There doesn't seem to be many surprises from this week's news. We all are finding it a good excuse to stay out of the garden and enjoy nice cool rides in the evening. One little girl has all the luck, though. She's nine-year-old Lorraine Hawley of 21123 Middlebelt and she's learning how to swim at Camp Sherwood, near Lapeer. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon J. Hawley, visited her Sunday and found their little girl scout thrilled with this first experience and not yet ready to come home. Filling in for her absence at home these two weeks is her grandmother, Mrs. David Thomas of Palms Avenue, Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stolkler of Dresden Street have returned to find the heat even more unbearable after a one thousand mile trip through Northern Michigan in cool, rainy weather. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stewart of Tontio returned and since this is Mrs. Stewart's first Detroit visit they are remaining this week to do a lot more sight-seeing. Mrs. Amelia Stibler returned to their home Tuesday after spending nearly two months with relatives at Kalamazoo.

A wonderful train trip to Loraine, Kansas, became almost a disappointment for Mr. and Mrs. George Ferris when they returned to their home on Dresden Street. Their brother, William Ferris of Vancouver, Canada, who they had not seen for 10 years, had left a "sorry" note on their door. Object of the Ferris' trip to Kansas had been a two week stay at the home of their son, Russ. Ferris expects to leave this fall for a few months of Baptist mission-

Livonia Church Holds Vegetable Sale, Social

On Sunday, August 14, a vegetable sale and ice cream social will be held at 30425 West-Seven Mile Road, near Middlebelt, in Livonia Township, for the benefit of the Livonia Methodist Church at 53015 West Seven Mile Road.

Any surplus vegetables or fruits (either fresh or canned) can be donated for this worthy cause. Proceeds will be donated to the church. If unable to deliver donations to the above address, contributors can telephone any of the following numbers: Livonia 3120, Farmington 1162, Garfield 3919-R, Farmington 1143-M, and the group will gladly arrange to pick them up. Donations may be delivered anytime before or during the sale.

any work in Africa, his parents also are caught up in the round of activity here, collecting necessary information for his passport.

Georgiana Jay in Canada was the most desirable one found by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ellis and two daughters of List Street, on their trip last week. They stayed at a cottage there and visited relatives at nearby points. Mrs. Ellis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hedley of 26395 Roosevelt, reversed the procedure and entertained relatives from Canada for several days, they were their nephews and nieces. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hedley from Toronto.

Janet LaFollette tells us she will be rooting for Royal Oak and Mrs. T. J. LaFollette have purchased a new home on Eriowah Street in Royal Oak. Before beginning the hard business of moving the family will relax at a cottage at Otego Lake. They expect to leave for the north Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bracken Chauby and Nancy, spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lahr, near Howell. Mr. Lahr is Mrs. Bracken's brother.

Interest last week end was divided between the air show at Willow Run and the Gala Days in Farmington where many of our bandsters from Clarenceville High joined the parade. Our most strong-hearted visitors at the air show, we believe, were Mr. and Mrs. L. Hasley of Scotten Street, all Geneva has the sunburn to prove it. Lee has had a pilot's license and ownership of a plane for several years, so his ticket was well worth the scorching hot day that went with it.

We have a hunch that a lot of our Clarenceville folks don't realize that their school board meetings, held the second Monday evening of each month at the high school, are open to the public. That means that all of you parents, even though your children are not yet in school, have the opportunity to help determine how those important tax dollars will be spent. Approximately 25 folks represent all of us and that isn't enough. We have no reason to gripe or point fingers if our own active interest is nil. Monday night's meeting was highly important to all of us, and we hope the new faces, seen then will become regular supporters. Our votes alone are not enough.

The training of children is a profession, where we must know how to lose time in order to gain it.

The Prayer-Bible study group of the Neighborhood Church met in the church as usual last Thursday night. Later, they moved to the Rehahn home, where 36-year-old Mrs. Catherine Hessler, from Detroit, was a guest. The group will continue meeting in the church until cold weather arrives, each Thursday evening at 8. Adults and young people are invited to attend. Children have a meeting of their own at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

In the Neighborhood Bible School Sunday morning, Miss Ellen Lewis received an award for reciting the 23rd Psalm from memory. Several are expected to receive prizes for the same work next Sunday. Bonnie and Richard Kline received awards last week at the Wednesday night boys and girls meeting.

The Neighborhood Church is still open at 7:30 a.m. Sunday. Generally a cool breeze makes the atmosphere pleasant.
