it most, you can't get it!

for ACTION SEE
FARMINGTON INSURANCE AGENCY
EDGAR & PIERCE
3314 GRAND RIVER AVENUE
FARMINGTON, MICH.